HUBBUCK'S PATENT WHITE ZINC PAINT.

White Zinc Paint made by Hubbuck's Patent Process completely resists the Atmosphere of large Towns, Bilge Water, and Gas under every form

THE Suspension Bridge over the Thames at Charing Cross was painted in 1853 with Zinc Paint made by this Process, and in 1857 the Company's Inspectors state—"It is found to have completely resisted all Atmospheric and other influences the iron work being thoroughly protected the Paint is as perfect as when the work was finished. It incontestably establishes the applicability of ZINC PAINT to outside work."

ADULTERATIONS—Several Paint Grinders have been selling Zinc Paint adulterated with Sulphate of Barium some even to the extent of thirty per cent. No workman can produce good work with such material. Those who have once used the Patent Zinc Paint will never willingly use any other Paint for their best work.

CHEAPNESS—Not only is it cheaper per hundredweight, but two hundredweight of this Paint, with six gallons of Oil covers as much surface as three hundredweight of White Lead and twelve gallons of Oil.

Each cask is stamped HUBBUCK LONDON PATENT

Interior Zinc Paint so marked having been sold in Foreign markets, the Patentees offer a reward of Fifty Pounds for information which shall lead to the conviction in an English or Colonial Court of those who have pirated their mark. It is to be observed that the sellers are also liable to prosecution.

THOMAS HUBBUCK & SON,

White Lead Oil, Paint and Varnish Works, 24, Lime Street London

"Among other tests to which it has been subjected has been that of painting the hold of a sugar vessel, which after a voyage to St Kitts and back and after washing to be as white as the first day the paint was applied. —John Bull, September 15 1859

Certificates of the Survey of the Iron Ship "Thomas Hamlin"

GARROCK 7th August, 1859

"GENTLEMEN—My object in writing to you is to call attention to the state of the frames and plating of the iron ship Thomas Hamlin. This vessel when built eight years ago was coated inside and outside with your Zinc Paint. The inside coating has never been renewed."

From the reports on other ships of even less age I was led to fear that both the plates and rivet heads might be a good deal destroyed the ship having had frequently Sugar cargoes home from India and Molasses from the West Indies.

When the ship was opened fore and aft for the inspection of Lloyd's Surveyors in London my pleasure was not less than the surprise of those gentlemen on Messrs. ARCHER and LIGOT to find that both the frames, plates, and rivet heads were as good as the day on which they were coated when the ship was building in fact to use the expressive words of the Surveyor, NOTHING COULD BE BETTER.

The iron of the plates, rivets, and frames were no doubt good originally but the high state of preservation I attribute to having had them coated BEFORE AND AFTER OXIDE had formed on them with your Zinc Paint.

"Messrs HUBBUCK AND SON, London"

I am Gentlemen yours very truly

AS its name imports this Paper is a medium for the publication of ADVERTISEMENTS ONLY, it is not a Newspaper. It is issued TWICE A WEEK on the mornings of MONDAY and THURSDAY and TWO THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED COPIES are circulated GRATIS weekly. In the Presidency Town of Bombay it is very freely distributed.

Should it be found requisite the number of Copies issued will be still further increased.

It is unnecessary to enlarge on the advantages which a Publication like the ADVERTISER offers to the Commercial and General Public of the Bombay Presidency. It may suffice briefly to suggest the following —

- 1 Being exclusively devoted to Advertisements it is specially sought and consulted by those requiring the information which it supplies.
- 2 Being unaffected by the preferences and prejudices professional or personal which influence the distribution of a Newspaper, the ADVERTISER addresses itself alike to all classes, and is equally distributed over all parts of the Presidency, in the Civil Station the Military Cantonment, and the Commercial Town.
- 3 As the Scale of Charges is based upon that now adopted by the Daily Newspapers to the other advantages offered by the ADVERTISER may be added that of embodying those afforded by advertising in all the other Papers and at a greatly reduced cost.

In calculating the effects of refraction and the dip of the horizon, the Barometer has been assumed at 29.8 in., the Thermometer at 80° Fahrenheit, and the eye of the observer 15 feet above the level of the sea.

MOON'S AGE.

The time given as the Moon's Age is the period which has elapsed since the Sun and Moon were together in the same longitude at Bombay.

The time of High Water has been specially prepared from Observations in the harbour. (See paper at end of Calendar pp 37)

ADJUSTMENT OF THE CALENDAR.

Julius Caesar was the first to attempt to adjust the length of the year with any degree of accuracy and fixed it at 365 days & 6 hours introducing a day every fourth year (cal'd Leap Year) which accordingly consists of 366 days while the three others have only 365 days each

From him it was called the Julian Year and it continued in vogue till the year 1582 when Pope Gregory XIII undertook to rectify the error which then existed between the Julian year of 365 days and the solar year of 365 242226121 days At that time the difference amounted to ten days. He accordingly commanded the ten days between the 4th and 15th October in that year to be struck out so that the 15th day was called the 14th This alteration has been introduced throughout Europe except in Russia and by the Greek church, and the year was afterwards called the Gregorian Year or S. W. Style

In England the method of reckoning after the New Style was not admitted into the Calendar till the year 1752, when the error amounted to nearly 11 days, which were taken from the month of September by calling the 3rd of that month the 14th and it was settled by Act of Parliament (24 Geo. II 1751) that the years 1700, 1800, 1900, 2100, 2300 and every hundredth year of our Lord which shall happen in time to come shall be computed as each consisting of 365 days only excepting every fourth hundredth year whereof the year 2000 should be the first

By the same Act of Parliament the legal beginning of the year was changed from the 1st of March to the 1st of January so that the antecedent months of January February and March up to the 25th day which by the old style would have been reckoned part of the year 1751 were accounted a the three first months of 1752 which is the reason we sometimes meet with such a date as—

MARCH 16th 1774-75

that is according to the Old Style it is 1774 according to the New 1775

CHRONOLOGICAL CYCLES

Golden Number	2	Domical Letter	D
Epact	11	Roman Indiction	6
Solar Cycle	28	Julian Period	6576

The Solar Cycle or Cycle of the Sun is a period of 28 years after which all the Domical Letters return in the same order as they did during the 28 years before The first year of the Christian Era was the 1st of this Cycle

The Lunar Cycle, or Cycle of the Moon commonly called the Golden Number and sometimes the Metonic Cycle, (from Meton an Asiatican who invented it about 432 years before the Birth of Christ,) is a revolution of 19 years in which time the conjunctions oppositions, and other aspects of the Moon are within an hour and a half of being the same as they were on the same days of the months 19 years before. The prime, or Golden Number is the number of years elapsed in this Cycle. Before the Birth of Christ 2 years of this Cycle had elapsed.

The Roman Indiction is a period of 15 years, used by the Romans for the time of taxing their provinces. Three years of one of these Cycles had elapsed before the Birth of Christ.

The Julian Period contains 7980 years and arises from multiplying together 28, 19 and 15 being the Cycles of the Sun Moon and Indiction. This was contrived by Joseph-Joaze Scaliger in 1583 for Chronological purposes and is assumed as a fixed era in calculations by all Astronomers and Chronologers throughout the Christian world. Its beginning is placed 716 years before the usual date of the creation of the world or 4714 before the commencement of the Christian Era.

OBSERVATIONS ON THE TIDES

The waters of the ocean are observed to rise and fall by a regular daily movement of flux and reflux. These periodical oscillations are occasioned by the difference of the attractive forces exercised by the sun and moon on the solid parts of the earth* and on its surrounding oceans, which produces two flood tides or high waters, and two ebb tides or low waters in the time between two consecutive passages of the moon over the meridian that is, in the course of a lunar day of 24 hours 50½ minutes; hence the mean retardation of the tides from one day to another is 50½ minutes on the solar time. But this interval is subject to irregularities which depend principally upon the moon's singular distance from the sun. Again the mean interval between two successive flood tides is 12A. 25m but the intermediate low water does not take place always in the middle of the interval;—in many places, and especially in narrow seas and bays, the tide takes considerably more time to fall than to rise.

The effect of the action of either the Sun or the Moon on the waters of the sea is the production of a wave which follows the luminary westwards. The height of the wave produced by the sun is considerably less than that of the one raised by the moon. The periods of these waves about the globe corresponds with the solar and lunar days respectively. And, since they concur at the syzygies, they are 90° apart at the quadratures, and hence, the lunar tide then occurs at the time of the low water of the solar tide, thus the highest tides must occur soon after new and full moon, when the forces of both luminaries act in the same direction and the lowest tides about the quadratures, when the height of the lunar wave is diminished by that of the solar wave,—the luminaries then acting at right angles. The former are called Spring and the latter Neap tides. Between the conjunctions and quadratures the effect of the solar tidal wave is more or less to increase or diminish the height of the lunar tidal wave. The heights of the tides also vary with the declinations and distances of the luminaries, the greatest tides occurring when they are nearest, and pass most nearly vertically over the place of observation. The distance of the moon has always a marked influence on the height of the tides, and it varies in the ratio of 89 to 111. Also the highest tides occur at the equinoxes when the moon is in perigee and very near the equator and the lowest at the solstices, when the moon is in apogee and has the greatest declination. Moreover, the higher the flood tide rises, the lower the ebb falls.

The agitation of the sea caused by the wind only affects its surface to an inconsiderable depth whereas the tide wave affects the whole depth of the ocean nearly equally from the bottom to the surface. In shallow seas its action on the bottom is often very violent, but it diminishes in an inverse ratio with the depth. The currents which form the wave run most rapidly at the times of flood and ebb but the times of most rapid rise and fall in the tide, are those of "slack water" when the currents at the place cease because they then begin to set in to, or out from the place equally in opposite directions. The velocity of the tidal wave also varies inversely with the depth—running with the greatest rapidity in deep open seas, the height and force of the wave increasing as the rate of advance diminishes with the gradual shoaling of the bottom and the approach of the shores. It has been remarked that the retardation of the tides is not equable but is much greater when the moon is in quadrature than at the syzygies. In fact the tidal day at the times of conjunction and opposition is really about 50 minutes shorter than at the times of the quadratures and it is only at the octants that the tidal day is equal in length to the lunar day. This variation in the intervals between the tides is called the lagging or priming of the tides according as they fall behind or before the mean time of return. The tide day at new and full moon is thus about 24hrs 35min., and at the quadratures it is 23hrs 25min. nearly now the moon's mean motion from the sun is about 50½ minutes in a day and the smallest retardation, about the times of conjunction is nearly 35 minutes. Hence if M denote the moon's disturbing force in producing the tides, and S, the sun's,—we have, by a known proportion —

$$M : S :: 35^m : 50\frac{1}{2}^m - 35^m = 15\frac{1}{2}^m \text{ nearly}$$

Or since the tide day near the quadratures is about 23hrs 25min., the lunar day being 24h. 50½m. we have this,—

* Whilst this is passing through the press I learn that Professor Wm. Thomson has published a paper on the rigidity of the earth, shewing that it must be greater than that of steel or glass because, if not, it would yield so much with the movement of the ocean, that the difference in the heights of the tides would be hardly perceptible. This gives an additional interest to tide observations, especially such as are calculated to shew whether the bi monthly tides exert any extraordinary influence or not.

M S 25^h 25^m—24^h 25^m—24^h 50^m or 2 46 1, nearly

Moreover since the retardations at the syzygies and quadratures are respectively 36^m. and 85^m. we have also—

$$M-S \quad M+S \quad 35 \quad 85;$$

and, hence— M S 85 + 35 85—35, or 2 4 1

Lastly at the octants, that is, when the lunar and tide day are equal, the moon's elongation has been observed to be about 12° 30' hence also by a known theorem—

$$\frac{\pi}{M} = \sin 2 \ell \text{ elongation} = \sin 25^\circ = \frac{2}{3.464} \text{ nearly}$$

The ratio of the disturbing forces, as obtained by these different methods is nearly the same; and it agrees very closely with other calculations from data independent of the phenomena in question Mr Adams finds the moon's equatorial horizontal parallax to be 5422 32ⁿ, and Encke fixes the sun's at 8 5776 and if we employ these and Laplace's value of the mass of the earth with each of the four ratios above we find the moon's mass from the above ratios to be—

$$\frac{1}{79.7}, \quad \frac{1}{82}, \quad \frac{1}{74.6} \quad \text{and} \quad \frac{1}{84}, \quad \text{respectively}$$

New M Damoiseau in his Theory of the Moon employs the value $\frac{1}{79.7}$ as derived from the theory of the Precession of the Equinoxes, with which the average of the above values agrees very remarkably Mr Bailly however gives the ratio of the mass of the moon to that of the earth as $\frac{1}{79.25}$, and more recently Mr. Adams, from M Peters's value of the Nutation, finds the moon's mass $\frac{1}{163}$ of the earth's nearly * From this it is inferred that the ratio of the forces of the sun and moon in producing the tides, can scarcely be less than that of 1 22 (or 5 11) nor greater than that of 1 2.6 (or 5 13). This however only corresponds to the mean intensities. The disturbing action of the luminaries varies in the inverse triplicate ratio of their distances. Therefore if the ratio 1 22 as being derived from some of the more recent determinations be taken as the mean value of this ratio, we have the following extreme values—

	M	S
Apogean	0.0003	1.8575 or 1 1.95 nearly
Mean	1	22
Perigean	1.0512	2.5822 or 1 2.46 nearly

Hence the ratio may vary from 0.0003 2.5822, or nearly 1 272, to 1.0512 1.8575 or 1 1.77 nearly. It must be remarked however that this supposes both the sun and moon to be together on the equator which can never happen for any length of time.

From the mean ratio just derived we infer that the mean height of the spring tides is to that of the neap tides nearly as 22+1 22-1 or as 8 3—more nearly, as 159 52 from the observations at Brest, Laplace deduced the proportion of 138 to 62, or nearly that of 7 to 3,—which with the other constants already employed would give $\frac{1}{84}$ for the Moon's mass. Elsewhere, he again finds, from more numerous observations, the proportion of the solar and lunar forces to be 1 2.35333, whence the relative heights of the spring and neap tides would be inferred to be as 57 to 23 nearly and the moon's mass $\frac{1}{76.64}$ of that of the earth which agrees better with theory

Owing to the position of the Continents, the phenomena of the tides is still farther complicated. In each of the three great oceans partial tides are produced which combining with the tidal wave from the Southern Ocean (where alone it can circulate freely round the earth) run to the North West until they are destroyed or broken up by the interfering islands and continents. The effect of the coasts is evidently such that were the action of the luminaries suspended the tide wave would probably be entirely confused and broken up by the time it had performed a single revolution. Hence any tide may be considered as principally dependent on the actual position of the sun and moon at the time; and every variation in the disturbing forces is propagated in the successive tides and may be noted at every port it reaches—but later at each according to the longer time required to reach it and latest in those seas which, like the German ocean have a pretty high latitude and are much shut out by land from the great basins. Thus the highest spring tide is not the one which immediately follows the conjunction or opposition of the luminaries since it frequently requires a day or a day and a half to reach the port; the highest tide on the southern coasts of India, at the Cape of Good Hope and St. Helena, accordingly is the second after new and full moon on the Coasts of Spain, France, and the West of Ireland it is the third and at London and the ports of the German ocean it is the fourth after the syzygy which is the highest. The interval occupied between the moon's passing the meridian and the occurrence of the tide which follows either syzygy at the time of the equinoxes, when the Moon is at her mean distance from the earth has been called the Establishment of the Port. The Establishment of the Port, then, is the retardation of High Water on the time of the moon's meridian passage at the time of an equinoctial syzygy. Thus the Establishment of the Port of London is 2 hrs 7 min. It is a constant of the greatest importance in the computation of the times of high water and can only be accurately ascertained by long continued and careful observations at each port.*

* In some recent publications the value of the moon's mass is given even as small as $\frac{1}{87.7}$; but, owing to the want of facilities for reference in Bombay I have been unable to determine on what authority it rests. Indeed so difficult have I found it here to obtain access to ordinary works of reference that I have been obliged to confine myself for constants entirely to the books in my own possession.

It is not necessary here to enter into the analysis by which the formulae for the calculation of the tides have been deduced. Laplace, in his Mécanique Céleste (tome II p 289) has given a formula for the time of high water which is essentially the same as the following—

$$\tan 2(h - \lambda) = \frac{\frac{m}{r^3} \cos^2 \Delta \sin 2(h - \lambda - \lambda) + \lambda}{\frac{m}{r^3} \cos^2 \Delta + \frac{m}{r^3} \cos^2 \Delta \cos 2(h - \lambda - \lambda) + \lambda}$$

$$= \frac{\sin 2(h - \lambda - \lambda) + \lambda}{\frac{m}{r^3} \cos^2 \Delta + \cos 2(h - \lambda - \lambda) + \lambda}$$

In which m represents the mass of the sun
 r " the distance of the sun from the earth Δ " the sun's declination
 h " the sun's hour angle and the same letters with a dash the corresponding quantities with reference to the moon λ and λ being constants to be determined for each port from the observations. For the height of the tide the formula is—

$$H = B \left\{ \frac{m}{r^3} \cos^2 \Delta \cos 2(h - \lambda) + \frac{m}{r^3} \cos^2 \Delta \cos 2(h - \lambda) \right\}$$

B being a constant determined by observation at the port.

In higher latitudes the declinations of the luminaries might be neglected without causing any very great error but not so for ports in tropical latitudes.

When from sufficient observations the values of λ and $\lambda - \lambda$ have been carefully determined, the tides for a port may be computed with very considerable accuracy.

The mean value of $\frac{m}{r^3} = \frac{S}{M}$ has already been shown to be about $\frac{1}{2}$ or probably not less than $\frac{1}{2}$; and since the distances, horizontal parallaxes, and angular diameters of the same body have constant ratios,—putting P for the Horizontal parallax and d for the Semidiameter we have—

$$\frac{m}{r^3} = \frac{m P^3}{m d^3} = \frac{P^3}{d^3}$$

Taking $d = 961'' \cdot 82$, the sun's semidiameter according to Airy and

$$\frac{\sin d}{\sin P} = 273114, \text{ according to Adams}$$

* The value employed for the Establishment in the calculations made at the Colaba Meteorological Observatory in Bombay is 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ hrs but this does not agree with observation in the harbour—the "Establishment" for the harbour is probably about 11 hrs 15m. or 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ 20m.

$$\text{And } \frac{m^2}{m^2} = \frac{9}{355038 \times 143} \times \left(\frac{541.81}{9.5176} \right)^2 \times \frac{49.9873 d^2}{d^2}$$

$$= \frac{1499879 \times 49.9873 d^2}{3891189 d^2} = 2.39244 \frac{d^2}{d^2}$$

To tabulate these results—

$$\text{Put } A = \log 2.39244 \frac{d^2}{d^2},$$

$$A = \log \frac{\cos^2 \Delta}{\cos^2 \Delta},$$

$$\text{and } \log A = A + A, -$$

then the formula for the time of high water becomes—

$$\tan 2(h - \lambda) = \frac{\sin 2(h - h' - \lambda + \lambda')}{A + \cos 2(h - h' - \lambda + \lambda')}$$

These may now be reduced tables of the following forms,—

OBSERVATIONS ON THE TIDES.

Arguments —Log A and difference of R. A. of the Sun and Moon— $\lambda + \lambda$

[illegible]

The hour of the passage of the Moon over the meridian of a port may be easily found thus. Let H be the hour of the passage of the moon over the Meridian of Greenwich from the Nautical Almanac, and l the longitude of the port expressed in time. The hour A of the Moon's Sighting at the place will be—

$$h = H + 2^{m-1} \times L$$

The reduction is positive or negative according as the longitude is west or east.

For Bombay we have.

$t = 4^h 85$, and $\lambda = \Pi - 10^m 2$ in Bombay time

Were the constant quantities λ and $\lambda - \lambda$ determined with accuracy from sufficient observations for the part of Bombay we should be able to test the correctness of the above formulae and tables which would probably be found to give results within the limits of error in the observations * From above 9000 observations at the London Docks Mr. Doodson, upwards of 30 years ago, found the above theory to represent the observations with great accuracy

In the tables used at the Colaba Meteorological Observatory in Bombay, the value of the moon's mass employed is $\frac{1}{70.1}$ which, as has been already shown, is certainly too large the value of A is assumed as constant, and equal to 2.60—these being almost identical with the values determined by Laplace from the observations of the tides at Brest and published in the Mémoires de l'Académie for 1818, but on which he remarks,—

Je ne garantis l'exactitude de cette valeur de la masse lunaire et j'incline à penser que les phénomènes astronomiques sont plus propres à la fixer The mean establishment for high water employed is —0h 58m, and the fundamental equation is reduced to the form—

$$S = \frac{1}{30} \tan^{-1} \frac{\sin 2(H-17^h)}{2 + \cos 2(H-17^h)}$$

The results, not agreeing with the observations to which they could be applied fifteen years ago had to be modified by a series of empirical corrections, whose constants never appear to have undergone farther verification and modification

The formulae still in use are—

At the Upper transit, the time is—

$$\begin{aligned} H - W &= H - 58^m + S \\ &- 1^m 2 (P - 57) + (P - 57) \left\{ 8^m 2 - 10^m 7 \sin (H \curvearrowright 90^\circ) \right\} \\ &+ (35^m - 190^m \sin Z \tan \angle) \\ &- (17^m - 113^s \sin Z \tan \angle) \sin (11 \curvearrowright 120^\circ) \end{aligned}$$

* It is greatly to be regretted that so important a matter as the reduction of the tide observations made at the Colaba observatory since 1847 has not been carried on. It is well known that the tide tables published hitherto in the Bombay Almanac are unworthy of confidence The following, selected at random from the Colaba Observations and compared with the computed times of High Water taken from the Almanac for 1856, will best illustrate this —

Can such discrepancies be explained? Or are the observations collected and published from year to year utterly worthless, and if so, why are means not employed to make them at least deserving of the publication? If they are even tolerably correct, then why are computations so erroneous supplied to the public? The retardations of the times of high-water during a lunation should be represented by a line approaching a continuous curve; but neither the observations nor the computed times at Bombay present the usual continuity. Some of the observations are tolerably represented by subtracting about 1h 40m from the times of high water at London Bridge; but in numerous cases the discrepancy is very large

h = Sun's Hour angle

And putting the same letters, with a dash, for the corresponding elements at the lower transit, and $N = D + 19^{\circ}$ for the moon's Nadir distance—at the Lower transit, the time of high water is deduced from the formula—

$$\begin{aligned}
 H \text{ W} &= H' - 58^{\text{m}} + 5 \\
 &- (50^{\text{m}} + 0^{\text{m}}.09 D^{\circ}) (P-57') \\

 &+ 36^{\text{m}} - 208^{\text{m}} \sin N \tan N \\
 &- (30^{\text{m}} - 155^{\text{m}} \sin N \tan N) \sin (H \curvearrowright 120^{\circ}) \end{aligned}$$

and the height = $0^{\text{h}}.5 \times \frac{\sin 2 (H-15^{\circ})}{2.5 + \cos 2 (H-15^{\circ})}$

$$\begin{aligned}
 &+ 1^{\text{h}}.7 \left\{ \cos 2 (h-3^{\circ}) + 2.6 \cos 2 (H + 14^{\circ} \frac{1}{2}) \right\} \\
 &+ (0^{\text{h}}.49 + 0^{\text{h}}.011 D^{\circ}) (P-57') \\
 &- 0^{\text{h}}.24 (P-57') \sin 2 (H'-30^{\circ}) \\
 &+ 0^{\text{h}}.2-0^{\text{h}}.9 \sin N \tan N \\
 &- (0^{\text{h}}.7-3^{\text{h}}.5 \sin N \tan N) \sin 2 (H'-60^{\circ})
 \end{aligned}$$

The expressions used for S are—

$$\tan 2 S = \frac{\sin 2 (H-17^{\circ} \frac{1}{2})}{2.5 + \cos 2 (H-17^{\circ} \frac{1}{2})}$$ and $\tan 2 S = \frac{\sin 2 (H'-17^{\circ} \frac{1}{2})}{2.5 + \cos 2 (H'-17^{\circ} \frac{1}{2})}$

About fifteen years have elapsed since these formulæ were first published and observations have been continued with only occasional interruptions during that period, but they have not been regularly reduced, and the constants corrected by the results, else we might by this time have had tide tables of considerable accuracy.

INTRODUCTION

The only explanation which is conceived necessary to render the scheme of the following Calendar fully understood is that the Christian months indicated at the top of each page divide the Native months as they appear represented in the space below allotted to their names. January for example pertains the Hindû months (Marî) and (Guzerat, Duxon, and Koonan) Push and Mangh; (Malabar) Dhanuh and Mageram —the Parsee months (Shen h yi) Tir and Amûrdad; (Kadmi) Amûrdad and Sharavar and the date of Nooroz 130 to 160 —the Mahomedan months Rajab and Saban —and the Jewish months Tebet and Sh bat

In the respective columns 1st of January corresponds with the 12th of Push Shud (Marû Guzarat, Duxon and Koonan) the 19th of Dhanuh (Malabar); the 10th of Tir (Shanahay) the 10th of Amûrdad (Kadmi) and the 130th day of Nooroz or Kadmi; the 10th of Rajab (Mahomedan) and the 10th of Tebet (Jewish) and so on throughout the year

PARSEES—There are at present two branches of the Parsees, who differ from each other in their reckoning of the Calendar by one month those that are one month forward in their year are styled Kadmi, and the rest Shansalayya. The present scheme embraces the Parsee Era of Yezdejrd commonly styled Kadmi or Dureesjee Nooroz, or sea reckoning the same being made use of in all nautical calculations among Asiatic mariners, the New Year of which always commences on the 1st of Farvardin. The Kadmi reckon the New Year and the Dureesjee Nooroz to fall on the 25th of August one month earlier than the commencement of the Shansalayya New Year. It also embraces the Parsee Era of Yezdejrd commonly called Shansalayya the New Year of which generally begins on the 1st day of Farvardin. The Shansalayya computes the New Year from the 24th of September a month later than the commencement of the Kadmi New Year

HINDUS.—It may here be observed that the Hindû Lunar months invariably consist of 30 Tithis, or Lunar days; and the whole month is divided into two equal parts of 15 Tithis each the one called Shukla Paksh, or Shud the bright half or increase of the Moon, the other the Krishna Paksh or Vad the dark half or decrease of the Moon. The Lunar month begins on the Western side of India and South of the Nerbadda river, with the first day of the Shukla Paksh (Shud Praptada) or bright half of the Moon. At Benares, Ujjain, and the countries North of the Nerbadda, the Lunar month begins with the first day of the Krishna Paksh (Vad Pratipada) or dark half of the Moon. The first is designated the Shukla mode of reckoning; and the latter the Kriashnadi. The Lunar year begins with the first day of the Shukla Paksh, or bright half of the Moon in Chaitra, both North and South of the Narbada, in every country in India, but as the dark half of the Moon precedes the other or Shukla Paksh at Benares, the half Lunar month of Chaitra is taken from the last Lunar month of the year preceding and considered as being it.

It has been already stated that the Lunar month invariably consists of 30 Tithis or Lunar days, but it has been customary in order to regulate the Feasts and Festivals, to drop certain Lunar days, and to reckon others twice to make up the deficiency; the first of these are termed by Hindus Kilaya Tithis (perishable days) and the days repeated twice are called Vidhi Tithis (additional days). The rule of these in extending any single those Lunar days on which the sun does not rise (Savardaya nahin) are struck out those in which it rises twice are Vidhi, are additional; and it is obvious that such circumstances will occur about six times in the course of the Lunar year.

The Hindus have several Eras:—The Kalyug commences 3101 B.C. The Era of Vikramaditya is named from a sovereign of Malwa who defeated Saka King of 11th c., and got possession of the chief throne of B. Samvatsara is reckoned from 58 B.C.; the years of this Era being called Samvat. The Era of Saka dates from the year 79 A.D.; it is the most prevalent in the South of Hindusthan as that of Vikramaditya is in the North and in Guzerat. The names of it are termed Saka. The Full Era, of which name there are several is most commonly reckoned as dating from about 590 A.D.—the year beginning in Bengal in September and at Madras 12th July. It was introduced into Upper India by Akbar and dates from the accession of R. Babur 1519 A.D. It commences on the first of the lunar month Asvina and its equation with the Christian epoch is 592 A.D. with the Samvat 649. It was named from the time at which the land-tax in Upper India was paid for the season.—the Full or Saka year. The Full Era in the South of India established by Shah Jehan (A.D. 1638) ought to be noticed but its commencement was fixed by the Madras Government to 12th July. Its equation is 590 A.D. the Christian epoch. The Era of Parasurama is used in Malaya, or from Mangalore to Cape Comorin. It derives its name from a prince who is said to have reigned 1176 B.C. The epoch is 7th Aug. 1537 Jul. Per. or 1925 F.Y. It is reckoned in cycles of 1000 sidereal years, commencing when the sun enters Kanya (Virgo) answering to the month Asvina. The Fourth Cycle of this era commenced 15th Sept. 1845.

MAHOMEDANS—The first day of the Moharram, or the commencement of the year, is ordinarily reckoned from the first observed appearance of the new Moon, or in cloudy weather from the time at which, but for such obstacles it would be visible, and this can scarcely happen earlier than 24 or later than 48 hours after the conjunction. In this manner each separate month is reckoned and the lapse of 12 such lunar months constitutes the Mahomedan year. In chronology history and other documents, however, they use months of 30 and 29 days alternately and they add an intercalary day to the 2nd, 5th, 7th, 10th, 13th, 15th, 18th, 21st, 24th, 26th and 29th year in a Cycle of 30. They reckon from the Hajira or flight of Mahomet which took place on the evening of Thursday 12th July A.D. 622, and the era commences from the following day. Thus the year 1279 A.H. began 29th June 1862 and ends, 17th June 1863. Thirty-two common years are about equal to 33 years of the Hajira; or more nearly 163 common years are within less than a day of 168 Mosulman years.

The lunar year is 354d. 8h. 48.37

A year of the Hajira is 354d. 8h. 48m.

Hence a year of the Hajira = 0.970224 Gregorian year

And a Gregorian year = 1.03069 of the Hajira.

We may find the Christian date from that of the Hajira by deducting 8 per cent from the latter and then adding 621.54 for the date A.D. of the end of the Mosulman year or more correctly by multiplying the Hajira date by $\frac{103069}{100000}$ and adding 621.54,—thus $1278 \times \frac{103069}{100000} + 621.54 = 140.84 + 621.54 = 1861.58$, which shows that the year A.H. 1278 ended about the middle of 1862.

JEWS—The Jews have ever marked their time by sevenths, according to the command given by God himself, for labouring during only six days of each week and resting on the seventh which was consequently set apart, or consecrated to the service of the Creator. They not only hallowed the seventh day or Sabbath, which formed a portion of their week of days, but they had, also, their week of years, which consisted of seven years, and their jubilee or renewing periods, which were celebrated by acts of justice, forgiveness, and restitution at the end of every seventh of seven times seven years. The Hebrews, the Assyrians, Egyptians, Arabians, and Persians, all had the custom of reckoning by weeks.

We have endeavoured to discriminate the Feasts and Festivals of each nation by different sorts of type; the Hindû for example, we have distinguished by Roman small letters, as Pûsh Shûd the Kalaber and Jewish by Roman capitals, as MAGAZEM the Parsee by small capitals as AMURDAD; and the Mahomedan by Italic small letters, as Mohorram.

NATIVE FESTIVALS, FASTS, AND OBSERVANCES.

HINDU

MAKAR SANKRANTI—On this day the sun enters the sign 'Makar' or Capricorn.—Vide 12th January The Hindû festivals are so numerous, and the observances of them are so intricate, that they often bewilder a writer when he endeavours to describe them. The writers of the Hindû legends have set such enormous store on the observances of each of them, as to surpass all human comprehension, and they have unhesitatingly said that those observances themselves will obtain heaven. Great rejoicings are held among the Hindûs, but particularly among the Brahmins, on account of the feast of Makar Sankranti, when the sun reaches the most southern sign of the Zodiac Makar or Capricornus. From this day till the time of his leaving the most northern sign of the Zodiac, he is said to be in Urdhvan, and from the time of his leaving the northern sign to the entering the sign "Kark" or Cancer he is said to be in Dakshinayan. The vernal and autumnal equinoxes divide the year into two equal parts, Urdhvan, and Dakshinayan. The days of Urdhvan are reckoned lucky and those of Dakshinayan unlucky. During the days of Dakshinayan, it is said that the gates of heaven are shut, and in the Urdhvan they are open. For men to die in the Urdhvan is considered more blessed because they are said to get immediate entrance into heaven; but if the righteous die in the Dakshinayan, they have to wait outside the gates till the Urdhvan sets in. In the days of Urdhvan, Mûn—the ceremony of investing the youths with the sacred cord—and marriages are celebrated. The ceremonies that are performed on the day of Makar Sankranti, just at the time of the sun's entrance into the sign are these.—The Hindûs go to the sea, accompanied by a Brahman priest, to bathe there; they rub their bodies with tilla seed,* and wash themselves in the manner prescribed in the Shâstra. The Brahman then repeats certain incantations suited to the occasion and closes the ceremony by receiving due adoration, and a present of money for himself. On their return home they invite Brahmins, present them with a cup of bell-metal, filled with tilla seed and some money according to the ability of the Yajman. Some even present the Brahmins with copper pots, new dhôtis, umbrellas, &c., and the whole family receives benedictions from them, which is done by the Brahmins repeating certain words, and throwing on their heads a few grains of red coloured rice. After the performance of this ceremony they go to take their meals, which consist of sweetmeats. They invite their friends and relations to dinner and towards evening they wear new clothes, gold and other ornaments, and frequent the houses of their friends and relations, distributing tilla seed mixed with sugar. At the time of putting the tilla into the parties' hands, they repeat these words "Receive these tillas mixed with sugar and be friendly to me throughout the whole year." All the praise and prayers that are offered this day are to the Sun and to no other god. The second day of Sankranti is named Kar which is generally celebrated by the women, making small presents among those of their own sex.—Vide 12th January

WASANT PANCHMI seems to have been instituted in honour of the Spring, which season is personified under the name of Wasantu, who is fabled as attending on Kama or the god of love.—Vide 24th January

RATNASAPTAMI is dedicated to the worship of the Sun. This day is the beginning of the Manwantra, or period embracing the reign of Manu, of which fourteen govern in succession, during the different ages of the world. The present age is under the dominion of the seventh Manu, and at the commencement of this period a new sun is supposed to have mounted his chariot.—Vide 25th January

SHIVRATRI—A fast-day in honour of Shiva, during which the linga, or Bacchophilus, is worshipped.—Vide 18th February Vud Chaitrad, or the 23rd of every month, is kept sacred by the votaries of Shiva; but Mugh and Chaitrad has obtained its peculiar epithet, Shîva Shiva Ratri, or the great night of Shiva. The Hindû legends account in the following manner for its celebrity among the sect of Shiva Ratri.—It was once immemorial an archer of wicked and licentious habits went into a forest on this day to shoot deer. He spent the whole day in the pursuit of his game, and, on a sudden, night came on, and he was left at the mercy of wild beasts.

* Tillas are said to be the favourite grain of the Sun

When he found himself in such a forlorn condition he had recourse to a Bale or *Blow tree to secure himself from their attack. Having got into the tree, by way of relaxation, or to get a clearer view he broke off all the branches that hung around and above his head, and flung them down. Fortunately the twigs which he threw fell on the Linga of Shiva, which was near the foot of the tree. Shiva was so much pleased and satisfied by the accidental worship of his votary that he forthwith sent a Vasunda or heavenly chariot and took the hunter into Kyias his own abode, with acclamations of joy. To commemorate this great event of the entrance of the archer into Kyias, the Hindus observe a feast this day and worship Shiva in hopes of obtaining a like reward. Observance of Shiva Ratri.—This day the votaries of Shiva fast, and in the night, repair to the temples of Shiva, accompanied by a Brahman priest, who performs pūja by repeating certain incantations. First he pours some water over the Linga, and washes it and afterwards he decorates it with choice flowers. When this is done the priest takes his sacred book wherein Shiva's thousand different names are written, and reads the names and the Yaj man—the worshipper,—sings a leaf of the Bale over the top of the Li ga each time. This kind of pūja is performed four different times during the night, and thus no sleep is obtained for the whole night. This is styled the pūja of the four Prahāras or watches. It commences at about 8 1/2 P.M. and ends at five A.M. This night the pagodas of Shiva are thronged by devotees. Some persons engage twelve Brahmins, others four &c., according to the abilities of the Yajamān to perform the pūja. The Brahmins must be liberally paid for their labours.

HOLI (Sanskrit—HOLIKA or PHALGUNA)—This festival called also Dolmatsra, or the winking festival is supposed by Sir W. Jones to relate to the vernal equinox, and to be similar to the Persian Noruz. It commences fifteen days before the full moon on which the ceremonies are terminated and is held in honour of Krishna. In the freed in with which the lower classes now behave towards their superiors, this festival resembles the Roman Burmah; and in the searing people on bootless errands it corresponds with our 1st of April. Red powders are rubbed upon the visage of the god and thrown and squirted by his worshippers on each other while females are saluted by exclamations and jests of very impure description. The wheat cake which is placed on the pile lighted at the close of the festival is called Poli and the night of first offering it in a village is considered as an honorary privilege. Neither the origin of this festival, nor the manner in which it is observed can be described. Nor is the observation of it confined to the lower classes of the native community—the highest apparently joining in it with the same zest as the lowest. This festival nominally continues from the new to the full moon but only a few of the last days are practically and openly devoted to it. It is often called Shringa, from the name of the month in which it occurs.—End 5th March.

THE HINDU NEW YEAR (the first day called Gudi Padwa).—On the morning of this day a Hindu first rubs oil upon his body and then bathes himself with warm water. A pole being a flag and surmounted with a brass or copper vessel is erected in front of the house. One such pole must be erected by each family. This represents the banner of Indra, the king of the gods which on this day is also raised in honour of him by the gods. What is done on earth is therefore in imitation of what takes place in the heaven of Indra. The leaves of the bitter Nimb tree are then to be eaten which secures health to the body because this tree is the offspring of the Ambrosia of the gods. The Almanack for the New Year is then to be worshipped and its predictions in regard to the year just commencing are to be heard from the mouth of the Jyotishis. They tell whether there is to be abundance or scarcity of rain whether there will be unusual heat or cold whether robberies, insurrections, &c. are to abound whether unusual sickness is to prevail &c. &c. Each individual on this day also learns what he is to expect during the year whether health or sickness, prosperity or adversity is to be his portion &c. &c. All this important information is not, of course to be obtained without some compensation. And not only are presents to be given to the Jyotishis, but the poor people are taught on this day to extend their liberality also to the Gurus and Brahmins. The day is also to be celebrated by fasting. This is considered an auspicious day for commencing a new building or engaging in any new undertaking.—Vide 20th March.

RAM NAVMI.—On this day Ramchandra, the 7th incarnation of Vishnu was born at Ayodhya or Oude about B.C. 1600.—Vide 28th Mar A. Rama is supposed to be the same as the Grecian Dionysus or Bacchus, and the object of the incarnation was to effect the destruction of Ravana the ten-headed tyrant of Lanka or Ceylon, which was at last done with the assistance of Hanuman the chief of the monkey tribe. The

* A favourite tree of Shiva's, and which is held sacred among the Hindus.

Birth of Rama is, strange to say celebrated eight days previous to its occurrence that is, from the first of Chaitra Sudd to the ninth. On the first day the temples of Rama are whitewashed and illuminated in the evening and the image of Rama is adorned with costly ornaments. In the evening the Ramayana, or the sacred legend, the history of Rama is read in the temples, and in the night Alkatas is preached by the Haridas, who describes the morality and heroic actions of Rama. Narhas are not omitted during the nights. In some temples Brahmins are fed with rich and substantial dinners for eight successive days; these days are denominated Rama na ratris, or nine nights of Rama. During these days, many Hindus, both males and females, go to the temples of Rama to hear the Kirtan and Purān. The last or principal day is Ramnavami, when, it is said Rama became incarnate at noon. In honour of this incarnation the Hindus fast the whole day. They get up in the morning, wash themselves, and put on rich clothes and ornaments, and repair to the temples of Rama at about nine o'clock. Every temple of Rama is well furnished on this day and the images are decorated with precious ornaments and rich brocade. A Haridas is engaged to describe the birth and circumstances that attended this incarnation. He continues his discourse till twelve o'clock when he brings a small image of Rama, nicely ornamented and well clad and shows it to his audience and tell them that it is Rama who became incarnate. He then puts it into a small cradle prepared for the purpose. The assembly then throw themselves prostrate before the image and worship it. Great shouting and acclamation on this occasion; they sing gauli a red powder on each other and with great mirth at about one o'clock they go home and again return to the temple in the evening. The feast of Ramnavami is more particularly observed by the votaries of Vishnu.

VAT SAVITRI (SAVITRI VRAJA)—A fast observed by women at the root of the Indian fig tree to preserve them from widowhood.—Vide 1st J c ASHAD KADASHI is the eleventh of the light half of the month Ashad, and is dedicated to Vishnu. On this day which refers to the summer solstice commences the night of the gods, during which the deity repose for four months on the serpent Shesha.—Vide 21th June

NAG PANCHAMI is sacred to the demi-gods in the form of serpents. Ceremonies are performed on this day to ensure protection against the bites of snakes.—Vide 19th August The serpent Katiga, slain by Krishna, is worshipped at the festival as was the Python at Delphi.

SHRAVAN OR (NARAYAL) PURNAMA—On this day the rainy season is considered to be at an end, and a conch is offered to the sea to gain its favour towards those who now begin to trust themselves to its mercy.—Vide 28th August

JANMA OR GURU ASHTAMI (JANMA ASHTAMI)—Instituted in commemoration of the birth of Krishna, which took place at midnight in the city of Mathura. Krishna, who in some respects agrees with the Grecian Apollo, was the eighth incarnation of Vishnu, in which, according to a large sect of Hindus, was manifested a greater portion of divinity than in any of the preceding ones. His uncle Koush who, it was predicted, would be slain by one of his own family, endeavoured to ensure the destruction of the infant pot by placing guards over his pregnant sister but the child was preserved from this and other attempts of his relations, who had given directions for the slaughtering of all newly born infants.—Vide 5th September This holiday is considered one of the greatest among the Hindus and is therefore observed by almost all the Hindu community; there are two sects among the followers of Krishna and they celebrate the feast on different days. Those belonging to the one keep the birth-day of Krishna on the eighth day of the dark moon and those belonging to the other the day following—being the one on which he was removed to Gokul to the house of Nanda, from fear of his maternal uncle who sought his destruction and some even keep both days. The former fast on the day of Janma Ashtami, and the latter on the day of Gokul Ashtami. They fast the whole day and at night they bathe, and worship an image of the infant Krishna adorning it with tulsi a favorite plant of Vishnu's and with other flowers, in the manner enjoined in the Shastras and at about ten or eleven P.M. they eat their Phalahār food which consists of fruits and certain kinds of grain, being prohibited from eating rice and other grains that day. A Brahmin is called in to perform the yajna and afterwards he himself is worshipped and sent away loaded with Dakshina and other presents. This is all done according to the rules of the Shastras. The holiday is thus observed among the people of the higher castes. On the day of Gokul Ashtami people (or keepers of cattle) hold a great jubilee among themselves, as Krishna was bred up among their race. They join themselves into a company and frequent the houses of the people who follow their profession, holding each other's hands, dancing in the street, and repeating the words "Govinda, Govinda" when they are honoured either by throwing over them curds, or presenting them with curds. These people are called Gopda—protectors of cows. On the night of Jama Ashtami, crowds of people, generally of the lower ranks flock to the temple of Kānoba which is commonly known by the name of Matth; there they hire native music and continue shouting and making a great noise. The Bhagat of Kānoba, or the head of the temple, who is very often of the Shudra caste and who is considered a supernatural being as he is at the time with great solemnity and grave countenance, makes his way through the assembly accompanied by the playing of tom toms, and acclamations of joy from his disciples and standing before the shrine of Kānoba, offers prayers to the idol which is richly decorated on the occasion. He is at first quite calm, but shortly after shows signs of inspiration by the god. He begins to utter his shendi or the tuft of hair on the crown of his head, and then slowly shakes his limbs. By degrees his whole frame quivers, and he throws his body into violent contortions dancing and uttering strange ambiguous and wild sounds, which no one can understand. He then takes his scourge, which is kept near the shrine, and scourges himself as if he were insane, and performs many other equally strange actions. No sooner does the assembly around see him in this predicament, than believing that the spirit of the god has entered into him, they burn incense before him and fall prostrate and pray to him to be merciful to them. When he has received divine homage he quietly takes his seat but does not cease quaking as trem long. His disciples, who are always near him then commence, one after another to shake themselves and dance in the same way and the spirit of the god is believed to enter them also. This day the great Bhagat can create new disciples, and give them the power of bringing the spirit of the god into their bodies. Sick persons persons supposed to be possessed of devils (children &c.), are brought to the temple to receive the benediction of the Bhagat and his disciples; he rubs a little salve on their foreheads, passes his hand over their heads, and gives them full assurance of speedy recovery from their sickness without taking any medicine. The poor patient with full confidence, returns home expecting the fulfilment of the Bhagat's promise. The Bhagat receives large presents on this occasion from his followers and he is held in great respect among the orthodox Hindus and even among people of some other tribes. On the following morning the Bhagat collects the circle of his disciples in front of the temple and orders a sufficient quantity of curds to be thrown over their heads to wet their whole bodies. They all begin to dance in company holding each others hands, and occasionally throwing themselves on the ground and besmearing their bodies with mud shouting as loudly as they can. The Bhagat in the mean time with a scourge in his hand forces his way into the crowd and with all his pretended dignity stands in the midst and looking in all directions in feigned solemnity he lifts up his scourge and putting it round the neck of one of his disciples as a token of his regard draws him towards himself when the disciple trembles a little, and then stands firm stretching his hands towards the sky with his eyes closed. No sooner does the Bhagat see him in this state than he scourges him two or three times so adroitly that it gives him no pain while to the eye of the spectator it appears a prodigy that he does not feel it. This is repeated till he has shown the same mark of approbation to the whole body of his disciples, and when he ceases, sweetmeats are distributed among the disciples and to all the spectators. This terminates the feast of Gokal Ashtami among the people of the Shudra caste.

PITHORH ON PRACHIN AMAS.—A ceremony observed at the new moon of the month Shrawan, at which the 64 Yogis or female attendants of the goddess Durga are worshipped, particularly by women with the hope of obtaining issue.—Vide 13th September. The 30th day of Shrawan, or the last day of the dark half of the moon is denominated "Prachi Amas". Prachi is one of the godesses of the East. She is commonly known among the people of the Konkani and Malabar by the name of Pithorh. Wealthy Rajas and other people of Gujarat go to Walskhar on the previous evening with their families to remain in the Lohamankala during the night; and on the subsequent morning they bathe in the tank of Walskhar (This tank is called by the natives Ban-ganga i.e. the Ganges produced by an arrow; and they give a marvellous account of its origin. They say when Rama visited this part of the world and found that there was no pure water to drink he pierced the ground with an arrow from his bow and thus brought the Ganges into existence.) They also perform Shradhas on the margin of the tank and ceremonies for procuring the deliverance of their departed ancestors from the thralldom of Yama, the king of the infernal regions, if they still remain at his court or in his dominions. They afterwards repair to the temple of Walskhar and worship his image and then they take their meals. The remaining part of the day is spent in amusements. Booths are erected in the locality of the temple and furnished with all kinds of the choicest articles that please the fancy or delight the taste. The Hindus on this occasion squander hundreds of rupees in hiring vehicles, and buying toys and sweetmeats for their children. This holiday is not observed by the majority of the inhabitants of the Konkan and Dakhan. It is kept up chiefly by those women who lose their children in infancy. They fast on this day and worship an image of Putholi, by adorning it with various kinds of fruits and flowers through the medium of a Brahman priest.

GANESH CHOUTH OR CHUTTYATHI.—On this day was born Ganpati, or Ganesh, who is considered as the god of prudence and invoked like Janus, at the commencement of all undertakings. The manner of his birth is differently told; one story relates, that as the god Kartik-virya was created by Shiva without conventional assistance in like manner Ganpati was formed by his consort Parvati from the turmeric and oil scraped off from her own body while bathing. The loss of his human head, and the substitution of that of a female elephant with one tusk is also variously explained. By some his head is said to have been cut off by Shiva when he endeavoured to prevent the god from entering the chamber of Lavanti when performing her ablutions above. According to other accounts, it was reduced to ashes by a glance from the eyes of Shani or Saturn, when all the gods went to look at the newly-born child, and it is supplied by that of the animal first found which happened to be an elephant. Clay images of the deity are formed and after having been worshipped mostly for two days, or for nine or ten days are thrown into the water. The Chinhor or Chin's wand (properly Deo) who resides at the village of that name near Pôna is supposed to be an incarnation of this god who granted to a holy Gosavi who had won his favour that the divinity should be continued in his family for seven generations, and through the present one has exceeded that limit: the miracle is perpetuated by the Brahman family in trust—Pade 16th September. It is commonly said among the Hindus that the Shastras enjoin on its followers the worship of Mritika (earth) in the following form a three times a year. The first of them is Agastya on which day a snake of clay is made and worshipped; the second is Gokal Ashvini, when a clay image of the infant Krishna is made and worshipped; and the third and last, is Ganesh Chauti on which day a clay image of Ganesh is worshipped. This being the last day of the worship of Mritika it is observed with greater pomp and more ceremonies, convulsions and more than the other two. The image worshipped on this occasion has four hands and an elephant's head. The mouse being Ganpati's favourite vehicle is sometimes placed near his image in a pithy saddle and bridled. The worship of Ganesh must be traced to his origin. But different accounts are given in different Puranas of that origin, and the consequent introduction of his worship, which it would be rather a difficult task to detail. The image of Ganapati is either made in the house or purchased from an artist: it is gilt with the finest gold and painted with superior and variegated colours: much labour and ingenuity is bestowed on it by artists to render it elegant and attractive, according to the taste and pecuniary means of the worshipper. The 14th of the month of Bhâdrapad is the appointed period for the celebration of this feast. On the previous day the worshipper cleans and whitewashes his house and furnishes it with all sorts of costly furniture that he can procure. The profusion of light is the first thing that would attract the eye. On the following morning, i.e. on the day of Ganesh Chaturthi, they bring the image home (if it is bought) with great splendour accompanied by native music, and with all the honours of a god. A place where the god is to be seated is prepared either in the form of a covered shrine or open space which is adorned with all kinds of fruits and flowers strewn round it, and twigs of trees hung over it in clusters, after which commences the business of the Shruti priest, who sits near the master of the house, and begins consecrating the idol by reciting mantras or mantras from his book and throwing over it red coloured rice; then after performing many consecratory ceremonies, he brings from heaven the godhead into the image on earth. Being installed the devotees place before him Nyayavedya food which consists of sweetmeats, and invoke the god to partake of the offering. Afterwards he falls before him, and prays him to be gracious to him and his family. The performance of the whole ceremony, according to the rules of the Shastras requires at least three or four hours time. By the generality of the people, Ganpati is kept one day and a half but by some five or ten days according to the wealth and wish of the proprietor. A discourse is delivered in commemoration of his godly exploits by a Haridra in his presence at which friends and relatives are invited to attend. A large party of Brahmins are entertained at a sumptuous dinner in honour of Ganesh, and are then dismissed with the usual Dakshina. On the last day preparations for his departure are made. Evening is the appointed time for parting, when the master of the house performs Uttarpuja through the priest, who takes away the divinity with which the image was invested by repeating certain mantras or charms; flowers, fruits and sweetmeats are offered to the idol, and after that is, lighted wicks, are moved before him accompanied with music and hymns; and he is invoked to bless the owner and his family and remove any calamity that might befall them throughout the year. Afterwards the Brahmins are presented with Dakshina, and the image is seated in a palanquin, or in an ark expressly made for the purpose adorned with fresh flowers and carried to the door or a tank in a procession which consists of the master of the house his children and relatives, richly attired for the occasion. When they reach the place they take out the image and commit it to the water with every devout expression of regret for its absence till next year. On the day of Ganesh Chaturthi the Hindus are prohibited by the Shashtra from looking at the moon, and therefore prejudice and ridiculous Hindus are afraid to look at her his evening for fear of incurring any calamity during the year. If the common people happen to see the moon they try to provoke their neighbours to abuse them and comfort themselves with the idea that they calamities incurred will be all comprehended in that abuse and removed by it.

RISHI PARVAT—Observed in honour of the seven Rishis or sages who are supposed to be the seven bright stars in the Great Bear—Vide 17th September

GOURI—One of the names of the goddess Parvati. Cakes are made in the shape of pebbles, and eaten at night.—Vide 18th September

YAMUN NIVASINI—Instituted in commemoration of the fifth incarnation of Vishnu in the shape of a dwarf to prevent Bali from obtaining dominion over the three worlds through the efforts of his religioususterities. Bali promised the dwarf at his own request to grant him any much land as he could compass at three steps. On the ratification of this promise, the first two strides of the incarnate deity embraced the heaven and the earth, the third, now no place for him to put down his foot for the third time. Bali, passionately told him to put it on his head which the dwarf having done crushed him down to Patala, the dominion of which was conceded to the ambitious monarch.—Vide 24th September

PITRU PAKSH—The dark half of the month Bhadrapad, and sacred to the Pitrus or progenitors of mankind to whose heaven the souls of the deceased ascend after the celebration of funeral rites, which are particularly proper during this season.—Vide between 27th September and 12th October

DARGHA—This festival called Durga Puja or Durgochchhara is supposed to relate to the autumnal equinox. On this day in commemoration of the victory of Dart the wife of Sakra, over the monster Mhi Kashur. Her image, after having been well shipped for nine days, are thrown into the water.—Vide 1st October. On this day also Kama was defeated Ravana on which account the Marathas seem to have selected it as a proper period for recommencing their plundering expeditions. This day is observed thus. Early in the morning, the Hindus, having washed themselves, perform the Puja of their household gods in conjunction with that of all their shakti grantha or religious books. Marat him and Khatris or those who consider themselves of the Hindu are the worship the implements of war and seek protection from them throughout the year under a conception that the propitiations of the sword they owe every prosperity. Thereafter at noon they take dinner in company with their relatives who are invited on the occasion. In the afternoon they go to the temple in procession with friends, relatives and hindus richly attired. Mumadevi and Rikhdewi are the principal scenes. Both of these places are thronged by devotees in which Hindus bearing a light in his hand flowers and a branch of a certain tree (Apta) denominated sona (gold), which is held highly sacred and indispensable in commemorating this day. On evening the temple they offer the sona and flowers to the image as accompanied with a prayer they also give Dakshina to the Brahmins and return home visit their friends and relatives, present them with a leaf or two of this imaginary gold concluding with a hearty embrace and receive in like token and return at the same time. The sona forms the first article of the Dargha holy day. The varidhi or feast of the temple is surrounded by the vendors of this plant, who range themselves with baskets full of branches in the temple. At night an illumination is made. This day is considered by the Hindus most auspicious for sending their children, who are beginners, to school. The preceding days of the Dargha are called navaratri, a compound word for nine nights. During these previous nine days the devotees of Durga keep themselves holy, engage a Brahmin to read hymns before her in which her exploits are extolled and her rewards to her votaries are described. On the ninth day at every temple of Dargha Havan or a sacred fire, is created and fed with rice and clarified butter and adored by repeating the mantras. It is customary among the Bansa women to keep up a dance during these nine nights, called Garba, which is accompanied with religious songs. The celebration of the Dargha owes its origin to the Pandaras the five sons of Pandit having selected this day after completing their exile of twelve years, as an auspicious one for making preparations for the tremendous war with their paternal cousins the Kouravas of which the Puranas give an account, occupying the whole volume. The Hindus decorate their houses with flowers this day putting garlands of flowers around their necks. It is said that Parth the most invincible of the five Pandavas, who had a peculiar fondness for horses and pre-eminent skill in the art of chariot-fighting, and from their being great auxiliaries in the matters of battle washed his favourite milk-white horses, put garlands of flowers around their necks, and tapped them in token of fondness and approbation, with his own hand—owing to this legend it seems the decorating of horses with flowers on this day is observed.

DIVALI (from Deva deity, Di light, signifying a row of lamps)—is celebrated in honour of the goddess Kali or Shawari, who was formerly propitiated by human sacrifice, and of Vishnu a vicary over the demon Ira—Vide 11th November. The festival however seems to be more peculiarly consecrated to Lakshmi, or the goddess of prosperity. The thirteenth day (Aswin vad) is termed Dhanatrayodashi and Shankara now counts their stores and performs pūja to their wealth. On the Anavadya or new moon there being a fresh account, pūja is again performed before the old and new books. The festival last altogether five days. The Divali means the feast of illumination, or ranges of light. It is celebrated for a period of five days, during which houses are cleaned, whitewashed and illuminated; a quadrangular floor is made in front of the house and painted with different coloured powders, it is called Rangbūli playing with dyes is the chief recreation of the feast. The Divali commences from the 28th day of Ashvina—this day is denominated Dhanatrayodashi. On it they collect all the treasures in their houses and worship it giving it the name of Lakshmi the goddess of wealth. A light is made and dedicated to Lama, the god of the infernal regions and every preparation is made for the succeeding morning. Fireworks, crackers, spouters, &c. are displayed. The 29th is Sarankachaturdashi. On it Vishnu killed Makāsura an invincible giant, after a desperate battle and entered his city early in the morning, with the palm of victory when the people illuminated the city and received him with great joy and acclamation and the women of the city having adorned themselves, went before him with lighted lamps, and congratulated him. The Hindus keep this day to commemorate this great conquest. They get up early in the morning fill the house with light to rub their bodies with perfumed ointment and bathe themselves with hot water. No member of the family is left without a new clothes and ornaments are put on and the children are decorated. When this is done the mistress of the house performs a sort of ceremony called Arati—by placing wicks either in silver or brass chalice, symbolical of the removal of all their difficulties at the close of a happy year—when each male member makes her a present of money, sweetmeats are distributed and friends are invited to dinner. The 30th Amavasya, last day of the moon, is the day of Saraswati the goddess of learning and wealth. It is vulgarly known by the name of Pashupayana, or the worship of the shops. This day the year Vikram Samvat, or of Vikram era, closes; all the merchants close their accounts in the evening. New journal ledgers, and books are brought and worshipped as though a Brahman priest. New entries are made in the account books. Writers are sent to different shops with respect to credit in their names on this auspicious evening. Saraswati is invoked to render the subsequent year prosperous and to be with them throughout it. Then the Brahmins are sufficiently paid for their labours, and the servants receive a present of some money according to their rank. This day is celebrated by all classes of people—Hindus, Parsis, Mahomedans, &c. This first day of Kartick Shukla is Bahra the day of king Bali. On it Bali was sent to Patali or the lower region by Vishnu for his great merit. They rise up very early in the morning make the lights, clean the house, wash their bodies, and fill a bucket with all the rags and rubbish in the house put a big red lamp over it and throw it outside of the house, repeating these words—Let all misdeeds and troubles go, and the kingdom of Bali come. After ablution, the women make an image of Bali Rajah and worship it. Presents are given to the Brahmins and other mendicants. The 2nd day of Kartick Shukla is Yama Dvitiya which is commonly known by the name of Bhatiya. This day Yama, the king of the infernal regions, went to his sister to dine, and to perpetuate the memory of this the Hindus must go to their sisters houses and take their meal with them and make them a present of some money or gold ornaments, and thus please the king who will exempt them from the punishment of their sins.

KARTIK EKADASHI—Is the eleventh day (in some years the twelfth) of the light half of the month Kartik and is celebrated in honour of Vishnu. On this day the god is supposed to rise from his slumber of four months—a fable which has reference to the sun at the winter solstice.—Vide 21st November.

KARTIK PURNIMA—is the full moon of the month Kartik. On the fifteenth of this month, as well as of Magh Ashadh and Vaisakh, each of which days is called "Dussehra," gifts to Brahmins are considered indispensably necessary. Shiva is said to have gained his victory at this season over the monster "Tryambakāra."—Vide 24th November. Kartik Shukla Purnima,—the full moon in the month of Kartik is called the Tri Pura Shura, master of the three cities. This demon is said to have become so powerful that he defeated almost all the gods, and drove them out of their habitations, when they feared a lever and went to Kailas, the abode of Shiva, and represented to him their grievance who after ending an ear to their pitiful supplication comforted them by the assurance that the evil should be soon removed and sent them back to their respective homes. He accordingly made a car of the earth the wheel of which were the sun and the moon. Brahma was chosen his charioteer the mountain Himalaya formed his bow and Wandary, the king serpent his bowstring. Vishnu himself became his driver. Thus equipped, Shiva rode and destroyed the mighty giant after a struggle. To perpetuate the memory of this great event, the women of the Hindus get up very early in the morning of this day at about two o'clock and wash themselves in cold water near to the temple of Shiva and worship his image. Afterward they return home, and present a Brahman with a lighted lamp made either of silver copper or brass, according to their ability along with some fruits and Dakshina—a present in hard cash this is called Dipdan or present of a lamp. On the evening an illumination is made in the temples of Shiva, and a pillar of stones built in front of all of them for the special occasion. A grand fair is also celebrated this day in honour of Walleeshwar, an image of Shiva at Malabar Hill. It is kept for three days, when booths are erected and shops are adorned with all kinds of articles by people of all denominations. The Hindus, both the rich and poor Brahmans and Shudras, go there and worship the image of Shiva and buy sweetmeats and toys for their children. Some of the wealthy Hindus remain there with their families for three or four days in the Dharmashala or inn built by them but the poor return the same evening. During these days hundreds of rupees are uselessly spent in hiring conveyances, and purchasing sweetmeats and toys.

BIRTH CEREMONIES

Different ceremonies are prescribed by the Shastras to be observed at the period of conception, and the different stages of pregnancy. "Jalkarma" is to be performed at the birth of the infant, and consists in giving it a drop of honey out of a golden spoon before dividing the navel-string. Other rites are to be observed on naming the child twelve days after birth—on bringing him outside the house when three months old—on feeding him with the breast at six months—and if a male on shaving his head at the age of three years.

MARRIAGE CEREMONIES

Among the Brahmans the male may be married at any time after the "Masya" or investiture with the sacred thread, which is done within the age of eight years, and among other castes at any age. The female should not be ten years old and her age must be less than that of her husband and she should be married before the appearance of the signs of puberty. The Shastras mention eight kinds of marriage but only one is observed by the higher castes, named Brahma, when the charges are severally incurred by the fathers of the parties. The principal marriage ceremonies among Brahmans are the "Sagnapatirka," or writing by the Joshi or Astrologer of the names of the parties, and the day and hour at which the wedding is to take place the "Saptapadi," a walking round a fire three times, at each time seven steps and bringing together the garments of the parties, and the "Soma" or burnt offering after which the contract is irrisoluble. The girl is given away by her father in his own house in which it is usual for her to remain till the appearance of the signs of puberty after which she proceeds to the residence of her father-in-law where her husband also resides, or to that of the latter, should it be otherwise. Particular months and junctions of the planets are prescribed for the celebration of marriages in different castes as also the same custom is different provinces have their peculiar ceremonies, which are too various to be described here. Pallakumbanda is the performance of certain ceremonies on the occurrence of the first menstruous symptoms.

DEATH CEREMONIES

On the death of a man, the performance of his funeral obsequies (Krya) and of the monthly and annual pavidatory ceremonies, devolves on his heir. The principal times for performing "Sradha" are seven days after death secondly every month; and thirdly on the anniversary of death. Brahmans are unclean for ten days after the death of a relation—the military class for twelve—the mercantile for fifteen,—and Shudras for thirty. Among the Hindus, generally the body of the deceased is burnt, but that of an infant under two years of age is buried. The "Shradh" consists in the offering of rice, flowers, water &c. to the deceased and to his manes, in order to enable his soul to ascend to the heaven of the Pitans, or great progenitors of the human race.

MAHOMEDAN

RAMAZAN.—This Mahomedan fast commences each day throughout the month of this name when the first streak of light borders the eastern horizon and continues until the stars are clearly discerned in the heavens. During the whole period not the slightest particle of food or one single drop of water nor any other liquid passes the lips from the dawn till the appearance of the star in the evening. Each day during the fast is passed in some manner besides the usual naus, and in reading the Quran or the lives of the prophets.—Vide 22nd March. The fast is first broken by a cooling draught called Dandak, the name which is used in fevers. It is composed of the seeds of lettuce encumbered and well mixed with coriander well pounded and afterwards diluted with cold water; rose-water sugar syrup of pomegranate, and kurrat are also added. The whole preparation is made in the zannia, and then drunk by dams full by all true Rozan or Ramazan. Plain boiled rice with dhaniya (coriander) and sugar forms the first morning's repast of the fast. Dried dates are eaten with it in remembrance of the prophet's family whose greatest luxury was supposed to be the dates of Arabia. The conclusion of the month Ramazan is celebrated as a fast or festival and is hailed with joy and rejoicing and merriment, as a sort of reward for their severe abstinence. In every house the same duties are provided every amusement that can be thought of is indulged in, and the women are in great request, on the last day of the Ramazan, when the women of the mansion sit in state to receive visitors from inferiors, and to grant favors to others.

EDN—The followers of Mahomed aim to be the descendants of Abraham through his son Ishmael, who they aver was chosen as the offering to the Almighty, an act Isaac thus differing from the Jews and Christians, ground in their assertions on tradition which they deem conclusive evidence on the subject, in opposition to the authority of the Bible. The offering thus made is annually commemorated by the sacrifice of animals, such as camels, sheep, goats, kids, or lambs, a ruling to each person a mutton, which serves the double purpose of honoring the memory of Abraham and Ishmael, and also raising as a meal in time of need. The followers of Mahomed believe that the entrance to Paradise is guarded by a bridge as narrow as a scythe or some such equally sharp instrument, all adding a precarious and unstable footing. To enable them therefore to pass without danger they believe that the animals they have sacrificed at the feast of Edn will be present to lead their aid to help them over in safety.

EDN KORBAN—a commemoration of Abraham offering up Ishmael and this is the day on which they annually perform the Haj at Mecca.—Vide 29th May

MOHARRAM—A celebrated mourning festival held annually in remembrance of the first martyr of the Moslems—Husain and Hossein—the two sons of Fatima and Ali from whom the whole race of Syeds have descended. Husain was poisoned by an emissary of the usurping Kaliph and Hossein the last victim of the descendants of the prophet's family to the king Yazid's fury suffered a cruel death after the most severe trials on the plain of Karbala on the 10th day of the Arabian month Moharram the anniversary of which catastrophe he is commemorated with the most devoted zeal. Husain and Hossein were as above stated the two sons of Ali by his cousin Fatima the daughter of Mahomed and after the murder of their father by the cool-bloodedness of the Kaliph, they with their families removed from Shown, the capital of Media. After residing there for several years the people of Shown, being tired of king Yazid's tyrannical rule, invited Hossein to return to the capital and assume his lawful right as Imam (leader of the faithful). Before accepting this invitation, Hossein sent Madam, his cousin as a messenger to report the true state of affairs to him; but on his arrival with his two sons at Shown he was seized by order of king Yazid and cast from a precipice and his two sons were barbarously murdered for the sake of the reward offered for their heads. This forms the subject of the ten days bewailing during the Moharram. The Mahommadan days are divided into distinct sects, called the Shi'as and the Sunnis. The former regard Ali and his descendants to be the lawful leaders after Mahomed and the latter the Kaliph's, as Aboobakr Omar &c.—hence quarrels, animosities, and dislikes are hoarded up to be avenged during the Moharram. The festival begins on the first day of the moon (Moharram) Tazias (a term signifying grief and applied to a representation of the massacre enacted over the remains of Imam Hossein at Karbala) made of every obnoxious wood cedar and some wrought in silver. Banners and indeed of every variety of material, from pure silver to bamboo and paper, according to the rank and wealth of the party are exhibited in every direction, and conveyed in procession through the streets. Mourning assemblies are held morning and evening in the Imamshahs, during the Moharram and the head priest or preacher recites a subject for each day's service from the various books composed on the subject descriptive of the life and sufferings of Hossein and

Hossein. The Marsiâh a poetical composition of great merit, and embracing the whole of the subject they commemorate, is chaunted with great effect; the names of their lawful leaders are recounted with blessings, and that of the usurpers, the Kakiphas, with curses. Then comes the procession of Dhal Dhal—Hossein's horse killed at Karbala, beautifully caparisoned; and finally the Tazias are deposited with funeral rites in the public burial grounds, when the Moharram ceases. The Tabût is a slight framework of bamboo in the shape of a mausoleum covered and ornamented with coloured paper and tinsel. They vary considerably in size and appearance, according to the taste and ability of those who build them. Before these Tabûts incense is burned, and various other rites are performed. The Tabûts it is said, are peculiar to India. They are not mentioned in the Qur'an nor are they built by the inhabitants of Persia and Arabia. Many Mahomedans regard them with strong disapprobation. In Bombay the larger portion of the Mahomedans unite in building the Tabûts. These are taken out, and, accompanied with music carried in procession through the Ehendi Bazar from midnight of the ninth until three o'clock of the morning of the tenth day and from two to six o'clock on the afternoon of the same day on their way to the beach in Back Bay where the great part of the Tabûts, after being stripped of whatever is of value are cast into the sea. The practice of building Tabûts seems to be losing ground in Bombay; a portion of those who were formerly united in this having adopted the views of those opposed to such things. The Indian Mahomedans, who do not unite in building the Tabûts, are accustomed to go on this occasion to the mosques for five successive evenings to listen to the account of the death of Hossein. Their demonstrations of grief however are not equal to those of the Moguls and Persians who while listening to the recital weep aloud and smite violently upon their breasts. These are accustomed to meet at the Masjid, in Mirza Mahomed Ali Khan Street. In Bombay there is strictly speaking no representation of the battle which was fought previous to the death of Hossein. Some two or three horsemen bearing flags, enter the large yard adjoining the Kimâbhar with loud wailing, and are followed by two horses caparisoned to represent those which were for the use of his fallen Hossein. One person on horseback, with a long sword apparently run through the head and covered with blood joins in the wailing. A female infant in deep mourning sitting at the door of a small mausoleum which is carried on the shoulders of men constantly casts ashes or out-straw upon her head, in token of grief. These pass round in a circle, accompanied or followed by a company on foot, who beat upon their breasts, crying Hai Hossein Hai Hossein. Sometimes, a person represented in a dying state, his body covered with wounds and blood and darts and daggers run into it, is carried about in procession. It would seem that this festival is now celebrated with less effort and effect than formerly. It is apparently becoming more and more a farce. The grief is doubtless for the most part feigned. The decline of the peculiar zeal of the Mahomedans must necessarily lead them to enter into these with less spirit.—Vide 27th June.

PARSIS.

The Parsis of India are divided into two sects,—the Shahinshahis or "Rasnis" and the Kadmis or Changams the former of whom constitute the larger portion of the race. This division originated only about a hundred and fifty years ago, when a learned Persian priest, named Jamasp arrived in India, and found that his co-religionists differed from their brethren of Iran in their calculation of time by a full month and in other minor points relating to their "liturgy." Serious disputes arose in consequence, which ended in the formation of the two sects, the Shahinshahis adhering to their own views, and the Kadmis adopting the opinions imported by Jamasp—thus agreeing with their Persian brethren. Notwithstanding this division no estrangement exists between them in their social intercourse. The difference lies only in their computation of time, and in some slight variations in the forms of prayer. Intermarriage is allowed, as well as admission to each other's places of worship.

The festivals of the Parsis, are celebrated with little or no outward pomp. Their holidays are mostly occupied in prayers in the morning and festivities and rejoicings during the rest of the day. Some of their religious institutions are traced to a very ancient period. The festival of the NAORON dates from upwards of three thousand years before Christ and is kept to this day by most of the nations of Western Asia, notwithstanding their differences of creed. The Emperor Akbar adopted the "Naoron," and fourteen other festivals of the Parsis, for the observance of those who were attached to his favourite doctrines of the light faith or the Religion of God, which he fruitlessly endeavoured to introduce among his people.

PAPETI OR NEW YEAR'S DAY.—Among the festivals observed by the Persians, the first and universally kept is the Papeti or new year's day. This day is celebrated in honour of Yazdegerd, the last King of the Sassanid dynasty who was dethroned by Kahl Omar about A.D. 640. The ancient Persians reckoned a new era from the accession of each successive monarch, and as Yazdegerd had no successor the date of his accession to the throne has been brought down to the present time, thus making their current year 1291-92. In their calculations of the year only 365 days are allowed; leap year is unknown to them, though there are records which prove that in every 120 years one month was added to make it correspond with the solar year. The year is divided into twelve months of thirty days each and five days or 'Gathas', as they are called are added at the end to make up the deficiency. On these days the Persians rise early and dress themselves in new suits of clothes, and those piously disposed say their prayers in their private residences, or attend the fire-temples, where large congregations are gathered. After prayers the Persians visit their friends and relations, when the "Hama-i jur" or "joining of hands" is performed. This ceremony is a sort of greeting corresponding to the European fashion of wishing each other a happy new year. Their friends and relations are invited to breakfast. The morning thus occupied they spend the rest of the day in their country houses or clubs where feasting, rejoicing and much parties are kept up till a late hour. Alms are also given to the poor in the course of the day and new suits of clothes are presented to servants and dependents.

KHURDAD-SAL.—The second of the Persian festivals is the Khurdad Sal day or the anniversary of the birth of their prophet Zoroaster who they say was born in the city of Reh in the North of Persia, in the reign of Darius Hystaspis about 520 years before Christ. Herodotus places the birth of this celebrated personage about 1200 years anterior to this. The Persians themselves differ as to the exact time of the birth of their prophet; a part of them fix the period at B.C. 389 others at B.C. 638. Religious ceremonies are performed in the morning by the women of the family and the priests, the men as usual on such occasions limiting themselves to private prayers.

AMARZAD-SAL.—This holiday which falls on the day immediately after the preceding festival appears to have no origin in the books of the Persians. It is merely kept up as the continuation of the "Khurdad Sal" no religious ceremonies are required and the day is always spent in the enjoyment of epicurean pleasures.

FAVRERKADIS JAAH.—This day is set apart for the performance of ceremonies for the dead. "Favrur" meaning soul or spirit. The superstitious portion of the people attend on the hills at Chauspatty where their "dockhman" or towers of silence are situated and there perform prayers for the dead as if they had a better chance of being heard at that place on behalf of their deceased relations than in any other. The holiday is kept with some slight variations in other parts of India. The Persians are enjoined by their religion to preserve the memory of their dead by annual religious ceremonies performed in the house but such of their friends as die on long voyages or in unknown places and the date of whose death cannot be positively ascertained are according to the forms of their religion, honoured by sacred rites on this day. The ceremony consists in a man or woman preparing small round pieces of baked bread called dardas which are put on a tray or other copper vessel along with fruits and flowers, over which the priest performs the prayers of the Baj or Vaj as it is called by M. Anquetil Du Perron in his "Zend Avesta." According to the translation published by this learned Frenchman, the Baj is an invocation of the names of the departed and of such of the angels as have a direct control over the souls of the dead after their departure from this world. Prayers of this sort are still performed among the Hindus and the Mahomedans, and are not unknown in the Roman Catholic countries of Europe.

ARDCHIBEST JAAH.—This festival as its name implies, is maintained in honour of Ardchibest Amehaspand, the angel controlling the sacred fire, that element being one of the symbols of worship. The fire-temples are crowded on this day, and prayers offered to the Supreme Deity.

THE NAARUZ.—The fifth on our list is the celebrated Naaruz, called by some the Naaruz-i-Jumehd or the Naaruz-i-Sultan, the king's day. This celebrated festival falls generally about the 21st day of March and corresponds with our Vernal Equinox and the Makar Sankranti of the Hindus. This day is observed by the Modern Persians, the Arabs, the Turks and several other Asiatic nations for the computation of the solar year and for State purposes, such as the collection of revenue, and the arrangements for the agricultural operations of the year. Eastern writers date the origin of this festival from the time of Jamshid, the third king of the Peshadian dynasty of Persia, Jamshid is supposed by Bailly to have flourished 3,200 years before Christ; the Shah Namah celebrates him as the first prince of his race who introduced civilisation among mankind and established the computation of time. If we are to believe the Persian writers the exquisite bas-reliefs among the ruins of Persepolis,—still visible in beauty after a lapse of two thousand years,—are representations of the Court of Jamshid more especially on the festival of the Naoroz. The sculptures at this place, contain representations of the Courts of ancient Persia, with the long train of attendants bringing offerings to the feet of the Monarchs and as the Naoroz is a sort of revenue settlement day when the chiefs of different provinces lay their annual contributions before the throne and are allowed audience with the monarch the idea of a part of the Persepolitan bas-reliefs being a picture of some ancient king of Persia holding his court on the day of the Naoroz does not appear to be without foundation. In Persia this festival is kept for several days with unusual pomp by all the inhabitants, whether Mahomedans or Persia. In India it is simply a day of rejoicing.

AVA ARDECI SHAH JAHAN—Avā, in the Zend text, is the name of the angel who presides over the sea, and this Janaan or festival is held in his honour. The Parsas are required on this day to approach the sea shore or any stream of water and chant the Zend prayers but owing to their long residence in this country they have borrowed many Hindu rites in the observance of this holiday and offerings of sugar cocoanuts, flowers &c., to the sea, are not uncommon. The better-informed portion of the community however do not join with their brethren in these superstitious acts. In Bombay a fair is held on the Esplanade in honour of this festival.

ADAR JASAN—Adar another synonyme for fire, is the name by which the ninth month of the Parsi year is called. This is the most sacred of the twelve months, and the ninth day of that month is held in great respect and sanctity. On this day the fire temples are very much crowded and offerings of sandal wood are made to the sacred flame and money distributed among the priests.

Besides the above the festivals of the Parsas are the Meher Jasan, the Bahman Jasan and a few others of less importance, all of which are partially observed.

The MUKTAD is the name of a ceremony which is performed at the end of the Parsi year. It consists of a pile of brass or silver vessels filled with water and raised above the ground on iron stools. Flowers and fruits are placed there, and religious ceremonies in honour of the dead are performed before the Muktads. A society for religious reform which has been lately established among the Parsas, has denounced this ceremony. According to the tracts published by these reformers, the Parsi scriptures only require that the last ten days of the year should be spent in deeds of charity, prayers, and freedom from worldly pursuits; they add further that the ceremony of the brass and silver vessels &c. is borrowed entirely from the Hindus.

JEWISH

The festivals of the Jews were held weekly, monthly and yearly. Each seventh and fiftieth year moreover, was kept with peculiar solemnities.

The weekly festival was the Sabbath a day consecrated to rest and cheerful devotion. It was instituted when God rested on the seventh day from the work of Creation, and the precept was renewed to the Hebrews at Marah ere yet the Decalogue had been given from Sinai. It was kept from sunset on Friday to sunset on Saturday.

The monthly festival was held on the day of the new moon or the first day of every month which was proclaimed by sound of trumpet; the law however did not oblige the people to rest on these days though it appointed particular sacrifices.

The Feasts of the Passover or Pentecost, and of Tabernacles, were the three principal festivals observed under the law and they were times of real joy and festivity. As all the male inhabitants throughout the country were required on these occasions to go up to Jerusalem and the females also permitted to accompany them if they chose, the concourse was generally very great. These religious assemblies, besides commemorating important events in their history also observed other important purposes. They kept them steadfast to their religion by the view of ceremonies and the Majesty of the divine service; they afforded the means of religious instruction, for the law of God was then read and explained and they served moreover to renew the acquaintance and friendship of tribes and families who from all parts of the country thus met three times in the year in the holy city.

The PASCHER was instituted to commemorate the departure out of Egypt, because on the night preceding that departure, the destroying angel who slew the first-born of the Egyptians passed over the houses of the Hebrews, they being marked with the blood of the lamb, which for this reason was called the Paschal Lamb. It was celebrated on the 14th day of the first month of the ecclesiastical year (March), and lasted seven days. A lamb, or, if that could not be found, a kid without blemish, was killed, roasted and eaten with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. The first Pasover was eaten with their loins girded, their shoes on their feet, and their staves in their hands, that they might be in readiness for their journey, circumstances which were not observed in its celebration after the Exodus.

The FEST OF PENTECOST was celebrated on the fiftieth day after the Pasover, and was a feast of thanksgiving to the Lord, wherein they acknowledged his dominion over their country and their labours, by offering to him two loaves, as the first fruits of all their harvests. It also commemorated the giving of the law from Mount Sinai two years & fifty days after their departure from Egypt. The Hebrews counted seven weeks from the Pasover beginning on the second day of that solemnity and hence called it the Fest of Weeks; but by the Christians it was called Pentecost, a name which signifies the Fiftieth Day. It was on the day of Pentecost that the Holy Spirit was poured out from the ascended Saviour upon his apostles, qualifying them with miraculous gifts for establishing the New Testament kingdom.

The Fest of TABERNACLES was instituted as a memorial of their fathers having dwelt in tents for forty years during the passage through the wilderness. It was kept in the first month of the civil year (September), and lasted eight days, the first and seventh being the most solemn. During its continuance they lived in booths, tents, or arbours, constructed of the branches and leaves of trees. On the first day they cut down branches of the handiest trees, with their fruit, which they carried in ceremony to the synagogues. Holding in their right hand a branch of a palm-tree, three branches of myrtle, and two of willow tied together and having in their left hand a citrous and its fruit, they waved them towards the four quarters of the world, singing songs and crying "Hosanna."

These were the three great Festivals at which all the males were required to go up to Jerusalem to worship. "Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the Lord thy God in the place which he shall choose, in the feast of unleavened bread and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles."—(Deut. xvi. 16. Ex. xxxiv. 23.)

The feast of TRUMPETS was celebrated on the first day of their civil year (September), its commencement being proclaimed by sound of trumpet, and the day was kept solemn, all business being forbidden, and certain sacrifices appointed to be offered.

There are also two other feasts, though not appointed by law which require notice as they are often mentioned in Jewish history. The feast of Dedication was appointed to celebrate the re-establishment of Divine worship in Jerusalem after Antiochus Epiphanes had been vanquished and the temple purified. It is observed for eight days from the 25th of the third month (December), and is also called the Fest of Lights, from the illuminations which the Jews make during those days in their houses. The feast of Purim falls on the 14th and 15th of the sixth month (March), and commemorates the defeat of Haman. On these days they gave wine to the poor and presents to their friends.

The 15th of the first month of the civil year is the day of ANAKMENT on which they observe a fast from evening to evening and bowed their sun. Other fasts were also instituted in later times, connected with the siege of Jerusalem (10th of tenth month), the capture of the city (17th of the fourth month), the burning of the temple (9th of the 5th month), and the death of Gedaliah (3rd of the seventh month) of the Ecclesiastical year.

Every seventh year was to the Jews a Sabbathical year; and we find that Alexander the Great granted them an exemption from tribute on that year.

After seven weeks or Sabbaths of years, that is, after seven times seven years, the great Festival of the JUBILEE was celebrated; and during the whole year they neither sowed nor reaped. On this fiftieth year every one resumed possession of his inheritance whether it were sold, mortgaged, or alienated in any way; and Hebrew slaves of every description were set free, with their wives and children. Houses and edifices in walled towns were the only kind of property that did not return to the original owner in the year of the Jubilee.

TABLE OF COINS, WEIGHTS, AND MEASURES.

I—BRITISH INDIAN TABLES.

MONEY.

Silver is the legally constituted medium of exchange in all money transactions throughout the British-Indian Possessions. Gold coin is a legal tender at a fixed value of 16 rupees for the Gold-mohur of Calcutta, and 15 rupees for the gold rupee of Madras and Bombay, but it is not demandable in payment, and is left to find its current value in the market.

An order in council was promulgated January 1841 authorizing officers in charge of public treasuries freely to receive gold coins struck in conformity with the provisions of Act XVII of 1835 establishing the 15 Rupee piece. This continued till December 1852 when the swelling tides of California and Australia began to pour their rich treasures over the globe, when, in apprehension that India would be inundated with gold, the proclamation of 1841 was hastily rescinded, and gold henceforth debarred from entrance into any of the public treasuries.

The entire Bank-note circulation of the three Presidencies was calculated in 1858 at 1½ millions sterling, of which amount the Bank of Bengal had in circulation about one million sterling or one karór of rupees.

		Value Sterling
	1 Pie	£ 0 0s 0½d
8 Pie	= 1 Paisá or ¼ anna	0 0 0½
12 Pie	= 1 Anna	0 0 1½
16 Annas	= 1 Rupee*	0 2 0
15 Rupees	= 1 Gold Rupee	1 10 0
16 Rupees	= 1 Gold Mohur	1 12 0
100,000 Rupees	= 1 Lák	10,000 0 0
100 Lákhs	= 1 Karór	1,000,000 0 0

* The value of a Rupee is generally assumed as equal to 2s sterling. At the Calcutta Mint price of silver it is worth 2s 0-035d at the Commercial par of Exchange 1s. 11 5½d. and at the London Mint price of silver it is worth 1s 11-04d.

The Rupee weighs 180 grains troy, or 1 tola, and consists of 11 parts of silver and 1 of alloy. The Gold Rupee is of the same weight and standard. The Copper coinage are the half anna weighing 200 grains, the quarter anna or paisá 100 grains, the half paisá, 50 grains, and the pie 38½ grains.

In Bombay, accounts are still kept in Rupees, quarters and raees, 25 raees making one anna.

In Madras, accounts were formerly kept in Star Pagodas fanams and cash.

80 Cash	= 1 Fanam or panam.
42 Fanams	= 1 Star Pagoda, Hun or Varáha

The pagoda was of gold 19½ carats fine, and intrinsically worth 7s 5½d but valued at 4 Rupees.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

The British-Indian weights established by Regulation VII of 1833, and now for upwards of a quarter of a century in use in Bengal, were founded on the tola of 180 grains as a unit.

1—BASEL WEIGHT

4 Siki or quarters.	= 1 Tola ..	64½ dra	Ar	180 grs	Troy
5 Tola	= 1 Chhatáyk	2½ oz.	"	1½ oz	"
4 Chhatáyk	= 1 Pauwá	8½ oz.	"	7½ oz	"
4 Pauwa	= 1 Sér or Seer	2½ lb.	"	2½ lb	"
5 Sér	= 1 Passéri	10½ lb.	"	12½ lb.	"
8 Passéri, or 40 Sér	= 1 Mág or munda	82½ lb.	"	109 lb	"

The standard sér weighs 80 tola or rupees

The tola weighs 11 6688 French grammes, the máp, 37-8242 kilogrammes and the gramme weighs 0-08578523 tola.

Also 35 sérs are equal to 72 lbs avoirdupois; and 49 máqs are equal to 36 cwt

The Factory weight, adopted by the Bengal Government in 1787 was subdivided as in Básár weight only lighter 49 of any denomination of Básár weight, being equal to 54 of the same denomination of Factory weight and 1½ Factory máqs being equal to 1 cwt., or 1 Factory máq equal to 7¼ lbs or ¾ cwt Hence 1 Factory máq = 0-9074074 Básár máq. It is now disused.

In Bombay the following Local Weights are still used —

4 Dhaa, or yav	= 1 Raktika or Gúnj	2 1267	gr tr	-01182	tola
8 Raktika	= 1 Masika	8 5009	" "	-09452	"

40 Sérs	= 1 Máq	28	lb	"	1088¼ "
20 Máqs	= 1 Kandi	560	lb	"	6 8056 Imp máq

The British Indian or Imperial máq is 2 9387756 Bombay máqs, and the Bombay máq is 0 8402778 Imp máqs

At Poona

5 Sér	= 1 Passéri	9 837	lbs av	4 791	Imp Sér
8 Passéri	= 1 Máq	78 866	"	88 329	"
8 Máq or 120 Sér	= 1 Pallá	236 57	"	2 675	" máq.

The sér is 80 Anukahi rapces or 78-658 standard tolas Kacheha máqs of 12½ and 16 sérs are also used in the district

At Kurrachi

4 Kasira	= 1 Dokra	7½	drs av	1 080	tola
4½ Dokras	= 1 Anna	2	oz	"	4 881 "
72 Dokras or 16 Annas	= 1 Sér Pakká.	2	lbs	"	77 778 "
40 Sérs, Pakká	= 1 Máq	80	"	"	35 889 Imp Sér
8 Máqs	= 1 Potia	120	"	"	2 917 " Máq

100 Bombay Máqs	"			35	Kurrachi Máq
1 Bombay Khandi	"			7	Kurrachi Máq
1 Potia Máq	"			18¼	Kurrachi Sér

The Kurrachi weights approach very nearly to the British-Indian, and were probably intended to be the same 86 Kurrachi sérs (or máqs) are equal, by the above table, to 85 British-Indian of the same denomination, hence

1 British-Indian máq	= 1 or 1 02807 Kurrachi máqs and.
1 Kurrachi máq	= ¾ or 0-97222 British Indian máq

The Surat Sér, within the last 30 years consisted of 35 Surat tolas of 187 2 grains, and the máq consequently weighed about 37½ lbs avoirdupois the standard tola seems to have been substituted, and the sér now weighs only 14 4 oz., and the máq 36 lbs. avoirdupois Hence 7 Surat sérs or máqs = 9 Bombay sérs or máqs and—

1 Surat sér = 0-4376 Imp. sér, 1 Imp sér = 2¼ Surat Sérs

At Madras

	1 Sér	1 lb	avoird	24 804	tola.
5 Sérs	= 1 Vis	3½	lb	"	121-628 "
8 Vis or 40 Sérs	= 1 Máq	25	lb	"	972¼ "
20 Máqs	= 1 Khandi	500	lb	"	6-0764 Imp máq.

The Madras máq is 0-308819 British Indian máqs, and the Brit. Ind. or Imp. máq is 8-2914286 Madras máqs

The Mangolin for pearls is 6 grains 16 Mad. Chews = 55 Bombay Chews.

The Pagoda Weight = 52 56 grs'ns.

2.—NATIVE GOLDSMITH AND JEWELLERS WEIGHTS

	1 Dhan	..	$\frac{1}{4}$ gr Troy
4 Dhan	= 1 Rati		$\frac{1}{16}$ "
8 Rati	= 1 Masba		18 "
12 Masba	= 1 Tola		180 "

A Dhan is 0.46875 gr troy or 0.0308745 French grammes. Masbas, ratls, dhans are employed in the native evaluation of assay of the precious metals thus "10 masbas fine, signifies 10 12ths pure, or the same as 10 oz. touch.

3.—MEASURES OF LENGTH

The gaz or unit of lineal measure not only differs in different provinces of India, but also in the same province for different purposes. The English yard however, is rapidly becoming the only standard unit, especially where English education has obtained a firm footing.

8 Jan	= 1 Angli	$\frac{1}{2}$ inch
4 Angli	= 1 Mutthi	8 "
12 Angli	= 1 Big'hath	9 "
2 Big'hath or 24 Ang	= 1 Háth or Cubit	18 "
2 Háth	= 1 Gaz or yard	3 feet
4 Háth	= 1 Danda	2 yds
2000 Danda	= 1 Kos or Kros	4000 yds.
4 Kros	= 1 Yojan	$9\frac{1}{4}$ miles.

In Bombay the half hath is called Vépt and the measuring rod or Kathi for land, according to Jervis, is 9.4 feet. In Gujarat 5 hath make 1 Vasó or Kathi.

The Bengal kos contains only 1 000 danda or dhanú. In surveying, 80 Háth = 1 Rassi.

In the N W P.,—Delhi, Lúdhiana, Ferozepur and part of Berar—83 inches=1 Háth gaz, 3 il gaz=1 Raga or gantéh, and 20 bans=1 Jarib. In Benares and Ghanpur the gaz used by Mr Duncan in the settlement of 1795 was 88.6 inches. In Orissa the pedika or rod is 10.4355 feet. In Tírhút the lagi is 9.4 feet and in Jynteah the dastidari hath is 18.87 inches, and 16 haths make 1 null.

	In Bombay—for Cloth.
2 Angali	= 1 Tasú	$\frac{1}{16}$ inch
24 Tasú	= 1 Gaz	27 "

4.—MEASURES OF SURFACE.

In Bengal the following are used—

2 Square Haths	= 1 Gande	2 $\frac{1}{2}$ sq ft
20 Gande	= 1 Chhatápk	5 sq yds.
16 Chhatápk	= 1 Katichá	80 "
20 Katicha	= 1 Bighá	1600 "

The Bengal bighá is $\frac{1}{16}$ or 0.8305785 of an acre.

The Benares and Ghanpur bighá contains 3,600 square Benares gaz or 3,186 square yards, or 64708.4 ares.

In Bombay, Poona, &c

34 $\frac{1}{2}$ Square Haths	= 1 Káthi.
20 Káthiyó	= 1 Pad, or Vasó
20 Pad	= 1 Bighá
120 Bighá	= 1 Chahúr

If the Káthi of 54 háths be exactly 9.4 feet, this Bigha will contain 6927 $\frac{1}{2}$ sq yds = 0.811287 acre but Jervis says 3926 $\frac{1}{2}$ sq yds, giving 88.85 sq ft. for the square káthi instead of 88.86

In Gujarat

20 Khunt	= 1 Padtal.
20 Padtal	= 1 Padat
20 Padat	= 1 Vushwasi.
20 Vushwasi	= 1 Vasó
20 Vasa	= 1 Vigghe, Bighá or Dóri.

In the N W Provinces.—Delhce, Patna, Shahabad, Seron, Bhagalpur, and Mongyr, the bighá of 3600 square iláhi gas—3025 sq yards or 0.635 acre prevails, and is divided as follows—

20 Usuwani or Nanuwani	= 1 Saswani	= 24.5095 sq in.
20 Saswani or Tanwani	= 1 Kachwani	= 3.46312 sq ft.
20 Kachwani	= 1 Burwani	= 7.56125 sq yds
20 Burwani	= 1 Bawá	= 1514 " "
20 Bawá	= 1 Bighá	= 3025 " "
1 Acre	= 16 Delhi bighá.
The Oriya bighá is 1 acre	= 4840 sq yds
The Tirhut bighá, is 400 sq lági	= 4235 " "	= 872984 acre.

5.—LIQUID AND DRY MEASURES

India, properly speaking, does not possess dry or liquid measures. Where these are employed they represent the sér or the máq weight. The value of any vessel of capacity rests solely on the weight contained in it. In S and W India an equal mixture of the principal grains is taken and a vessel formed to hold a given weight of it.

In Béhá, the following is used for grain—the conversion into English measures being derived from the capacity of a vessel holding a máq of water or $1\frac{1}{2}$ bushels.

5 Chhatágha	= 1 Kínki	= 11.407 c m.	= 0.5143 pts
16 Chhatágha	= 1 Sér	= 57.037 "	= 1.5457 "
4 Kínki	= 1 Bék	= 71.8 "	= 2.0571 "
4 Bék or 5 Sér	= 1 Páli, or drón	= 285.168 "	= 8.2246 "
8 PÁli	= 1 Mág	= 2381.49 "	= 8.2286 gal
20 PÁli	= 1 Shall	= 5703.72 "	= 20.5714 "

At Bombay

2 Tipri	= 1 Sér	= 19.4092 c m	= $11\frac{1}{2}$ oz av
4 Sér	= 1 Páli	= 77.6367 "	= 2½ lbs.
16 Páli	= 1 Phara, or Fara	= 1242½ "	= 44½ "
8 Phara or Fará	= 1 Khandi	= 9937½ "	= 358½ "
25 Fará	= 1 Mada	= 35948 c ft	= 10 swt.

For Salt in Bombay

	= 1 Adhváli	= 4.11745 pints
10½ Adhváli	= 1 Phach, or Fará	= 5.7979 gal
100 Phara	= 1 Ago	= 72.474 bush
16 Ago	= 1 Rás	= 144.248 qrs

The Fará for salt contains 1607.61 cub inches and there is a sér for liquids of 60 tola, or about 42.78 cub. in., that is, 1.2943 pint.

At Poona.

8 Chiptágh	= 1 Sér	= 8.832 Stand. toles
4 Sér	= 1 Páli	= 8.832 " séra.
1½ Páli or 48 séra	= 1 Mág	= 40.983 "
2½ Mág, or 120 sér	= 1 Pallá	= 3.4467 " Mág
8 Pallá	= 1 Khandi	= 27.9 " "

At Kurrachí.

4 Chnothais	= 1 Páli.
4 Patois	= 1 Tol.
4 Tou	= 1 Kand.
5 Kandi	= 1 Mundi
12 Mundian 60 Kandi	= 1 Karwér

At Madras.

8 Clocks	= 1 Padī ..	93 75 c. in
8 Padī	= 1 Maseal ..	750 "
5 Maseals	= 1 Parah	3750 "

The Gores for Grain is 12½ māns or 320 lbs avoi = 3½ Brit Ind. maqs.

6.—MEASURES OF TIME

The Hindus reckon by a lunar year for religious, and by a sidereal year for civil purposes. The year begins when the sun enters the first constellation of the Hindu Zodiac, which at present happens about the 12th of April,—in Malayala, or from Mangalore to Cape Comorin, however, the year commences when the sun enters Kanya (Virgo) answering to the month Aswin, which generally happens about the 15th September days.	hours	minutes	seconds

The exact length of the sidereal year is	365	6	9	10 88
By the Surya Siddhanta it is	365	6	12	34 56
By the Arya Siddhanta ..	365	6	12	80
By the Brahma Siddhanta ..	365	6	12	9
By the Parasara Siddhanta ..	365	6	12	31.4

And since the Gregorian year has an average length of 365d 5h 49m. 12s., the commencement of the Hindu year will fall a day later every 62 or 63 years.

The Hindu month is the time the sun takes to pass through one-twelfth of the Zodiac, and consequently varies in length from 29d 8h. 21m. when the earth is in perihelion to 31d 14h. 59m. when it is in aphelion. The Civil differs from the astronomical account only in rejecting fractions of a day each civil year and month being accounted to begin at Sunrise instead of the exact time of the Sun's entering into the respective signs and if the fraction exceed 30 gharis or $\frac{1}{2}$ day the civil day or month is accounted to begin one day later than the astronomical.

The Gregorian Year	= 0 999958 Hindu year

The Mohammedans reckon by a lunar year, consisting of months of 30 and 29 days alternately and intercalate a day eleven times in 30 years.

The lunar year is 354d 8h 48 57m. and a year of the Hajira is 354d. 8h 48m.

Hence a year of the Hajira = 0 970223 Gregorian year

And a Gregorian year = 1 03069 of the Hajira,

We may find the Christian date from that of the Hajira by deducting 3 per cent from the latter and then adding 621 54 for the date A.D. of the end of the Mussulman year or, more correctly, by multiplying the Hajira date by $\frac{11}{10}$ and adding 621 54—thus $1278 \times \frac{11}{10} + 621 54 = 1240 04 + 621 54 = 1861 58$, which shows that the year A. H. 1278 ended about the middle of 1862.

Every year of the Christian era of which the date is divisible by 4, without a remainder is a Leap year except those centuries which are not divisible by 4. Thus 1752 and 1856 were Leap years, because the numbers 1752 and 1856, are divisible by 4 without remainder, but the years 1800 1900, are not Leap years because the centuries 18 and 19 are not so divisible, without remainder. In 400 years there are 97 Leap years. The Calendar is called the Gregorian from Pope Gregory XIII who introduced it in 1582. It is used by all the nations of Europe except Russia. The Gregorian year is 365d 5 hrs 49 m 24 sec.

With the exception of July and August both of which have 31 days, the months are alternately long and short. In Bisextile or Leap years February has 29 days, in common years only 28 days.

The Months are—

1 January	..	31 days	7 July	..	31 days
2 February		28 or 29 "	8 August		31 "
3 March		31 "	9 September		30 "
4 April	..	30 "	10 October		31 "
5 May	..	31 "	11 November		30 "
6 June	..	30 "	12 December		31 "

The days in each month may be remembered from the lines —

Thirty days are in September
April, June, and dull November
All the rest have thirty-one,
Saving February alone
Which hath twenty-eight days clear
And twenty-nine in each Leap year

In the table opposite 76 in the first column are 95 the value of the 5 per cent. loan, and

90 TABLE FOR REDUCING ANNAS & CO TO DEC. OF A RUPEE

104½ the value of the 5½ per cent. loan—the interest in all the three cases being 5.303 or 5 3/10 per Cent.

2.—At what price should I purchase 4 per Cent. to obtain 5½ per Cent. for my money ?

In the fourth column opposite 5½ or 5.5 in the column for 4 per Cent. stands 72.727 or 72 8/11 the price required.

3.—What would I gain, by selling out Rs. 10 000 5 per Cent. Government loans at 104 and purchasing 5½ per Cent. at 112 ?

In the third column opposite 104 in the 2nd is .. 114.4
112.

Gain on Rs. 100 of capital .. 2.4
And in the fourth column, opposite 112 in the 3rd is .. 4.911 per Cent.
" " " 104 " 2nd, " .. 5.303 " "

Difference, or gain per Cent. per annum on capital 0.108 or fully 1/10 per Cent. being Rs. 10 5a. on every Rs. 1,000 invested.

4.—To find the equivalent values of 4 and 5½ per Cent. Securities when 5 per Cent. are selling at 103½ or Rs. 103 6a

Opposite 103 in the second column, are 82.4 and 113.3 in the 1st and 3rd and among the proportional parts corresponding to 6a. in the 5 per Cent. col. are 0.3R in the 4 per Cent. and 6½a. in the 5½ per Cent. column.

Hence 82.4 + .3 = 82.7 the equivalent price of 4 per Cent. and 113.3 or 113.4½ + 6½a. = Rs. 113.11½a. the equivalent price of 5½ per Cent.

Other uses of this table will readily occur to brokers and others.

Example.—Required the Tax on Rupees 1,874, at one and three per cent.

$$1874 = 18 \text{ } 74 \text{ at 1 per cent}$$

$$18 \times 3 = 54 \text{ } 0$$

$$74 = 3 \text{ } 3$$

$$56 \text{ } 3 \text{ at 3 per cent.}$$

RULES FOR SICK LEAVE

Section IV—Upon application duly made, the Government may grant leave of absence on medical certificate to any Civil Servant, to any place in India, in Europe, or elsewhere, as he may consider most conducive to the restoration of his health, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort.

Section V—When an application for leave of absence is made on the ground of ill health, it must be accompanied by a certificate and a statement of the case from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant has been attended distinctly stating from personal observation the nature of the disease, the symptoms by which it is manifested, the period during which it has existed as far as the knowledge of the Medical Officer extends, and the necessity for temporary removal to some other place in India, or in Europe, or elsewhere as laid down in Section IV and in case of the applicant visiting the Presidency preparatory to obtaining leave, the certificate must be countersigned by the Members of the Medical Board on their being satisfied, on a perusal of the Medical Attendant's statement of the case, that the leave applied for is absolutely necessary towards his recovery should the applicant's Medical Attendant be of opinion that he ought to proceed to a Sanitarium or other place without visiting the residency the certificate must, in the first instance, be countersigned by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be located and afterwards submitted, with the statement of the case for the consideration and countersignature of the Members of the Medical Board.

The certificate shall be given in the following form—

"I A B Surgeon at or of— do hereby certify that E. F. of the Civil Service is in a bad state of health and I solemnly and sincerely declare that according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery; and do therefore recommend that he may be permitted to proceed to sea (or to such place as the Surgeon may think proper expressing it in the certificate)

The following form shall be observed by the Members of the Medical Board or the Superintending Surgeon in countersigning the Surgeon's certificate:—

"We (or I) do hereby certify that, according to the best of our (or my) professional judgment, after careful personal examination of his case, we (or I) consider the state of health of E. F. to be such as to render leave of absence for a period of ——— absolutely necessary (or highly desirable) for his recovery."

An application for extension of leave must, if the applicant be in India, be accompanied by a certificate to a like effect from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant is attended together with a statement, showing sufficient reason for the extension solicited and such certificate must be countersigned by the Members of the Medical Board or by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be located as the case may be on perusal of the statement. In like manner if the applicant shall have proceeded beyond the territories under the Government of the East India Company he must furnish a certificate and statement to the required effect from a Surgeon or Physician at the place of his temporary residence by whom he has been attended, such attendance, and the period of it, to be stated, and the certificate to be countersigned by the examining Physician of the East India Company if the applicant is in England or if not in England by the Principal Medical authority of the colony or country to which the absence may have proceeded, or some sufficient reason stated for the want of such counter signature if the certificate be not so countersigned. The Medical Board or Superintending Surgeon before countersigning a certificate as above mentioned must either personally examine the applicant, or state some sufficient reason why they or he have or hath been unable to do so. When any of the required particulars are neglected, leave will be refused.

Section VI—The following condition will in future attach to leaves of absence granted to Civil Servants who may be declared by a sufficient medical certificate to require such leave for the recovery of their health—

1st.—The total period of absence, with the privileges hereinafter provided shall not (save as specially excepted in Clause 5 of this Section, and in Section VII of these Rules) exceed eighteen months in the whole, nor shall it exceed fifteen months on any one occasion.

2ndly.—The officer of the absence will be considered to be vacated if he shall be absent beyond eighteen months altogether, or beyond fifteen months at any one time unless he shall obtain leave under Clause 5 of this Section, such absence to be computed, if he shall proceed to a Sanitarium within the Presidency from the date of his arrival thereat to the date of his quitting the Sanitarium; if to any place beyond the Presidency, but within the continent of India, from the date of his leaving the frontier of his own Presidency to the date of his return thereto; and if he shall proceed to sea, from the date of the sailing of the vessel on which he may have embarked from any port in India which is not more distant from his Station than the port of his own Presidency to the date of the arrival at any port within the Presidency to which he belongs, or at any other port which is not more distant from his Station than the port of his own Presidency.

3dly—The absentee will be entitled to draw a moiety of his salary and the same will be paid to him during each period of absence, provided that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 10,000 (£1,000) per annum during that period; in cases in which the emolument of the absentee's office does not exceed Rupees 5,000 per annum, no deduction therefrom shall be made for the period of eighteen months, nor shall such a deduction be made in other cases as shall reduce the allowance below Rupees 5,000 (£500) per annum. In cases in which the salary of the absentee may not be of that amount, the full salary will be granted.

4thly—For the interval elapsing between departure from Station to the commencement of reckoning absence, or between the end of reckoning absence and re-arrival at Station, the absentee will be allowed a special leave for an additional period of one month, two months, or three months, according to the distance to be travelled, as prescribed in Section XX. of these Rules and during this additional period the absentee will be entitled to draw the same salary as is allowed by Clause 3 of this Section.

5thly—Civil Servants proceeding on sick leave beyond sea will be allowed special leave for the interval elapsing between departure from Station and the commencement of reckoning absence, and between the end of reckoning absence and re-arrival at Station for an additional period of four six or eight weeks according as the distance to be travelled shall not exceed 800 or 600 miles, or be in excess of the last mentioned distance, on the condition that during this additional period the absentee shall be entitled to draw the same rate of allowance as laid down in Clause 3 of Section VI. If the leave on medical certificate be taken in India, the preparatory leave is to be calculated at the rate of one day for every fifteen miles of the distance to be travelled to the Sanitarium and it is allowed on both occasions; and at the time of proceeding to the Sanitarium, and also at the time of returning to Station. (Notification of the Government of India, 14th October 1857) and the resolution of the Government of India, 14th May 1860.

6thly—Second preparatory leave is not allowed when proceeding to Europe in extension of sick leave taken in India. (Bombay Government letter 9th April 1861)

7thly—Officers proceeding on sick leave to Europe from a Presidency Town are allowed preparatory leave for a period not exceeding one month. (Government of India, 7th September 1861)

8thly—Separate applications for the special leave above referred to are no longer required in the cases of Civil Servants proceeding on leave on medical certificate. In cases of Furlough on private affairs, separate applications for leave for the purpose of travelling must still be submitted. (Resolution of the Government of India, 17th April 1857)

9thly (As amended by the Government of India on the 22nd December 1858.)—If the absentee shall apply, under medical certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months, or fifteen months at any one time, and it shall appear to the Honorable the Court of Directors to be absolutely necessary after examination by their Medical Officers in England, that he should do so, the leave which may have been granted in India, will under the orders of the Honorable Court be extended to the limit of two years, with permission to retain office and half salary within the limits enjoined during such extension. If the absentee be in India, the leave may be extended to the limit aforesaid, under the orders of the Government of India, or the subordinate Governments, upon the certificate of a Board of Medical Officers, to be summoned to report on the state of the absentee's health.

10thly—If the absentee be compelled by the state of his health, under due medical certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months, or fifteen months at any one time, or beyond two years in the case of an extension under Clause 4 he will, as before stated, vacate his appointment; but he will be permitted to receive an allowance at the rate of £500 per annum if above ten years' standing at the time when the leave was granted or of £250 if not above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, for such further period of absence as shall not exceed the entire term of three years in the whole. At the expiration of that term, all allowances must cease until he reports his return to his Presidency.

Section VII.—If a Civil Servant of more than fifteen years' service, after having been absent on sick leave for eighteen months in the whole, or for fifteen months of one time at whatever period of his service such sick leave shall have been taken, shall be again compelled by the same cause to apply for leave of absence, the Government of India and the subordinate Governments may on special grounds, grant leave of absence for one further period not exceeding six months during which the absentee may retain his office and half his salary under the limits above enjoined.

Section VIII.—If a Civil Servant, after fifteen years' service, shall be compelled by ill health to apply for further leave of absence, he may be permitted on special grounds to obtain it but his absence will involve the loss of office and salary. The Government of India and the subordinate Governments will however respectively exercise a discretionary power to grant in such last mentioned cases a Sick Absentee Allowance not exceeding Rspees 5,000 or £500 per annum for a further period not exceeding twelve months.

Section IX.—A Civil Servant who has taken sick leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843 will not be debarred by that circumstance from taking such leave again under the above Rules, with the privilege of retaining office provided the leave be not granted till three years have expired after his return from his leave under the Rules of 17th May 1843.

Section X.—None of the above mentioned Rules will be applicable to Members of Council. Each Member may however with the special sanction of the Government be permitted to be absent, under medical certificate for a period not exceeding six months, retaining his office and receiving half his salary which shall be paid to him during such absence; but if his absence shall exceed six months, his office will be vacated.

Section XI.—Civil Servants who may desire to draw their allowances while absent on account of sickness under the above Rules, will be required to give security in such amount and form as may be fixed by the Government, for the refund of any excess that may be drawn either by the Agents at the Presidency or by themselves in case of their coming under retrenchment.

Absentees in Europe on medical certificate are not under the necessity of drawing their salaries through their Agents in India as on bills audited by the Civil Pay Master but are at liberty to draw them at the office of the Secretary of State for India at the rate of 2s. the rupee on the production of the last pay certificate. An Officer visiting England can draw his Salaries during his absence through his Agents on guarantee on application to the Civil Paymaster instead of as is now the rule going up to Government for sanction in each individual case.

CHAPTER III.

RULES FOR SHORT LEAVE ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS

Section XII (As amended by the Government of India on the 8th May 1856).—The Government may grant to Civil Servants leave of absence to any place in India, Europe, or elsewhere, without any restriction whatever as to the place to which they may resort, for one month in each calendar year without deduction from the salaries and emoluments drawn by such Servants. Such leave, however will only be granted when the Government is satisfied that no inconvenience will arise from the departure of the Officers seeking it. No second leave can be granted under this Rule until the completion of eleven months from the expiration of the last leave, if taken at one time, or from the date of return from any sick leave, or until the completion of six months from the expiration of the last instalment of a leave, if it has been divided. Servants not availing themselves of the indulgence in any one year may obtain, under the like conditions, leave of absence for two successive months, to commence at or after the expiration of twenty-two months from the termination of their former leave; and if two years elapse without enjoyment of the privilege leave for three months may in like manner be granted at the expiration of thirty-three months from the termination of the last preceding leave but no leave shall be granted under this Rule for any period exceeding three months. If an Officer shall not return at the expiration of the period of leave granted him under this Rule, he shall forfeit all pay and allowances during the time of his remaining so absent without leave; and if he shall so continue absent for more than one month beyond the term granted, his office shall become vacant.

1. When the leave is divided, it is not necessary that six months should elapse before granting the second instalment provided it is taken in the same calendar year. (Decision of the Government of India, page 1860 of the Calcutta Government Gazette of 1856.)

2. Leave under Section XII. cannot be granted preparatory to Furlough or retirement from the Service, and to have the benefit of its advantages the party must continue to serve, unless disabled by sickness for three months from the date of his return from privilege leave. (Notification of the Government of India, 19th September 1858.) Preparatory leave may however be granted on half salary under the same Notification.

3. Civil Servants taking privilege leave are to enjoy their full salaries in every instance and the cost of substitutes in such cases to be debited to Absentee Fund.

4. The condition of privilege leave is to return to duty on its expiration and the allowance of an officer will therefore not be payable till he shall have rejoined his station.

5. An officer obtaining privilege leave on the ground of ill health can obtain the same as the sole restriction on the grant is that no inconvenience whatever must arise from the departure of the officer seeking it.

6. No privilege leave not even for a day can be granted until an officer has earned it by being at his post eleven months when the Government may if inconvenient give him one month's leave either at one time or by instalments, but the provisions of the rules do not permit of any leave being granted until 11 months service has been completed.

Civil officers are not allowed to visit places beyond the Bombay Presidency on privilege leave without the sanction of Government.

7. Civil Servants absent from their Stations under medical certificate cannot be admitted to leave under this Rule in continuation of their sick leave and if while absent under this Rule they be granted extended leave under medical certificate, they shall be considered liable to the Rules applicable to leave of absences on medical certificate for the whole period of their absence.

8. The eleven months required by this Rule is computed from the date of an Officer's return to India from sick leave and not from the date of joining his duties. (Notification of the Government of India, 15th March 1861.)

9. Junior Civil Servant cannot get leave under Sect. XII unless he has been in India eleven months from the date of arrival. (Bombay Government letter 2nd June 1859).

10. Sick leave is not converted into privilege leave.

11. Leave taken under Section XIV must be held to be an interruption in calculation for the grant of leave under Section XII, and the computation must be subject to renewal from the date of the Civil Servant's return from the former. (Parliament of the Honorable Court's Despatch No. 6 of 14th January 1857.)

12. An officer is entitled to one month's privilege leave in the year which may be allowed in two instalments, if one only is obtained and the other not taken within the calendar year the balance whatever it may be will be forfeited, and a fresh leave can be granted only after the expiration of 11 months from the expiration of the leave that was taken.

13. Cancellation of leave need not be reported to Government, but to the Audit Department.

Section XIII (As amended by the Government of India on the 8th May 1856).—As a general rule, when leave is granted under Section XII, such leave will be in one period only whether for a whole month or less, and not in detached portions. It completes one month but as an exception to this Rule, it shall be discretionary with the several local Governments, where good cause is shown for the indulgence, and it is attended with no public inconvenience, to sanction leave of absence under this Rule, to such period as may not have occasion to apply for the whole at once, in two instalments only which are not to exceed in the aggregate one month within the calendar year.

Section XIV Clause 1 (As amended by the Government of India on 22nd December 1855).—The Government may, on sufficient cause being shown grant to a Civil Servant special leave of absence on private affairs for six months to any place in India, Europe, or elsewhere, without any restrictions whatever as to the place to which he may resort provided, however that the absentee shall draw no more than one half of his salary and allowances. After an absence of six months any office held by the absentee shall become vacant.

* Clause 2 (As amended by the Government of India on 22nd December 1855).—The leave granted under this Section if taken in India, will be computed from the date of the absentee's quitting his Station to the date of his return thereto, and if taken to Europe, or beyond Indian limits, from the date of the sailing of the vessel on which he may have embarked from the port nearest to his Station, to the date of his arrival at the same again return to duty. A second leave of the same description cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave. No portion of the half salary allowed to be drawn will be claimable till the absentee shall have returned to his duty.

For the interval elapsing in the case of leave taken to Europe or beyond Indian limits between departure from Station to arrival at the port of embarkation or between return to port and re-arrival at Station the Government may grant, on the same terms and conditions as the special leave, such an additional period of leave as may be considered to be absolutely required to enable the absentee to reach the port of embarkation or to return from the port of debarkation to his Station.

Clause 3.—It will be understood that leave under this Section is not to be granted as a matter of course to every applicant, but that it will be the duty of the Government to consider and determine whether the grounds of the application are sufficiently urgent to justify the concession of the leave.

Clause 4.—(Notification of Government of India, republished, and dated Bombay Castle 17th June 1857).—In the event of a Civil Servant, while absent on special private affairs leave, under Section XIV of the Rules falling sick and being granted extended leave under medical certificate, he shall be considered liable, for the whole period of his absence, to the Rules applicable to leave of absence on medical certificate.

Leave under Section XIV cannot be allowed in continuation of leave granted under Section XII, and cannot be granted by instalments, but there is nothing to prevent such leave being allowed for a shorter period than six months, provided the condition of leave not being claimable under the same rule for six years is maintained.

An absent officer is entitled to draw his authorised allowances during absence on bond fide return to service, and when ready to take up an appointment. (Notification of 4th May 1850.)

A second leave under this Section cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave.

No officer confirmed in an appointment in which he may have been acting or who may have been appointed to an office of higher emoluments than the one he had previously held shall be allowed to retain the appointment if proceeding to England on private affairs leave under Section XIV within the period of one year from the date of his confirmation or promotion. Any case in which the Government may consider that there are just grounds for relaxation of the above rules will be treated exceptionally.

An officer absent on leave under Section XIV should be not return on the expiration of such leave but resign the service cannot be allowed to draw any portion of his absentee allowance.

The Secretary of State for India will not accept a resignation from any Civil Servant whilst on leave on private affairs without ascertaining that there are no demands against him.

CHAPTER IV

FURLONGS ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XV—In the place of the period of three years (in one term) for which Furlough has hitherto been granted, Civil Servants will be allowed the option of taking a Furlough of three years as at present, or of dividing the Furlough into three periods of one year each, to be taken after successive periods of seven years service, or into two periods, which may either be of one and two years respectively or of eighteen months each, provided that in every case the Civil Servant shall declare, on taking his Furlough whether he intends it to be for twelve, eighteen, twenty four or thirty six months in order that the Government may make its arrangements accordingly. In case of a division into two periods the first Furlough must be taken after a residence of not less than ten years, and the second Furlough after a further residence in India of ten years from the date of return from the first Furlough; but Civil Servants returning on Furlough to Europe will continue, as at present, to vacate their offices.

1. The above terms "seven years' service" and "residence in India" mean service. (Notifications of 23rd May and 16th October 1850.)

2. Civil Servants who have had sick leave beyond sea cannot take Furlough to Europe on private affairs until six years from the date of return to their duty from such sick leave. This rule however does not apply to short leave to sea on medical certificate, (page 1544 of the Bombay Government Gazette of 1856), nor does it interfere with Civil Servants having special leave under Section XIV of the Absentee Rules, (page 1387 of the Bombay Government Gazette of 1856), but applies only to Furlough on private affairs, (Notification of 23rd May 1850) vide also Government of India's Notification, 18th June 1861 Calcutta Gazette page 1613.

3. An officer of the Department of Account taking Furlough to England, retains a leave on the appointment he holds at the time, and will be entitled to return to it on coming back to India. During such absence he will be entitled only to the usual Furlough allowance leaving the whole salary of his appointment available for his home income.

4. The two years passed at Haileybury are not allowed to count as actual residence in calculating the period after which an officer is entitled to Furlough.

Officers intending to take Furlough or to retire from the service will in future be required to continue to serve unless disabled by sickness for a period of three months. After return to duty from privilege leave under the Civil Absentee rules failing which its advantages will be forfeited.

5. The period of preparatory leave prior to Furlough on private affairs during which the Absentee shall be allowed a moiety of his allowance without limitation shall be governed by the rules applicable to similar leave in case of medical certificate (Clause 4 Sec VI) extending to 4, 6 or 8 weeks according to circumstances, and a separate application for this leave must be submitted.

6. Officers stationed at the Presidency Town will be allowed preparatory leave for a period not exceeding one month.

7. The rule laid down in the two preceding articles is applicable also to officers retiring from the service, provided it can be granted without detriment to the Government service.

Section XVI.—The Furlough Allowance granted during the periods mentioned in the last Section will be at the rate of £500 per annum, and the receipt of it will not, on any grounds whatever be permitted for any longer period than three years.

XVII—Civil Servants who may have been compelled by sickness to quit their duty under medical certificate, before completing seven years' residence in India, will be entitled to receive, during their Furlough on private affairs taken subsequently to their completion of that period of residence, the ordinary Furlough Allowance of £500 per annum for three years.

Section XVIII Clause 1—In applying the foregoing Rules in substitution of those before existing, periods of absence to the limit of three years will count as service in India in the twenty five years entitling to the Annuity the present qualification of twenty two years' residence being retained.

Clause 2—Absence on medical certificate to the extent of one year will reckon as service and residence in India, and be so computed, in addition to the three years of absence which under the Clause next preceding are allowed to be reckoned as Indian service. All periods of short leave of absence on private affairs, taken under Sections XII and XIV of these Rules, will also count as service and residence.

MILITARY OFFICERS.

Section XIX.—Military Officers employed in the Civil Department will be subject to the Rules laid down in General Order No. 1150 dated 17th November 1854, for the grant of leave of absence and furlough to Officers holding Military Staff Appointments.

1. Military Officers in Civil employ abide by the Civil Absentee rules in respect to privilege leave (vide Section XII) and are allowed the cumulative leave for two or three months, but that his allowance during his absence is to be regulated by the Military rules under which any expense incurred in providing for the performance of the duties of the absence is made good by him (Notification 1st September 1858, and Resolution of the Government of India, 8th September 1859.)

2. Military Officers get leave in continuation of three months privilege either on sick certificate or on private affairs, and receive during first two months full allowance (the expenses incurred for the performance of his duties of course paid by himself) and afterwards the deduction in cases of sickness or private affairs will commence. (Government of India's Resolution 8th September 1859.)

3. Military Officer uninterruptedly at his duty in the Military Department when temporarily acting in the Civil Department does not lose his title to privilege leave. (Government of India's Notification, 19th July 1860.)

4. Military Officer entering the Civil employ must serve in the Civil Department alone for the number of months prescribed in the Civil Absentee Rules to entitle him to privilege leave for one, two, or three months. (Government of India's Notification, 6th January 1860.)

beyond a period of four sex, or eight weeks according to the distance travelled, which shall not exceed 300 or 600 miles or be in excess of the last mentioned distance. (Government of India's Notification, 14th January 1859.)

7 Military Officers when absent from Head Quarters for the purpose of appearing before the Examination Committee in Bombay are regarded as on duty (Bombay Government Notification, 16th January 1860.)

CHAPTER V

CHAPTER VI.

Section XXIV—The sum of Company's Rupees 52,200 per annum having been fixed Note.—This rule will equally apply in case of a Political Resident taking a leave of one, two, or three months, for which in other cases he would suffer no deduction. The excess above the maximum monthly salary will in that case be enjoyed by the person in charge.

monthly salary yielded by that annual sum shall remain as a local addition to the usual Deputation Allowance to be drawn by the Officer performing the duties, to meet the necessary expenses of his position; provided however that in the cases of Civil Servants appointed to offices of the description referred to subsequent to the 2nd June 1854 the sum of Rupees 50,000 shall be held to be the maximum salary under the Government Resolution No. 563. of that date.

Section XXV—Deputation Allowances shall be granted to Civil Servants temporarily performing the duties of an office according to the following rates, and subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter laid down —

5. In the Punjab, Nagpore and other places where appointments are by classes, the amount of Deputation Allowances payable at the above rates will be calculated not upon the salary of the individual Officer holding the substantive appointment in which the Officer deputed may be temporarily officiating but on the average rate of salary attached to the particular class to which the appointments may belong.

12. An officer absent on privilege leave is clearly not entitled to acting allowances such being payable only for the period during which he is in the actual performance of duty.

13. An officer officiating in the Department of Account in an appointment of which the permanent incumbent has applied for Furlough will be satisfied to the full salary from the date of the embarkation of the Absentee.

Section XXVI—No Civil Servant temporarily officiating for another shall draw an amount larger than the entire emoluments of the office in which he is officiating; and if the amount of the Deputation Allowance according to the prescribed scale, added to the permanent emoluments of the officiating Servant, would exceed the emoluments of the office in which he is temporarily acting the excess shall not be drawn. But this provision shall not apply to the case of any Officer deputed for special reasons to act in an office of inferior emolument to his own. In cases where an Officer holding two appointments, on being deputed to officiate for another shall be relieved only from one, he shall receive no Deputation Allowance, unless the emoluments of the office in which he is deputed to act exceed the united emoluments of his permanent appointments and in that case the Deputation Allowance shall be limited to the difference.

The deputation allowance of an Officer acting at one and the same time in more than one appointment is calculated at the rate of 20 and 10 per cent. on the aggregate amount of the salaries of the two appointments provided the Deputation Allowance when added to the substantive salary of the acting Officer does not exceed the emoluments of the higher office in which he officiates.

Section XXVII—No subordinate Officer acting for his principal or for any other person holding a superior appointment, in the same office or establishment at the same Station shall be entitled to any Deputation Allowance until after the expiration of one month and then the allowance is not to be drawn in arrears. 1. A subordinate officer who has acted in any appointment on two occasions within a brief period say 12 months is permitted to draw acting allowance from the beginning.

2. A subordinate officer acting in a superior appointment taking privilege leave after first month, the next officer who is also a subordinate required to act for another month again without officiating allowance, as the provision of Section XXVII of the rules refer not to a superior Officer but to a superior office in the same station and therefore no subordinate is entitled to draw any acting allowance until he himself has acted for one month.

3. When a Covenanted Officer officiates for an Uncovenanted Officer or Military and Medical Officers in Civil employ absent on sick leave the Deputation Allowance shall be regulated on the same principle as if the absentees were a Civil Servant.

Section XXVIII—Civil Servants, if deputed to act at a distance from the Stations where they are employed or if ordered by Government on special duty shall be permitted to draw Travelling Allowances at the rate sanctioned in the case of a first appointment.

Uncovenanted Servants proceeding on sick leave beyond sea, will be allowed special leave for the interval elapsing between departure from Station and the commencement of recovering absence, and between the end of recovering absence and re-arrival at Station for an additional period of four six or eight weeks, according as the distance to be travelled shall not exceed 300 or 600 miles, or be in excess of the last mentioned distance; on the provision that during this additional period the absentee shall draw the same rate of allowance as laid down in Clause 3 of Section V. If the leave on medical certificate be taken in India the preparatory leave is to be calculated at the rate of one day for every fifteen miles of the distance to be travelled to the Sanitarium, and it is allowed on both occasions, viz. at the time of proceeding to the Sanitarium and also at the time of returning to Station. (Notification of the Government of India, 14th October 1867 and the Government of India's letter 11th May 1861.)

Separate applications for the special leave not considered necessary in the cases of Uncovenanted Servants proceeding on leave to Europe on medical certificate. An Officer who has had sick leave for 12 months only from the time he left Bombay is clearly entitled to half pay not exceeding £500 per annum for the full 12 months of his absence, in addition to the special leave for the regulated period of transit from his station as also for rejoining his appointment after landing at Bombay.

These servants who may not have a reason to apply for the whole months leave at once may divide it into two instalments.

No second leave shall be granted under this Rule until the completion of eleven months from the expiration of last leave if taken at one time or from the date of return from any sick leave or leave on private affairs.

An instalment of privilege leave taken in the latter half of June may be followed by the remaining instalment in July or subsequent month of the year. A month's leave not taken within the calendar year causes forfeiture of the balance and fresh leave can be granted only after the expiration of eleven months from the expiration of previous leave (Notification of 23rd May 1860.—See also Notification of 12th September 1860)

The eleven months required by this Rule is computed from the date of an Officer's return to India from sick leave and not from the date of joining his duties. (Notification of the Government of India, 15th March 1861)

An Unconvenanted Servant is not entitled to leave on private affairs in continuation of privilege leave (Notification, 15th November 1856.)

An Unconvenanted Servant not returning at the expiration of his privilege leave, shall forfeit all pay and allowances during the time of his remaining so absent without leave, and if he shall so continue absent for more than one month beyond the term granted, his office shall become vacant. (Resolution of the Government of India 23rd January 1857)

They can, however go where they please without taking leave unless required to remain at their stations on special duty (Resolution of the Government of India 26th September 1856 and No 3479 of 7th November 1861)

Unconvenanted Servants may at the option of Government, obtain accumulated privilege leave for two or three months, according as they may have been interrupted at their duties for two or thirty three months since they last had leave. (Notification 29th July 1857)

Judges of the Small Cause Court may with the sanction of Government, obtain leave for one, two, or three months, under Section VII according as they may have been at their duties eleven, twenty two or thirty three months since they last had leave and provided they have not during these periods availed themselves of leave during the vacations of the Court. (Resolution of the Government of India, 21st August 1857)

Unconvenanted Judicial and Educational Officers may take either vacation or privilege leave but not both. The vacation leave is not allowed to accumulate.

Officers are not allowed to visit places beyond the Bombay Presidency on privilege leave without the sanction of Government.

Section VIII.—In addition to the above, and on sufficient cause being shown leave of absence may be granted on private affairs for not more than six months, one-half the absentee's salary being deducted for such period of absence, provided the rate of Expense Rs. 200 (Rs. 200) per annum be not exceeded.

2.—The leave granted under this Section will be computed from the date of the absentee's quitting his post to the date of his return thereto. A second leave of the same description cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave. No portion of the salary allowed to be drawn will be claimable till the absentee shall have returned to his duty.

3.—Leave taken under this and the preceding Section will reckon as service qualifying for pension.

4.—Leave under Section VIII cannot be granted continuously with leave under Section VII and Section IX. (Notification, 15th November 1856, and the Financial Regulations of the Government of India, 15th July 1859.)

5.—Preparatory leave is not allowed to an Unconvenanted Servant while absent on leave under Section VIII. (Bombay Government Notification 15th March 1861, page 555.)

6.—Leave under Section VIII cannot be granted in instalments but being allowed for a shorter period than 6 months, provided the condition of leave not being claimable for 6 years is maintained.

9.—No interval is required to elapse after return from privilege leave under Section VII before special leave under Section VIII can be taken. The general restriction that both leave cannot be taken together is a sufficient protection against any abuse of the former leave.

Section IX.—In addition to the leave which may be granted under the preceding rules on medical certificate or private affairs, Government may at any time, under special circumstances, and at its discretion, grant leave of absence (even during the period of service, not exceeding twelve months on private affairs without forfeiture of appointment, but without pay; such period of absence not to count as service towards pension.

1.—An Officer absent as for an absentee on leave under Section IX is entitled to the full salary forfeited, and in like manner all others who are appointed consequent on such change to Acting Officers the salary of which becomes available accordingly.

2.—The Rule laid down in the preceding Article is not applicable to all acting appointments from whatever cause arising, provided the full salary is available but to cases in which the actual incumbent is absent on leave granted under Section IX of the rules.

3.—As Furlough under Section IX can be granted only once for a period not exceeding 12 months under special circumstances, and at the discretion of Government and without pay and as absence on Furlough does not count for service towards pension, it is not considered necessary to prescribe intervals as to time after which Furlough is obtainable by Unconvenanted Servants.

4.—Leave of absence under Section IX cannot be granted in continuation of leave under Section VIII.

5.—A period of 6 months is necessary from the date of return from privilege leave to the grant of Furlough.

6.—No interval required between the grant of sick leave under Section IV and V and special leave under Section VIII and Furlough under Section IX the credit on both laid down in the last mentioned clause being considered a sufficient check against any abuse of the privilege of taking Furlough.

7.—The provisions of Section IX clearly shows that Furlough cannot be taken by instalments by an Unconvenanted Servant. It may however, be taken anywhere in or out of India, but if taken in India preparatory leave cannot be granted.

Section X.—No leave of absence on private affairs shall be claimable by any party whatever under these rules as a matter of right; such leave will be granted only at the pleasure of the Government or its authorized officers when the concession of the indulgence in no way interferes with the interests of the public service, and it shall be the duty of the Government in every instance (except in the case of leave granted under Section VI.) to consider and determine whether the grounds of the application are sufficiently urgent to justify the concession of the leave.

(Bombay Government, 7th March 1857.)

MILITARY FURLOUGH REGULATIONS

G O No 775 of 6th December 1854—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to republish the following General Order by the Most Noble the Governor-General of India in Council No. 1180 dated Fort William 17th November 1854:—

"The Honorable the Court of Directors having transmitted to the Government of India further explanatory instructions regarding the Furlough Regulations published in Government General Order No. 110 of the 1st of February 1854 the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council is pleased to cancel that General Order and to promulgate in a connected form the Rules which have been laid down by the Honorable Court for regulating Furloughs and Leaves of Absence:

"With the view of adapting the Regulations to the present increased facilities of communication, and to correct as far as possible any tendency in them to deter Officers from resorting to the places which may be most conducive to the restoration of their health when a change of climate is required for that purpose the following Rules are established and are to have effect from the 1st February 1854:—

"1. All Regimental Officers in the Service on the 1st February 1854 who prefer retaining what may be considered the advantages of the Old Regulations, may do so provided they signify their wish to that effect when they next apply for furlough or leave of absence, without any limitation whether such leave be in India or elsewhere and Officers who once make their election will not be entitled to any other choice, but will be afterwards subject to the New or Old Regulations, according to their decision.

G O C 10th April 1855—With reference to G. O. C. No. 1 of the 15th March 1854, and to Rule 1 of the revised New Furlough Regulations, the Commander in Chief is pleased to notify under instructions from Government that Officers who entered the Service previously to the 1st February 1854 are required to make their election between the New and Old Furlough Regulations on the first occasion of their applying for any leave of absence which has to be announced in General Orders whether such leave may be to places in or beyond India, and whether on private affairs or sick certificate.

Officers commanding Divisions and forces will accordingly be careful before transmitting to Army Head Quarters applications for leave from Officers to whom the above decision applies, to see that each applicant's election between the New and Old Rules is therein duly declared.

G O C No 374 of 2nd May 1855—The following extract, paragraph 6 of a Despatch from the Honorable the Court of Directors, dated 20th March last No. 21 is published for general information:—

6 With reference to the modifications made in the New Furlough Regulations, we have determined that all Officers who quitted India on leave of absence previous to the announcement of such modifications and subsequent to the promulgation of the New Rules, shall be allowed to record their decision."

"2. Staff Officers, as such have not the above option allowed them but they may retain the advantages of the Old Regulations by giving up their appointments, which in such cases will be considered vacated from the date of embarkation.

G O C No. 801 of 25th October 1855—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to republish the following General Order by the Honorable the President of the Council of India in Council dated Fort William 4th September 1855, No. 804:—

"The following paragraph of a Military letter from the Honorable the Court of Directors to the Government of India, No. 84, dated 27th June 1855, is published for general information:—

"Letter dated 6th April, 1856, No 83

Submit the question whether as Officers are on their first application for leave of absence on furlough to declare whether they will abide by the Old or accept the New Furlough Rules. Staff Officers who apply for leave to the India, or elsewhere in India, are to vacate their offices like those who take leave to the Cape or elsewhere beyond sea. Government observe that if this were so, the rule would have the effect of depriving such Officers from all leave, however short, in excess of the privileged leave of one month in six."

"Staff Officers applying for leave in India are not required by the New Furlough Rules, to vacate their Staff appointments, we therefore approve and confirm the view you have taken of this question."

"3. To those Officers who adopt them, the New Regulations will apply retrospectively in respect of Furlough and leave of absence beyond sea, and in computing their time of service for retirement; so that their Furlough or leave of absence, whether under the Old or the New Rules and whether on private affairs or sick certificate within or beyond India, will count for service to the authorized extent only in computing the time for retirement on full pay.

G. G. O. No. 415 of 5th May 1856.—Extract from a Military letter from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to the Government of India No. 177 dated the 19th December 1855—

"Para 2. Under the New Rules, Officers absent from duty are allowed to count,

Letter from the Governor General, dated 24th September 1855

A memorial transmitted from Lieutenant William Williamson 4th B. L. praying—that Rule 3 of the New Furlough Regulations may be amended so that leave in India on medical certificate or on any urgent private affairs, may be allowed to reckon as service as was and is still the case under the Old Rules.

to a prescribed extent, time of absence as service for the pension on full pay, whether the time has been passed in Europe, or at the Cape or at the Mauritius Hills, or elsewhere and in order that Officers then in the service might have the immediate advantage of this Rule they are by Rule No. 3 allowed its benefits retrospectively as well as prospectively. Then, Officers who previously could not count any portion of the time spent in Europe as service for the Pension are enabled to do so and they claim in consequence a rate of Pension which could not otherwise have been claimed in some instances until after two, three or four years of additional service. Of those who have retired on full pay since the Rules were established a considerable proportion have claimed and received this advantage.

3. On the other hand Officers who had spent such lengthened periods at the Cape of Good Hope or elsewhere within Indian limits, as exceed the privileged time allowed by the New Rules, have to consider whether it will be for their advantage to adhere to the Old Rules, and in many instances have determined to do so in virtue of the option allowed to them.

4. If Rule 3 were to be abolished as now proposed by your Government, the effect would be that Officers adopting the New Rules, who had taken their leave of absence at the Cape and elsewhere within Indian limits, with the enjoyment of Indian Allowances would count all that time for the Pension whilst those who had taken their Furlough to Europe with Regimental pay only would be deprived of any such advantage.

5. We cannot admit that this change would be satisfactory neither can we approve of still further increasing the privileged time of absence by adding to it all leaves of absence in India. We must therefore decline to comply with the prayer of Lieutenant Williamson's memorial.

"4. Officers who have availed themselves of the option of the Old Rules are allowed to reconsider the question under the modifications now sanctioned.

"5. Officers who have not taken leave subsequent to the publication of the New Rules on the 1st February 1854 and who consequently may not have been called upon to declare what they would abide by the Old or the New Regulations, will on retirement from the Service be entitled to take full advantage of the privileges given by the New Regulations.

G. G. O. No. 662, of 28th August 1856.—All unattached Officers are entitled to the benefit of the New Furlough Regulations from the date of their first Commission.

"FURLOUNDS ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

6. Every Officer will be allowed a Furlough to Europe, or elsewhere beyond sea, for a period of two years at the expiration of ten years' service and for a second period of two years after twenty years' service in India. (See various Orders following Rules 7, 10, and 20.)

G. G. O. No. 361 of 9th June 1860.—The following Extract (paragraph 6th) of a letter from the Secretary of State for India, No. 68, dated 28th April last, is published for information—

I have to inform you that it has been decided that those Officers who have come to this country on duty with discharged Troops and have been granted extensions (not exceeding six months) of their privilege leave on Medical Certificate on private affairs shall not be considered to have exhausted their claim to Furlough at the end of ten years' service though they may not have been six years in India since their return from this country."

G. G. O. No. 434 of 9th July 1860.—The following extract of a Despatch No. 82, of 25th May from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for India, is published for general information—

" Paragraph 4.—I have to inform you that it has been decided that those Officers who have been allowed to count their leave on such certificate as service for Furlough, will be ineligible to a Furlough, on private affairs, until they have served six years in India from the date of their return to duty.

G. O. C No. 872, 17th August 1866.—Under instructions from Government, the Commander-in-Chief directs that application from Officers of the Bombay Army, for Furlough to Europe on private affairs, shall be accompanied by a statement in duplicate in the following form, the columns Length of Service and periods of absence on Furlough or Medical Certificate only will be filled in at the Office of the Adjutant General of the Army. All other details must be entered at the Head Quarters of Regiments.

In the instances of Officers proceeding to Europe on medical certificate Officers Commanding Regiments on the receipt of the General Order, granting the leave will prepare and immediately transmit to the Deputy Adjutant General, similar statements relating to the Officers concerned.

Officers Commanding Regiments are required to prepare and keep a Record Book of the service of the Officers under their respective commands, in order that they may at all times be prepared to transmit the statements in question, which the Secretary of State for India requires on an Officer proceeding to Europe.

Blank Forms of these Statements will be furnished from the Adjutant General's Office, and renewed from time to time, on the applications of Commanding Officers.

'The second Furlough of two years will only be granted after ten years service in India from the date of the return to duty after the first Furlough of two years. These Furloughs are not to be cumulative under any circumstances, but are limited to two years. Officers who have taken leave of absence on sick certificate to Europe or elsewhere beyond sea, will be ineligible to a Furlough on private affairs until they have served six years from their last return to duty. This rule does not apply to short leaves to sea. (See Orders following Rules 20 and 21)

G O O 2nd July 1845.—With reference to Rules 6 and 7 of the revised New Furlough Regulations, the Commander in Chief is pleased to notify that under a decision passed by the Government of India Officers who may have availed themselves previously to the 1st February 1834 of Furlough to Europe on private affairs, with pay after ten years service in India will in the event of their adopting the New Furlough Rules, be entitled, after completing ten years additional service, to a second Furlough, with pay under the provisions of Rule 7 for two years deducting therefrom such period in excess of two years as they may have been previously absent on Furlough with pay

G O O 23rd August 1853.—With the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, the following decisions of the Government of India, on points connected with the revised New Furlough Rules are published to the Army —

Question

Are the periods of ten and twenty years' service in India, which will entitle Officers, under the New Furlough Rules, to Furloughs on private affairs to Europe, or elsewhere beyond sea, with pay to be understood to include all leaves of absence in India or are all such leaves (excepting only the privileged leave of one month in six) to be reckoned against service towards Furloughs on private affairs with pay?

Decision

The ten years' service in India, after which an Officer is entitled to a Furlough is understood to include all leaves in India. The second Furlough of two years is only granted after ten years service in India from the date of return to duty after the first Furlough of two years.

"All leaves in India are counted as service, except for Retiring Pension, for which only a portion of an Officer's total leave in and out of India can be so reckoned.

G O O No. 360, of 10th July 1854.—The Honorable the Court of Directors in their letter No. 56, of the 25th April 1854, have communicated the following decision regarding Nos. 6 and 7 of the New Furlough Rules published in Government General Order No. 1150, dated the 17th November 1854 —

"Officers who take the first Furlough after twenty years service in India, may take their second Furlough after an additional service of five years from the date of their last return to duty

"All grants of Furlough on private affairs are subject to the exigencies of the public service and to the Regulations framed for the preservation of the efficiency of each Regiment, by limiting the number of absentees.

G O O No. 364, of 15th April 1857.—Under the authority of the Honorable the Court of Directors, the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council is pleased to extend to Officers generally at the three Presidencies, the privilege granted to Officers at Mooltan and Peshawar of being allowed when the demands of the Service will permit, temporary leave, without pecuniary loss, or loss of service, for sixty days consecutively in the course of each year or of thirty days consecutively in each half year as may be preferred by them

G O C. 13th August 1858.—Although privilege leave for sixty days consecutively is granted it does not authorise Officers commanding Divisions or Forces to grant leave in excess of the periods laid down in Section XXVI para. 327 of 8th Appendix Jameson's Code. Applications for leave exceeding thirty days must be submitted for the sanction of His Excellency.

G G O No 46 of 1862.—Officers employed in the Military Department are not allowed to go to Europe or elsewhere out of India on privilege leave without the sanction of Government.

G G O No 3-5 of 1862.—The practice of announcing in General Orders the grant of privilege leave is discontinued, and restricted to announcement in Division or Separate Brigade Orders. Applications for this leave in excess of 30 days to be forwarded in herebefore to the Adjutant General of the Army who will enface thereon the Commander-in-Chief's decision returning them to the submitting Officer.

"9. Officers holding Staff or other detached appointments may be allowed Furlough for a period of six months without losing their appointments but during that period they will not be entitled to any portion of their Staff salary which will be drawn in full by the Officers substituting for them.

G O C. 23rd January 1855.—The Honorable the Court of Directors have been pleased to decide that Rule 9 of the revised New Furlough Regulations is not applicable to Officers proceeding on Furlough to Europe or elsewhere beyond sea, whose service in India may fall short of the periods specified in Rules 6 and 7 and that Furlough can be granted to such Officers only under the special provisions of Article 7a, Section XXI para 377 of Jameson's Code which is to be considered as still in force.

G G O No 312, of 11th April 1856.—Letter from the Honorable the Court of Directors to the Government of India, No 8 dated 23rd January 1856.—

Letter No 213 dated 24th Sept 1915

Government forward correspondence relative to certain questions connected with the New Furlough Regulations and request to be informed as to claims of an Officer to the residue of his Furlough on private affairs when he has been a ready absent on leave to England on private affairs for six months.

Para 8. We have to state in reply to your enquiry that an Officer proceeding on leave to England for six months, retaining his appointment or otherwise, is not to be considered as having taken his authorized Furlough after ten or twenty years as the case may be but may with your permission be allowed at any time to take the remainder of the two years authorized Furlough on private affairs.

G O No 560 of 10th July 1850.—The Honorable the Court of Directors, in their letter No 56, of the 23rd April 1856, have communicated the following decision regarding No 9 of the New Furlough Rules published in Government General Order No. 1150 dated the 17th November 1854.—

"Absence for six months, under this Rule does not preclude an Officer from taking his Furlough to Europe after ten years service."

20. All Officers, whether Staff or Regimental while on Furlough on private affairs, will be entitled to Furlough pay only.

G O C. 25th May 1859.—Applications from Military Officers for Furlough on private affairs beyond Presidency limits, to be embodied in the following form and forwarded without accompaniment through Station and Divisional Authorities for countersignature to the Officer in charge Adjutant General's Office Presidency for the orders of His Excellency.—

G G O No 434 of 1860 —Officers allowed to count their leave on sick certificate as service for Pension, ineligible to Furlough on private affairs until they have served six years in India from date of return to duty

G G O No 403 of 1860 —Officers proceeding on medical certificate not required to furnish No Demand Certificates

Officers in charge of Cash or Stores to furnish Certificate from Officer taking charge of his duties that as far as can be ascertained nothing irregular nor any known demands against him remain unadjusted

Officers leaving on private affairs to furnish No Demand Certificates

LEAVE OF ABSENCE ON SICK CERTIFICATE.

" 11 Leave of absence on sick certificate will be granted for a term not exceeding eighteen months, whether it be to any place in Europe or elsewhere out of India

G G O No 389 23rd July 1861 —It appears to be commonly supposed that if an Officer obtain a medical certificate for a Furlough to Europe, he is entitled to the maximum period

The practice of Medical Boards has tended to confirm this erroneous supposition

The period of eighteen months is a maximum (under the New Furlough Regulations) and fifteen months is a maximum within which an Officer may retain a Staff Appointment during such absence

The prospective extension of these periods announced in paragraph 36 of the G O by the Government of India, No 332, of 10th April renders it particularly necessary to remind Medical Officers that it is their duty to limit the period named in the medical certificate to the necessities of the applicant in respect of recovery of health alone

" 12 Extensions of such leave may be granted as at present, on production of medical certificates, for further periods not exceeding eighteen months in the whole

" 13 An Officer holding a staff or other detached appointment will be allowed to be absent on sick certificate in England, or elsewhere beyond sea, for a period of fifteen months without losing his appointment, and during the first six months only of such absence he will be entitled to draw half the Staff salary of his appointment the Officer officiating for him drawing the remaining half salary during the first six months and the whole salary during the remainder of the time

" 14 An Officer's claim to half Staff salary for six months, as sanctioned in the preceding Rule will not be affected by his subsequently retiring from the Service, in Europe or elsewhere

G G O. No 429, 20th August 1861 —The following General Order by the Government of India, dated 26th June 1861 No 565 is republished —

His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to resolve that absence from India on authorized leave within the periods allowed by the New Furlough Regulations shall not debar an Officer whose efficiency has been proved and certified to the full satisfaction of the Governor General in Council, from Departmental promotion temporary or permanent

In such cases the absent Officer will not, till he resumes charge of his duties, have any claim to the salary of the higher Office which will be drawn by the Acting Officer."

G G O No. 395, of 28th April 1856.—Under instructions from the Honorable the Court of Directors, the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council is pleased to publish the following Notification —

" The grant of leave of absence to Staff Officers on medical certificate, with half Staff Allowances for six months, and with the privilege of returning to their offices if their absence from India be not prolonged beyond fifteen months, is bestowed by the Honorable Court in order to enable such officers to regain their health and in the expectation that they will be thereby qualified to render additional service to the Government. But if leave of absence be taken merely to run out a prescribed period of service, and without any intention of returning to duty, the principle on which the rule is founded is infringed and the indulgence of the Honorable Court is abused. Wherefore the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council hereby notifies for general information that if it shall be shown to the satisfaction of an Officer not to return to duty, or if the Government have valid grounds for concluding that the Officer has no intention to return to duty, the indulgence of leave on sick certificate retaining a Rec. will not be granted in future.

"15. No portion of command Allowance, Medical Staff Salary or other similar allowance which under the Old Rules was inadmissible to Officers absent from their Corps or Stations at the Cape or elsewhere will be allowed to absent Officers under these Regulations.

"16. All Officers whether Staff or Regimental, while on leave of absence on sick certificate will be entitled for a period of six months to the same rate of Indian pay and allowances as was allowed under the Old Regulations to Officers proceeding to the Cape on medical certificate and for the remaining period of their leave they will receive Furlough pay only.

"17. If the leave on sick certificate be extended Furlough pay will be continued out under no circumstances for a longer period than three years altogether from the commencement of the absence.

G O C 30th October 1858—Officers who have had an unfavorable report of leave and may be proceeding to Europe or sick certificate will be requisite be subject to examination as to their fitness for further service.

G O C 30th August 1859—An Officer proceeding sick to England to show the statement of his case to the Surgeon of the ship in which he is a passenger for the Surgeon's guidance sick Officers allowed if necessary a soldier to accompany them to Bombay.

STAFF OFFICERS

"18. The term Staff Officers applies to all Officers holding Staff or detached appointments Military (General or Special) Medical or Civil also to General Officers commanding Divisions. Members of the Medical Board Superintending Surgeons, and others who under the Old Rules were entitled to draw half Staff Allowance when absent at the Cape (See G O No 111 of 30th January 1856 following Rule 31).

"19. Staff Officers absent on leave beyond the period stated in Rules 9 and 13 respectively cannot retain their appointments and allowances, except on special grounds to be sanctioned by the Government of the Presidency. Any such special grant of leave is to be reported at once to the Honorable the Court of Directors, with the reasons for it and to be subject to their approbation.

"20. The privilege of retaining Staff appointments during leave of absence on sick certificate or on Furlough on private affairs will not be available a second time if the fresh leave is on a sick certificate, until an Officer has been three years, or if on private affairs until he has been six years, in the discharge of the duties of his appointment from the date of last return to it.

G O C 27th August 1855—With the sanction of Government, the following decision of the Government of India is published to the Army—

Under the New Furlough Rules, Furlough granted without pay or other privileges does not bar privileged leave hereafter.

"21. This Rule however (No 20) does not apply to leaves of absence whether on sick certificate or on private affairs, in India, or for brief periods to Ceylon the Mauritius or other places out of India.

G O C 12th July 1856—The Government of India has fixed three months as the maximum period which is to be understood by the terms short leaves and "leaves for brief periods" used in Rules 7 and 21 of the New Furlough Regulations.

22 Officers commanding Troops of Horse Artillery and Light Field Batteries and Officers generally in employment will be allowed leave out of India, under the same Rules with respect to allowances and tenure of command or office as regulated the grant of leave to the Cape to such Officers under the Old Regulations, except as to the duration of those advantages the time for their continuance being subject to the provisions of the New Regulations.

"DATE OF FURLOUGH AND ADVANCE OF PAY

23 The period of Furlough on private affairs or leave of absence on sick certificate is to be calculated from the date of the departure from India of the ship in which the Officer proceeds.

G O C No 363 21st March 1861.—The Secretary of State for India has intimated that henceforth the permission to return to duty granted to Officers will hold good for three months from the date of such permission provided they embark for India within that period.

24 Advances of pay and allowances, Staff and Regimental to Officers proceeding on leave of absence on sick certificate, who may be entitled to them will be made in India for three months from date of embarkation. Payments in continuation will be made in England at the rate of exchange fixed annually for repayment of advances made on account of Her Majesty's Government. Furlough pay will continue to be issued in advance for six months when required by Officers obtaining Furlough on private affairs.

G O C No 197 of 7th February 1856.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to notify to the Army that it has been decided by the Government of India that every Officer proceeding to a British Colony within Indian limits is entitled to the advance of pay authorized in the first Clause of Rule 24 of the New Furlough Regulation but that such Officer shall be required to appoint an agent in India to draw the arrears which may accrue to him during Furlough on either sick certificate or private affairs. If such an agent be not appointed payment of the arrears shall be postponed till the return of the Officer to India and every agent shall be required to give a sufficient guarantee for the refund of any payment that may fail to be recovered.

25 The existing Regulations regarding leave of absence to Officers are not affected by these Rules.

26 The Certificate issued to Officers who are granted Furloughs on private affairs or leave of absence on sick certificate are to specify the time each Officer has been absent on leave within Indian limits as well as the time of his previous absence in Europe but will not exceed the periods allowed for proceeding to the Presidency or port of embarkation and to enable Officers to rejoin their Regiments or Stations after their return to India not the leave of absence exceeding six months as authorized by the Regulations. The last Pay Certificate of all Officers proceeding to England on sick certificate is to give the rate of Regimental pay and allowances and Staff salary to which they will have been entitled under the Old Regulations if proceeding to sea on medical certificate. This information is necessary in order that no difficulty may arise in the Pay Department of the India House in adjusting the several payments which may be due. (See various Orders following Rule 21.)

G O C 27th April 1835.—With the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, the following decisions of the Government of India, on points connected with the revised New Furlough Rules are published to the Army —

Question

Is it only such leave (not exceeding thirty days in six months) as may be granted under the General Regulation contained in G O G G I No 341 dated the 20th March 1851 that is to be allowed to count as service or will Officers who may be absent from their Stations on leave granted to them under the ordinary Regulation for their periods to sea or from countries six months between the 1st January and 1st July and thereby whether on private affairs or whether they be entitled to have a period not exceeding thirty days of such leave counted as service?

Decision

Any short leaves are not to reckon against an Officer's length of service but all leaves accounted in General Orders, which in the aggregate exceed the periods laid down in paragraph 32 to 36 of the Government General Order

No 1150 of the 11th November 1850 & 5th December 1851 and no deduction can be made from such leave except for the period allowed an Officer preparatory to embarkation and to enable him to rejoin his Corps or Station on his return to India.

An Officer who has obtained leave for six months or any other period in General Orders is not allowed to deduct the thirty days privilege leave which he might have taken without its being announced in General Orders. In such a case the whole period announced in General Orders reckons against his service.

G O C 17th September 1855 — With the sanction of Government the following decision of the Government of India, having reference to Rule 26 of the New Furlough Regulations, is published to the Army —

Short leaves on private affairs for periods not exceeding thirty days which have been granted to Officers in General Orders previously to 6th December 1854 are to be counted as privileged provided they do not exceed an aggregate of thirty days in each half-year.

G O G No 837 of 12th November 1855 — With reference to the Regulations

Art 14 Clause 1 to 4 Sect XII Jameson's Code
Arts 216 to 218 Sect XXV 1st Appendix Jameson's Code
Arts 174 to 175 Sect XXVI 1st Appendix Code page 948 rule returning under the Bengal Regulations to be applicable to this Presidency also from this date —

The thirty days privilege leave is to be calculated so as to include the day of return as one of leave & if leave be granted on the 15th July the Officer must rejoin on the 15th of August.

OFFICERS OF HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE

27 Officers of Her Majesty's Service in India who are employed Regimentally or in Staff or detached situations, are entitled to the advantages now laid down in respect to allowances and tenure of office when on Furlough or on special service.

28 In the case of Officers of Her Majesty's Service on Furlough on which certificate in England or elsewhere who may return or exchange into Regiments not on the Indian Establishment the grant to these Officers of Indian Allowances will cease from the date of their return or exchange if it takes place before the expiration of six months from the date of quitting India.

G O G No 169 of 1862 — Staff Surgeons proceeding on furlough leave to belong to the Indian Establishment, and have no claim to Indian allowances after date of quitting India.

PERIODS OF ABSENCE ALLOWED TO BE COUNTED AS SERVICE FOR RETIRING PENSIONS

29 In order that all Officers quitting India, on Furlough or sick certificate may be placed on an exact equality as regards loss of time the period allowed by Regulation for proceeding to the Presidency or to the nearest port of embarkation as well as the time to enable Officers to rejoin their Corps or Stations after their return to India, will be considered as time counting for service for the Retiring Pension. (See various Orders following Rule 13)

printed by Troops, between Bombay and the different Outstations, is published for general information and guidance in supersession of that contained in Arts 160 and 161 Section VI 2nd Appendix to Jameson's Code

The distances in the "fair season" are entirely by land or partly by land or partly by water whichever is the most expeditious. Both by sea and river the passage is estimated by country boat, and the month in which the longest passages occur has been taken as the standard for the average length of passage.

The fair season as regards sea or river passage from to and in Sind is estimated to commence on the 15th October and end on the 15th April.

The fair season as regards all other water passages, lasts from the 15th of October to the 15th of May.

When the distance is entirely by land ten miles per diem is allowed, without halts, by the nearest marching route.

G O C 23rd June 1865.—With reference to the new Furlough Regulations, the Commander-in-Chief is pleased to direct that in future Officers not above the Regimental rank of Captain who may return from furlough or leave of absence beyond Presidency limits during the monsoon or who, being on sick leave within Presidency limits, may be reported fit for duty during that season viz between the 1st June and 1st October shall be permitted in the event of their own Corps being too distant to admit of their at once rejoining to do duty until the latter date with Regiments at the Presidency or other Stations at or near which they may be at the time, unless they should obtain leave of absence in extension on private affairs.

Officers belonging to Regiments at Neemuch, who may be circumstanced as above will remain attached to other Corps until the 15th December.

G. G. O. N. 235 of 8th March 1855.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to announce that the following Rules will be observed in calculating the periods of Officers' absence on furlough in or beyond India. —

As respects Furlough in India, the day of departure from a Regiment or appointment is one of leave and the day of return thereto is one of duty.

As respects Furlough beyond India, the date of final departure from India, viz that on which the vessel conveying the Officer, from India puts out to sea, is reckoned as one of Furlough, and the day on which he returns to his Presidency as one of duty.

G. G. O. No. 120, of 8th January 1857.—Under instructions from the Government of India, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to direct that the rule promulgated in G. G. O. No. 235, dated 8th March 1855, regarding absence on Furlough, shall be held applicable to privilege leave.

* 30. No Furlough or leave of absence, as announced in General Orders, exceeding two years in twenty years aggregate service, three years in twenty-five years service and four years in thirty years service, shall be allowed to count as service for the Retiring Pension; and no difference will be made in this respect between leave of absence taken in Europe or elsewhere in or out of India, or whether the leave be on sick certificate or on private affairs. (See various Orders following Rule 31.)

G. G. O. No. 183, of 25th February 1855.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased with the sanction of the Government of India, to declare that the period during which Officers may have been, or may hereafter be absent on leave for the purpose of accompanying insane or sick Officers, is allowed to reckon as service for Pension under the New Furlough Rules, to the extent of the regulated travelling days.

G. G. O. No. 273, of 18th March 1854.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased with the sanction of the Government of India, to declare that Officers returning from Furlough to Europe, and intending to adopt the overland route, who may be ordered to do duty with Recruits proceeding to India via the Cape of Good Hope, shall reckon service for Pension under the New Furlough Regulations from the date of arrival at their respective Presidencies of the overland mail steamers on which they would otherwise have proceeded.

* 31. In the term leave of absence as announced by General Orders is to be included all leave of absence except the period allowed in Rule 29 and the ordinary indulgence of one month's leave in six months, as authorized by the existing Regulations, and which are in all cases, whether of Regimental or Staff Officers, to be allowed to count as service for Pension. All leave to a greater extent granted by Political and other Authorities which may not hitherto have been published in General Orders, must be so announced hereafter.

G. G. O. 23rd May 1855.—With reference to Rules 26 and 31 of the New Furlough Regulations, and to G. G. O. No. 1 dated 26th ultimo, the Commander-in-Chief is pleased to establish the following Rules in supersession of existing Orders, with respect to the grant by Officers commanding Regiments, Stations, and Divisions or Forces of leave of absence on private affairs to Officers (Staff and Regimental) serving under their respective commands.

L. The periods for which leave may be granted are limited as follows:—

By Officers commanding Regiments, subject to the control of Officers commanding Stations:

For periods not exceeding three days in the calendar month (between musters) within the Division or District, and limited to an aggregate of ten days in six months between the 1st January and 1st July and vice versa.

By Officers commanding Stations, subject to the control of Officers commanding Divisions or Forces:

For periods not exceeding ten days in the calendar month (between musters) within the Division or District, and limited to an aggregate of twenty days in six months, between the 1st January and 1st July and vice versa, exclusive of leave granted by Officers commanding Regiments.

By Officers commanding Divisions or Forces:

To the extent of thirty days in six months, between the 1st January and 1st July and vice versa (irrespective of musters), within or beyond the limits of the Division.

or District, and excludes of leaves granted by Officers commanding Regiments and Stations.

II. All leave which may involve absence from the Station for one or more nights, must be sanctioned in public Orders.

III. The period of leave specified in public Orders is to be understood as including the whole period of an Officer's absence from his Corps or Station, except when expressly sanctioned in extension of leave previously granted.

IV. Commanding Officers are strictly prohibited from granting leave of absence in extension of the periods for which leave may have been sanctioned by any authority superior to their own.

V. In every application for leave of absence, the total period of leave previously enjoyed since the 1st January or 1st July is to be specified.

VI. When leave beyond the limits of the Division or District may be granted by Officers commanding Divisions or Forces, the place to which it is granted must be specified in the Order except when sanctioned under the special provisions of G. G. O. No. 211 dated 14th April 1851 (Jameson's Code, Arts. 216 to 219 Section XXVI.)

VII. Leaves of absence under the provisions of the G. G. O. quoted in the preceding paragraph can be sanctioned in those cases only in which Officers shall declare their bona fide intention to rejoin their stations at the expiration of the leave applied for.

VIII. Officers commanding Stations may grant permission to Officers to proceed to places beyond the limits of the Division or District, in anticipation of the sanction of Officers commanding Divisions or Forces, in cases of pressing emergency to be specially reported.

IX. Officers commanding Regiments, Stations, and Divisions or Forces, who may desire leave of absence, must await the sanction of the next superior authority before quitting their commands, except in cases of pressing emergency which must be specially reported.

X. Medical Officers must obtain the sanction of the Superintending Surgeon before submitting applications for leave of absence from their Stations for any period exceeding three days.

XI. All Officers are required to provide themselves with copies of the Orders granting them leave of absence, and in reporting their arrival at any Military Station they are to specify the periods for which they may have obtained leave.

XII. It is to be distinctly understood, that with the exception of the short leaves within divisions or Districts, which Officers commanding Regiments and Stations are above empowered to grant, no leave of absence on private affairs in excess of thirty days in six months can be sanctioned under any authority but that of the Commander-in-Chief or Government, duly announced in General Orders.

G. G. O. 22nd June 1855.—It being required by the New Furlough Regulations that all leaves of absence on medical certificate whether within or beyond India, and for whatever period, shall be announced in General Orders, the Commander-in-Chief calls the attention of Officers commanding Divisions or Forces and Stations, to those Regulations and directs that Extracts of all Orders granting Officers leave of absence from their respective Stations, on medical certificate be duly transmitted on the day of issue to Army Head Quarters, for publication in General Orders. When the medical certificate sets forth that the leave applied for by any Officer is necessary for the purpose of obtaining a final certificate to proceed to any place out of India, the purpose is to be specified in the Order in view to the regulated travelling days being credited to the officer in the Register of Furloughs.

G. G. O. No. 648, of 20th August 1855.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to direct that every Officer proceeding on leave be required to certify the dates of his departure from and return to his Station, and that in every application preferred for leave on private affairs within Presidency limits, the applicant be required to specify the total period of such leave previously enjoyed since 1st January or 1st July immediately preceding.

G. G. O. 5th September 1855.—Consequent on the New Furlough Regulations, a Register of all Furloughs and leaves of absence in and beyond India, granted to Officers in General Orders, between the 1st January 1818 and the present time, has been prepared at the Adjutant General's Office at the Presidency where every Officer will be at liberty in future to see and take a copy of his own registered leaves of absence, or to depute any other person by a letter to the Assistant Adjutant General in charge of the Bombay Office, to do so for him. As there are probably many cases in which Officers may not have availed themselves of the full periods of the leave in India sanctioned in General Orders in past years, the unexpired portions (not already cancelled) of all such leaves will be credited to them and the Register corrected accordingly upon officers furnishing certificates from Regimental or Station Staff Officers, or (should the existing official records not afford the information) certificates upon honour under their own signatures, of the dates on which they actually quitted and rejoined their respective Corps or Stations provided the certificates be received at the Adjutant General's Office at Bombay within six months from this date if the Officer be now in India and if absent beyond India within six months from the date of his return.

As every Officer will be able under the provisions of this Order at all times to inform himself regarding the total period of his service in India counting for Pension the Adjutant General's Department is entirely exempted from hereafter furnishing certificates of service to individual Officers.

Officers will address their communications on the subject of this Order to the Assistant Adjutant General at the Presidency postage paid.

G O C 22nd September 1855.—With a view to obviate the necessity for cancelling in General Orders the portions of leaves of absence within Presidency limits granted in General Orders in Officers under the New Furlough Regulations, of which they may not have availed themselves the Commander in Chief is pleased to notify under the authority of Government that all Officers will have such portions of their leaves credited to them in the Furlough Register in the Adjutant General's Office provided they report by letter to the Assistant Adjutant General at the Presidency within one month from the expiry of the leave the precise dates of their quitting and rejoining their respective Corps and Stations and that during such reports the whole period of leave published in General Orders will be debited against their service for Pension.

All Officers (however employed) will transmit the above reports direct to the address of the Officer in charge of the Adjutant General's Department at the Presidency postage paid. The reports of Officers serving Regimentally must bear the countersignatures of the Officers commanding their respective Corps.

G O C 16th October 1855.—Under the authority of Government, the following Rules sanctioned by the Government of India, are published to the Army, with reference to the New Furlough Regulations.—

I All Officers proceeding on or returning from Furlough or leave of absence beyond sea, will be entitled to one month's preparatory leave at the ports of embarkation and disembarkation in addition to the regulated travelling days, and to count the same as service for Pension provided they quit their respective Corps or Stations with the avowed intention of applying for leave to sea, or beyond the limits of the Presidency and provided they proceed direct to the ports of embarkation.

II Officers who may be placed on Court Martial or other duty by order of the Commander-in-Chief or Government, while on leave of absence on private affairs, will be allowed to count as service for Pension the periods during which they may be so employed.

III Leave to the following extent may be granted to Officers to proceed to the Presidency on duty for the purpose of being examined in the Native languages before the General Examination Committee, and will reckon as service for Pension, viz.—

The regulated travelling days one month for preparatory study at Bombay and the actual period of detention in attendance on the Committee.

IV Officers permitted to attend the Central School at Poona for instruction in Military attainments, will be considered on duty and will be entitled to count as service for Pension the regulated travelling days, and six months in addition for residence at Poona.

V Officers permitted to proceed to Stations at which Mounted Corps are located for the purpose of going through the prescribed Infantry Course of Equitation Drill will be considered on duty and will be entitled to count as service for Pension the regulated travelling days, and two months in addition for residence at the Station.

G O C 5th December 1855.—With reference to G O No. 357 dated the 12th ultimo the Right Honorable the Governor in Council has been pleased to decide that in all cases of leaves of absence on private affairs, which have been granted in General Orders previously to the date of the Order above quoted for "one month (whether taken between or irrespective of musters), and in which the leaves may be shown to have been granted as "privileged" the Officers shall be held entitled to reckon thirty days of such leave for Pension notwithstanding that they may have been actually absent from their Stations for thirty-one or thirty-two days, the day of return included.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council has been pleased to decide that all leaves of absence on private affairs, within Presidency limits, which have been or may hereafter be granted to Officers on their return from Furlough or leave beyond sea, or on being relieved from Staff or other detached duty in consideration of their being prevented by the Rules contained in Articles 31 86 and 87 Section XXXII. Jameson's Code from at once proceeding to join their Stations in Secnds or Rajpootans shall reckon as service for Pension under the New Furlough Regulations.

When practicable Officers so circumstanced will in future be employed on duty or attached to some Corps, until the season shall admit of their joining their respective Stations.

G G O No. 111 of 30th January 1856.—Referring to that part of the General Order by the Governor General of India of the 17th November 1854, which regulates the period of absence to be counted as service for the Retiring Pension of Officers of the Army the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to prescribe the following Rules regarding the notification of leave of absence granted to Officers of the Staff, with a view to the maintenance of an accurate Register in the Office of the Adjutant General and in order that all Officers quitting India may be placed on an exact equality as regards loss of time counting as service.

The term 'Staff' as declared in the 18th paragraph of the above General Order applies, for the purposes of these Regulations to all Officers holding Staff or detached appointments, Military Political or Civil.

The following Rules are intended to apply only to Officers serving immediately under Government, or in Offices or Departments not immediately subordinate to Army Head Quarters. For Regimental and other Officers, serving directly under the orders of the Commander-in-Chief His Excellency will be pleased to lay down such rules as may appear to be most appropriate and convenient for the required object.—

1st.—All leave of every description, privileged or unprivileged, which is granted by Government, is to be notified in the Military General Orders.

2nd.—Every Order granting leave of absence is to express the date from which it is to commence and the date to which it is to extend.

3rd.—Officers who have not availed themselves of the full period of leave granted to them, are authorized to notify the circumstance with full particulars to the Adjutant General's Office at the Presidency by letter (postage paid), within one month from the expiration of the leave, and such correction as is proper will then be made in the Furlough Register; failing such Notification, the entire period of leave published in General Orders will be debited against their service for Pension.

4th.—In order to ensure still further the correctness of the Register returns will be made by the Military Auditor General and by the Civil Auditor half yearly showing the leave, privileged and unprivileged which has been taken by Officers serving immediately under the orders of Government.

5th.—No Officer is to quit his Station until leave is regularly granted him by the proper authority; and all Officers are to return to their Stations within the term of leave granted to them failing which they will be considered as absent without leave and be subjected to the penalties of that condition.

G G O No. 250 of 8th March 1856.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to announce that the maximum period for which an Officer can be absent from his Regiment or appointment on privilege leave, whether between musters or irrespective of Muster is thirty days in each half year.

G G O No. 956 of 22nd December 1856.—If an Officer obtain privilege leave for one month and in extension thereof obtain one month's leave on private affairs in the following month he is entitled to count the first month as privilege leave but in the case of an Officer obtaining leave to proceed to the Presidency preparatory to embark ing for Europe on Furlough under the New Furlough Regulations, no portion of such preparatory leave can be treated as privilege leave.

Should an Officer who is on privilege leave not rejoin his Corps, but be absent in continuation, on not more than five months leave on private affairs, or one year and eleven months leave on medical certificate he will retain his full salary or allowances for the thirty days of privileged leave, which will also count as service; but he will nevertheless forfeit all military Allowances on completing six months or two years absence as the case may be, reckoned from the date that he quitted his Corps or Station.

"82. Officers, to be entitled to retire on the full pay of their Regimental rank (under the Regulations of 1796), must have served twenty-two years in India, out of which leaves of absence for two years in the aggregate, and not more, will be allowed to count as service for the Retiring Pension.

"83. Officers to be entitled to retire on the full pay of Captains and Majors (under the Regulations of 1835-37), must have served twenty and twenty-four years respectively, out of which time leaves of absence for two years in the aggregate and not more, will be allowed to count as service.

"84. Officers, to be entitled to retire as Lieutenant-Colonels, must have served twenty-eight years, out of which leaves of absence for three years in the aggregate, and not more, will be allowed to count as service.

"85. Officers, to be entitled to retire as Colonels, must have served thirty-two years out of which leaves of absence for four years in the aggregate, and not more, will be allowed to count as service.

G. G. O No. 404 of 1868.—Officers of twenty-two years Indian service are entitled to retire on the pay of their Regimental rank. This privilege, granted under the Regulations of 1796 and 1854, may in some cases, be rendered imperative by the Regulations of 1801 precluding them from claiming for retirement the benefit of the rank attained after twelve months from date of landing in England. The restrictive rule is rescinded in the case of Officers who after twenty years Indian service counting for Retiring Pension, may return to Europe on leave, and they are allowed to claim for retirement the benefit of any rank allowed prior to the expiration of twenty-two years service.

"86. The scale for Medical Officers and Veterinary Surgeons, of privileged Furlough and leave of absence, as counting for the Retiring Pension, will be as follows:—

Years.	Months.
1	8	in 17, and under 20 years service
2	9	in 20, " 23 "
3	0	in 25, " 30 "
4	0	in 30, and upwards.

"87. It is to be distinctly understood, that under no circumstances whatever will an Officer be permitted to retire on full pay until he has completed the full time of service above specified, whether he be in England at the close of his service or elsewhere.

G. G. O No. 878, of 23rd September 1857.—The following extract paras. 18 and 19, of a Military letter from the Honorable the Court of Directors to the Government of India, No. 126, dated 22nd July 1857 is published for general information:—

18. By the Regulations established for the promotion of Lieutenant Colonels to the rank of Colonel after three years service it is provided that no longer period than one month in each year or a total of three months in three years, or six months in six years, shall be allowed to reckon, whether the leave shall have been spent in India or out of the country, except in cases of wounds or illness contracted by service in the field, duly certified by a Medical Board, when each case will be separately considered with reference to the time to be allowed.

19. In reply to the question now put to us, we have much satisfaction in stating that we are prepared to extend the benefit of the exception above specified to the time required for retirement on full pay. Every claim to the benefit of this exception must be duly certified by a Medical Board, and be forwarded to us for our decision, accompanied by the opinion thereon of the Government and Commander-in-Chief of the Presidency to which the Officer belongs.

"88. The privileged time of absence may with the permission of the local Government, be taken at any time, subject to these Regulations. If, therefore, at the end of twenty years' service, of which eighteen had been passed on actual duty in India, an Officer should be on Furlough or sick certificate in Europe or elsewhere, he will be entitled to retire on the full pay of a Captain without returning to India, and so in the other terms of service for the higher Pensions. In like manner a Medical Officer on Furlough or sick certificate, in Europe or elsewhere, at the end of seventeen years service, fifteen years and four months of which had been passed on actual duty in India, will be entitled to retire on the lowest rate of Pension without returning to India; and so in the other terms of service for the higher Pensions.

G. O. No. 679 of 1859.—The following G. O. by the Governor-General in Council dated 8th July 1859, No. 995 is republished:—

Under instructions from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, the following is substituted for G. O. No. 106, of 30th May 1836:—

Officers retiring in England from the service shall be considered to have retired from the date of their application for leave to retire or from the expiration of two years and a half from the date of the commencement of their furlough, whichever shall first happen.

"Promotions in succession to casualties by death in England shall have effect from the date of despatch, or from the expiration of three years absence from India, whichever shall happen first."

"39. These Rules do not in any way affect the existing Regulations regarding the grant of leave in India, or for short periods to sea, whether on private affairs or on sick certificate except as to the periods of such absence being taken into calculation in the time allowed to count as service for retirement on full pay."

G. O. No. 27th April 1855.—With the sanction of the Right Honourable the Governor in Council the following decisions of the Government of India on points connected with the revised New Furlough Rules, are published to the Army:—

Questions.

Will all Officers (Staff and Regimental) who may proceed on leave to places in India, whether within or beyond the limits of their own Presidencies, be entitled to receive their Indian Allowances for a period not exceeding six months if on private affairs, and two years, if on medical certificate, from the date of their quitting their respective Corps or Stations, as allowed to them under the Furlough Rules?

"Will Officers holding Staff or other detached appointments, who may proceed on medical certificate, be entitled to retain their appointments, and to receive half their Staff salaries, for a period not exceeding two years, as under the Old Furlough Regulations?"

"Will all Officers (Staff and Regimental) under the New Rules, who may proceed on leave for short periods to sea, or for brief periods to Ceylon the Mauritius, or other places out of India on private affairs, be entitled to receive their Indian Allowances during their absence; and if so for what period from the date of their quitting their respective Corps or Stations?"

Decisions.

"It has been expressly declared in Rule 39 that the former Rules regarding the absence of Officers in India are not in any way affected by the New Regulations."

An Officer may proceed to those places only which he could have visited on leave in India prior to the publication of the New Rules, and he can retain any appointment during absence for six months on private affairs and for two years on medical certificate."

"Officers absent for short periods at sea retain their Indian allowances, the Old Rules on this subject continuing in force."

G. O. No. 17th November 1859.—Referring to the Regulations marginally noted, Officers, Military and Medical, proceeding on Furlough to Europe or beyond India are warned that failure on their part to report intended date of departure to the Officer in charge of the Adjutant General's Office at Bombay will result in the commencement of their Furlough being calculated from date of its grant in General Orders.

G. O. No. 457 of 1862.—Permission granted to return to duty by a particular ship is equivalent to an extension of leave until the arrival of the ship in India.

GOVERNMENT ELECTRIC TELEGRAPH

RULES FOR THE TRANSMISSION OF MESSAGES

I Messages are received for despatch at all hours, day and night, with exception of Sundays, Christmas Day, New Year's Day and Good Friday, when the Offices will be closed between the hours of 4 and 16h (or 4 p m.)

11 Messages tendered for transmission on ordinary days between 18h (or 6 p.m.) and 6h of the following day and between 6h and 8h and 16h and 18h (or 4 p.m. and 6 p.m.) on the abovesaid Holidays will be charged double the ordinary rate.

III. Messages are transmitted by Telegraph between all the Stations enumerated in the accompanying list at the rate of sixteen words for one Rupee for each distance of 400 miles or under 2 Rupees for all distances between 400 and 800 miles and so on *

14 The distances are estimated by the direct Map line and not by the actual length of wire

7 On the main lines no message however short, is sent for less than one Rupee.

VI. For each word above 16 or 20 an additional charge is made for each rate of distance. Thus for 16 words from Calcutta to Bombay (3 distances) the charge for 16 words or under is 3 Rupees for 19 words 3 Rupees 8 Annas.

VII. Peon hire for the delivery of Mesquite, at the rate of two annas per mile will be charged for all distances beyond two miles from the Telegraph Station. Distances of a mile are charged as one mile.

VIII The names of order and address are changed in the address. Initials count each as one word and it is recommended that the Christian name(s) add no benefit in full compound names such as McNaughten O'Donnell DeSalle Van Meter St Clair (only as one word) provided the prefix be no a re than on syllab

[illegible]

2. The names of towns from and to if Telegraph Stations are also sent free but are charged for if not Telegraph Stations. Names of quarters, or streets, or numbers of houses in not paid for. Money is not allowed to large cities such as Calcutta, Bombay and Madras should always have the real name of the address written by street and number and Messages to such names as Smith Jones R. will leave the Christian name or profession of the addressee to prevent misdirected.

XI The day hour and minute of the receipt of a message into a Telegraph Office for transmission is in every instance added by the Department following immediately the text of the message and is telegraphed free of charge. Senders may date their messages if they think fit but the senders date will be charged for and will in view to avoid confusion if given at the end be transferred to the beginning of the text of the message

XII In the body of the message every word is charged. Stops, inverted commas, and notes of interrogation are free.

XIII The accuracy of messages is not guaranteed and the sender and receiver have to accept all risk arising from errors and delays

XIV 8 ideas of messages are advised to use the shortest and most familiar words they can select. The more intelligible the message is, the greater is the probability of its being transmitted correctly.

XV The accurate transmission of messages is rendered much more certain by their being repeated back from each repeating Station This repetition is charged for at half price extra, and is advised in all messages of great importance

XVI The errors which chiefly occur are in the numerals such as sixteen sixty—thirty four thirty owing to the sound and first three or four letters being similar To obviate this it is recommended that in all financial or money messages the sum be given in two forms, halving or doubling the amount, thus. Pay to my order Rs. 500 or half 1000 When this is done, an error is of very rare occurrence *

XVII Messages in cypher are transmitted at the ordinary charge, but must be in run bers, and those written in full, as in a cheque or in ordinary English words of concealed meaning. Figures are telegraphed as if written in full as in a cheque and charged for according to the number of words thus Rupees fifteen hundred and a xty four, count as six words.

XVIII Should a message in cypher be tendered for transmission simultaneously with a message in ordinary language the latter will take precedence of the former

XIX All messages must be in the English language

XX The name of the sender must be written on the face of every message

XXI When a message is delivered in an unintelligible state a refund of the cost of the portion rendered unintelligible will be made to the sender if application be made within three months of the date of despatch provided the message has not been transmitted beyond the limits of India, its dependencies, or Ceylon, and within six months in the case of messages for countries beyond India as Egypt or Europe such refunds will be made irrespective of whether the message has been paid for at repetition price or not but no refund will be given for any error in an unreported message arising from wrong figures being given unless the precaution advised in No. XVI of these Rules shall have been adopted Refunds on account of messages which have not reached their destination will be made subject to the above limits as respects time

XXII Refunds will also be made in all cases of non-delivery or unjustifiable delay of messages whether repeated or not By unjustifiable delay is meant that arising from neglect in the Office When a message is detained by an interruption or action of the line and is sent on by next post to the nearest Telegraph Station the time occupied by the post is not allowed to count as delay in the Telegraph Department Expresses are never sent for private messages but only for Mail News or Government despatches of great importance But when an express is required for these purposes advantage is taken of the opportunity to send on all private messages on hand

XXIII Complaints respecting errors, or delays or neglect in the delivery of messages and applications for refund should be addressed to the Director General of Telegraphs in India, Complaint Office Calcutta An exact copy of the message complained of and the receipt of the despatching Office should in all cases accompany the complaint

XXIV Private messages shall be despatched in the order of their receipt in the Telegraph Office Should two or more messages be tendered simultaneously the shortest shall have the precedence without reference to its relative importance

XXV No Private message or messages of more than 200 words in all can be sent at one time by any individual or firm and no second message by the same individual or firm till after the lapse of three hours, unless the line be free and not required by any one else

XXVI The practice of sending messages by each line alternately where alternate lines are available as between Calcutta and Bombay having caused much dissatisfaction to the public in consequence of messages bearing later office dates arriving by the direct line before others sent between the same places, but which have gone by the alternative line must cease and in future the alternative line must be used only in the event of interruption on the direct line

The rule here published has been acted on as respects messages between Calcutta and Bombay since the 1st of August, and the result as regards the diminution of number of complaints of supposed preference has been satisfactory Under this arrangement it becomes necessary to define what are to be considered as the chief direct Telegraph routes throughout India These are—

From Calcutta to Madras through Madraspoor

From Calcutta to Bombay through Agra

From Madras to Bombay through Bangalore

From Calcutta to Bellary through Patna and Mirzapore

From Bombay to Lahore and Ferozpur through Hyderabad Sind

The routes here termed direct are not in every case strictly so The route from Bombay to Lahore via Hyderabad Sind is less direct than that via Agra but it has been chosen as the route by which all messages from Bombay to Lahore or places to its north-west should be sent, in order to relieve the Indore line which has to convey the entire of the important messages between Calcutta and Bombay

* The accidental omission of the word Not causing in many cases the total change of the intended meaning of a message this word is always signalled, in slow time, twice over by the sender and once back by the receiver at each station. The same precaution is taken in signalling the word our and your XXVII Messages will be forwarded by post to places not having Telegraph Stations but only in registered letters the registration fee to be paid by the sender of the message.

XXVIII Messages will be received by post from Europe or elsewhere for transmission if money be deposited beforehand at the despatching Station sufficient to pay for the transmission. Such messages should always be addressed as per mail, and not to the Superintendent. This mistake often causes the letter to be sent by post to the Head Quarters of the Department. All such letters should invariably have the words Telegraph Message for Despatch, written conspicuously outside.

XXIX Messages so sent by post must be prepaid by Telegraph stamps and will be transmitted from the nearest Telegraph Station where the stamp will be cancelled by being written across by the Assistant in Charge.

XXX The stamped messages should be despatched marked conspicuously Telegraph Message.

XXXI Adhesive Telegraph stamps will be procurable from the Civil Treasuries and private vendors. They should be affixed on the face of the message so as to be made when the message is folded up for transmission by the post. The usual postage must of course be paid in addition.

XXXII In cases of extreme pressure of business Assistants in charge of Offices may refuse to receive for despatch any messages beyond the number which experience shows may be cleared off within the day. The messages in such cases are not to be received and kept for despatch the following day but must be returned so as to prevent accumulation.

XXXIII In case of interruptions on railway Assistants in charge of Offices have the power to refuse the receipt of messages for transmission.

XXXIV When an interruption occurs notice to that effect is to be posted conspicuously at the entrance of each Office and communicated to the Press for public information.

XXXV In every such case all persons tendering messages for places beyond the interrupted section are to be informed of the interruption and not to leave the message and acquainted that a refund will not be made in case of delay from this cause.

XXXVI The sender of a message may prepay the charge for a reply which must be limited to the number of words so prepaid for.

XXXVII Messages are sent bearing from sea ports will be received by mail steamers or other vessels for despatch and addressed to well known firms or individuals but no message whether paid or bearing will be received for transmission from any vessel until her name has been made known. Bearing messages will not be delivered to the addressee till payment has been obtained.

XXXVIII Assistants in charge of Telegraph Station are authorised to refuse to transmit a message which may be of a decidedly objectionable character. Should the character of the message be disputed the matter may be referred to a Secretary to Government if the dispute occur at the seat of a Government or to the Chief Civil Officer if at a provincial station.

XXXIX To secure secrecy as much as possible all persons not actually on duty in the Signal Room whether belonging to the Telegraph Department or not and without reference to official rank in any case are strictly prohibited from entering the Signal Room. The only exception to this rule is for senders of messages, who may be allowed to see their messages despatched if they attend the Office at the time of their turn for transmission.

XL Violation of secrecy on the part of any person in the Department will be punished by dismissal from office forfeiture of arrears of pay and a declaration in the official Gazette of the incapacity of the delinquent to serve the Government in any capacity. It is a violation of secrecy to mention the fact that any message has been received or despatched by any particular person or firm.

XLI Service messages from all public functionaries must be paid for in cash prior to despatch the rates being the same for distance and number of words as those charged to private individuals.

XLII Service messages have no right of precedence and take their turn of despatch with private messages, except in cases of pressing public emergency and importance when priority may be claimed on special grounds.

* The only exceptions to this rule are enumerated in special printed instructions issued to each Office.

XLIII The sums paid by public functionaries for the despatch of messages will be recovered from Government by the senders in their own Departments, by contingent bills countersigned as usual.

XLIV On certain emergent occasions of great importance the public functionaries named below have the power of clearing the line that is of suspending the receipt and despatch of all other messages till the one for which the line is cleared has passed on —

The Governor General of India

Governor of Bombay

Governor of Madras.

Governor of Ceylon.

Commissioners in Chief India Madras and Bombay

Lieutenant Governors of Bengal & IV Provinces and Punjab

Commissioners of Sind, Gujerat and Pegu and such other Commissioners Resident

Political Agents, and Military Officers as may receive the power from the Government of India by special order

Director of Telegraphs in India.

The messages so sent are however to be paid for in cash as in ordinary cases.

XLV Under orders of Government the following order of precedence will be observed in the transmission of messages of European news received by the mail steamers at Galle and Bombay. Messages addressed to the Government of India; messages addressed to the Government of Bombay; Madras and Ceylon, &c. &c.

XLVI No unpaid messages except those on the actual business of the Telegraph itself as specified in the departmental Regulations, shall on any account whatever be transmitted. A violation of this rule will subject the Subaltern or Assistant in Charge of the Station the message is sent from to dismission from the public service.

XLVII Messages received after 8 P.M. are not delivered till six the following morning unless marked urgent or obviously of an urgent nature or addressed to the newspaper press.

As a measure of convenience and to prevent the want of certain to ensue from message forms being issued loose, such forms will hereafter be delivered to those requiring them bound together in books containing 100 messages each with counterfoil. Such books will be issued on a strict application only to public officers free to private persons on payment of one rupee per copy. Each book will have a printed "side title" pasted on it, and on the inside of the cover facing the first message will be pasted a printed abstract of each of the Rules of the Department as it imports those for whose use the books are prepared to be acquainted with. These books are now available at the various Telegraph Offices and the issue of loose message forms is absolutely prohibited.

All messages for despatch should be directed to the Assistant in Charge of the Telegraph Office, and the envelope should be marked outside, "Messages for Despatch." It often happens that the Message is directed to the Superintendent, Deputy Superintendent, or other Officer who may be in some distant part of the country. Even in such a case if it bears the mark Message for Despatch it is at once opened, and all is well—but without this distinguishing mark it is of course forwarded to its address and a delay of days or even weeks may result.

Native merchants must take their own measures for having their messages composed in accordance with the Telegraph rules, as translation is not undertaken by any officer or servant of the Department.

In future when expressing the hour of the day or night in messages, the day will be considered as consisting of one cycle of 24 hours instead of two cycles of 12 hours each the hours afternoon being continued as 13, 14 and so on up to midnight or 24th the new day commencing as 0th. Thus, fifteen minutes past 4 of the afternoon of the 12th November will be expressed as November 12th 16th 15m or more briefly November 12d. 16-15h.

In all cases of messages deliverable on board vessels, the charge for boat hire must be prepaid. The sums leviable at Receiving Offices as boat hire for ship messages to be delivered at the undermentioned stations are as follow—Calcutta, Rs. 4; Masulipatam and Visakhapatnam, Rs. 8; Cannanore and Calicut, Rs. 12; Hooghly Point, Pamban, Cochin, Galle, Bombay, Goa, Suva, Victoria, and Kurrachee 1 Rupee; Pondicherry, Rs. 1-0; Madras and Colombo, Rs. 1-8-0; Coconada, Rs. 2; Sangor, Rs. 3.

FOURTEENTH BOMBAY MORTUARY REPORT

BEING FOR THE YEAR BEGINNING 1ST FEBRUARY 1861

THE Returns of the past year show a somewhat higher rate of mortality than usual Exclusive of the Still-born, 15 863 deaths have occurred viz 8 049 males, and 6 914 females The excess of male over female deaths is unusually large, being in the ratio of 129 4 males to 100 females while the average ratio is but 124 The fluctuations in the ratio are, however very great, and seem difficult to be accounted for even on the supposition that the difference is chiefly owing to the changes in the floating population

2 The deaths from Cholera were 1 251 about half the average number Of these, 1 091 occurred in the two last months of the statistical year December and January The disease appears to have broken out first in an epidemic form among the families in the Native Infantry lines on the Esplanade from whence it rapidly spread to the native town Girgaon has contributed even more than its usual high proportion of victims to this terrible scourge. The low-lying districts of Kamatespoora and Dhobee-talso come next in order

3. Small-pox, almost absent last year, has been this year excessively fatal, having carried off 1,600 persons. The average number of deaths is about 660. It raged as usual through the first six months of the year commencing in January with 82 deaths, and ceasing or nearly so by August. With the exception of one year, 1858, when there were, 1,666 deaths, no such mortality from small-pox has occurred since the registration commenced. Whatever may be the cause, there appears to be a singular regularity in the recurrence of the epidemic outbreaks of Small-pox the disease assuming increased activity pretty constantly every third year. The following years have been marked by a large mortality from Small-pox—1860, 1852, 1800 1858, and 1861. The victims have, as usual, been chiefly children between one month and four years of age but, unlike what has been previously observed a sudden increase in the number of deaths occurs between the ages of 14 and 34 apparently indicating in accordance with other statistics an unusual influx of adults from other parts probably less protected by vaccination than even the inhabitants of Bombay.

4. The mortality from Measles was 76 only, against an average of 270, making a total of epidemic diseases of 2,927 which is rather less than the average the excess of mortality is therefore due to diseases which are not of an epidemic character.

5. Fever was said to be the cause of 7,024 deaths, and Disease of the Nervous System of 701,—both numbers somewhat greater than usual. Disease of the Respiratory System was fatal to 1,034, the mean of the last 13 years being 1,328. The numbers recorded under this head have been diminishing during the last ten years. Diseases of the Alimentary System carried off 2,078, which is a large increase upon the mortality of the last three years, though not greatly in excess of the average. Under Cachexies and Debility 1,404 deaths were registered which is still more than last year and nearly twice the average. Of these, 1,182 or 84 per cent. were children less than 10 days old.

6. To diseases of the Circulatory System 80 deaths are attributed to Diseases of the Urinary System 24. Child-bearing and the diseases incident thereto carried off 141 females. 12 deaths from Leprosy are recorded. 128 from Dropsy and 12 from Unknown Causes.

7. The Violent Deaths were 269 the largest number that have yet occurred in a single year. Of these, 9 were carriage accidents, 76 died from drowning and 21 from falls, 6 persons were suffocated by falling earth. 24 were crushed or suffocated by falling houses, and 4 were killed by the fall of masses of rock,—a total of 36—a great loss of life due to preventable causes and for which a serious responsibility rests on the owners or managers of the property.

8. The Still-born were 337 of which were males 214 females 123 thus to every 100 females 174 males were still-born—a large excess yet less than that recorded last year. Of the 16,600 deaths including the still-born, 10,559 bodies were buried, 4,736 burnt and 905 exposed to carrion birds. The place of birth of 3,145 was Bombay of 7,962 elsewhere, and of 90 it was unknown. 1,985 written reports were received or 12 per cent. of the whole.

9. From the Meteorological Observations it appears that the year was in some respects exceptional. The barometric pressure varied little from the annual mean, but the mean temperature was only 79.1° against an average of 80.2°. The mean dew-point was also lower than usual being 71.8°, though the degree of saturation of the atmosphere at the recorded temperature, or the percentage of humidity was the same as usual, viz. 78 per cent. The wind blew from the sea a mean of 20½ hours, or three quarters of an hour more than the average, and from the land 3½ hours. The rain-fall at Colaba was 78 inches on 97 days, the average being 70 inches on 99 days. The rain-fall at Byculla, which is almost always considerably in excess of that at Colaba was 106 inches of rain on 94 days. The average rain fall at Byculla is about 80 inches. The year was in fact an unusually wet one, which partly accounts for the mean annual temperature being lower.

10 If we omit the first year of registration, 1848, as the Returns may be supposed to be then somewhat incomplete, and compare the next six years, from 1849 to 1854 with the following six, 1855 to 1860, we shall find that the mean annual mortality in the first period is 14,005, and in the second 15,019, an increase of only 8 per cent. But the proportion of deaths which occur in the different localities is not exactly the same. In the following districts a decided increase has taken place—Gurgaon, Kamateepoor, Masagon, Colaba, Dhobee-talao, Walkeeshwar, Mahaluxmee. In the following a decrease—Fort Market, Khara-tulao, Parrell, Seo, Mahim, Water Division. This accords on the whole with what may be supposed to be the general movement of the population. Kamateepoor and Masagon have been getting more and more thickly populated and also the hill districts of Walkeeshwar and Mahaluxmee. The signs of increased population in Gurgaon are not so marked, and the greater mortality is probably due in great part to the increasing insalubrity of the district. On the other hand, the diminished mortality in the Fort is perhaps attributable to the removal elsewhere of the residence of many whose offices are within the walls, the increasing value of house-room compelling them to seek other dwellings. Efforts have been made during the last two years to improve the drainage of Kamateepoor, but there has been hitherto little effect in diminishing the mortality, in fact the deaths during the past year are by far more numerous than in any previous year. The whole district lies so low being below high-water mark of spring tides, that the most complete system of local drainage is insufficient without a properly constructed low-level sewer into which the local drains may discharge themselves. It is to be feared that unless steps are soon taken to supply this want, this district, tenanted by a rapidly increasing population of not the cleanest habits may become a very focus of epidemic disease. The large tannery in this neighbourhood, and the totid open ditches which are gorged with the refuse matter apparently flowing therefrom contribute not a little to the offensive emanations which render it so unpleasant a task to pass through the district.

11 Tables are published which are capable of conveying a large amount of information in a few of these particulars. They record the yearly fluctuations in the mortality whether from epidemic or non-epidemic causes, distinguishing the caste or race the sex the age the month of the year the occupation and the place of residence. But these are little more than naked facts. It is extremely hazardous to attempt to draw from them any but the very simplest deductions. In fact all the important conclusions to be derived from statistics of population cannot be touched, such as—the duration of life in the several castes or races sexes occupations, and localities, and its variation from time to time with the altered circumstances of the place. The practical conclusions deduced from a knowledge of these latter facts would be of the highest utility in suggesting means for ameliorating the health of the crowded population of this town and diminishing the mortality.

12 The element wanting to this end is a systematic enumeration of the population—a Census. It will be remembered that an attempt to take a census of the inhabitants of Bombay was made in the year 1849. The reported population was then 566,119 but from imperfections in the method employed and from the internal evidence furnished by the detailed results, it is believed that very little confidence can be placed in the enumeration then made. A repetition of the census on a better plan has been frequently urged by the originator of these Tables, Dr Leith. The following passages may be adduced from previous Mortuary Reports—

Six years of the Registration of the Deaths in Bombay are now completed, and the information gathered has been duly arranged, as was proposed, in anticipation of a census, which it was hoped would render the facts being accumulated truly valuable. At present these Mortuary Tables can be turned to only very limited use, and they are somewhat like what a Surveyor's system of triangles would be without a measured base line. It is greatly to be desired that measures may be adopted to render the approaching Census of the island correct, for it is better to be without a Return of the population than to have one so inaccurate as that of 1849. Without a legal enactment such as is had recourse to in

Britain, to render the giving the requisite information compulsory on the inhabitants, it seems almost impossible that a correct enumeration of the people can be made, for without such compulsion, with a population so large as to yield 14 000 dead a year so diversified in race, and so little likely to give active aid in the work, although disposed to be passive as this community is known to be, a very large establishment of enumerators would be required and setting aside the very heavy expense of their maintenance, it would be difficult to find a sufficient number of men available, and otherwise qualified for the work. — From the Report for 1853

12 The time for another Census is near, and I would with due respect state, that from the utter failure of the two former attempts at an enumeration of the people, I am of opinion that it is impracticable to take a correct Census in Bombay by other means than those that are used in Britain and there does not appear to be any valid reason why a legal enactment should not be had recourse to here, to obtain from the people that information which it is for the people's good to collect, which is necessary to allow of sanitary measures being undertaken with confidence and which the Government of every civilized country has or ought to possess. There is not among the natives of this place as those who have local experience well know, any religious objection to afford all the usual information connected with Vital or Mortuary statistics, such as those at a distance are too apt to imagine may exist. — From the Report for 1854

13 I cannot but adopt without reserve these statements and suggestions, and I would respectfully urge, as a preliminary measure, the passing of an Act of the Legislative Council rendering it compulsory on every householder to give the requisite information, and authorising the infliction of a penalty for the wilfully giving a false return

14 It can scarcely admit of a doubt, that during the last twelve years the population has received a great accession the streets are more crowded the signs of commercial activity are everywhere more conspicuous, many spaces then vacant are now built over yet it is not a little remarkable in how trifling a degree the mortality has increased. The probability certainly is that in proportion to the population the health of the town is better now than it was twelve years ago. If this change is to be at all attributed to the partial improvements which have been effected in the drainage, to the establishment of dispensaries, and to a few other hygienic measures,—the most sanguine hopes may be entertained of the effects of carrying out a complete system of drainage for the whole town such as that recently proposed and the speedy adoption of so eminently desirable a step cannot be too strongly urged. This completed, and the population of each district enumerated and classified, the comparative healthiness of the several districts will be at once seen and an unfavorable return will be the immediate signal for further sanitary improvements

15 From the advantages which this town already possesses, its favorable insular situation its pure and invigorating sea breeze, its copious and excellent water supply, and the abundance of open space for air and recreation which it now affords, and it is to be hoped may long continue to afford,—when the streets are widened, and the water supply rendered more accessible to all, and when a thorough house drainage and an effective sewerage system shall have been established,—there is no reason why Bombay should not rank among the very healthiest of tropical cities

SUCCESS OF THE COMPANY

- . In proof of this it may be mentioned that the Indian Branch alone has, in less than nine years issued Policies insuring Rs 3 95 72 735
nearly Four Millions Sterling

The Directors feel it unnecessary to add one word to these figures. That this Company should in so short a time without any claim whatever to the support of the public beyond that arising from a simple statement of facts have raised itself to the first position amongst the Life Offices of India is sufficient evidence that European residents in India fully appreciate the motives which led to the establishment of the Indian Branch of this Company as set forth in the introductory announcement contained in the original Prospectus.

SECURITY

The Capital of the ALBERT MEDICAL AND FAMILY ENDOWMENT is £500 000 subscribed by a numerous and influential body of Proprietors.

The Funds exceed £550 000 Sterling the Annual Revenue from Premiums £250 000, which is increasing at the rate of about DATA.

The circumstances under which the Premiums for India were computed are these --

Under authority from the Court of Directors of the late Honorable East India Company in September 1841 the Actuary was permitted to examine the records of the India House with a view to the completion of a Report on the state of the Bengal Military Fund. The Rates of Premium for this Company have been computed from the data thereby afforded and from the Company's own subsequent experience. Other Life Assurance Companies have not enjoyed similar advantages in this respect.

THE PROFITS

Are divisible every three years, a proportion equal to five-sixths of the whole profits being at the option of the Assured payable in Cash added to the Policy or applied in reduction of future Premiums.

GUARANTEE DEPARTMENT

In this department the Company guarantees the fidelity of individuals filling or about to fill, situations of trust where security is required for their integrity and when a Life Assurance is combined with such Guarantee a considerable reduction is made in the Premium paid for the latter.

It is a well known fact that prior to the substitution of Public Guarantees for private suretyship many persons of unimpeachable character were excluded from the acceptance of confidential situations, solely upon the ground of their inability to provide the required and indispensable security. Public Guarantee is therefore especially applicable to individuals thus circumstanced as the cost of the guarantee forms but a very trifling item of expense when compared with the great advantage thereby afforded, and the security to employers by this system of guarantee is unquestionably more complete

In cases where private sureties are still preferred, or rendered necessary by the constitution of certain public bodies, such sureties can be indemnified from all liability by the Policies of this Company

As the scale of Premium varies according to the nature of the situation and the duties to be performed reference must be made to the Office for quotation of the Premium to be paid in each particular case

The Company's arrangements for the extension of the Guarantee System to India are not yet matured but in the meantime proposals will be received and forwarded to London

ASSURANCE OF DISABLED LIVES

The Directors of the Indian Branch have at present no authority to issue Policies on Invalid Lives but proposals for Assurances of this character will be received for transmission to the Company's Office in London and the decision thereon communicated to applicants with all possible expedition

Parsi Lives

The extension of the Life Assurance Department to the Parsi community is now receiving the serious attention of the London Directors In the meantime Proposals on the Lives of respectable Parsis will be received and (for the present) forwarded to the Head Office for consideration

LOANS

The Directors are prepared to lend on liberal terms on mortgage of property in Calcutta, and on the security of Government Paper and Bank of Bengal Shares a preference being given to parties introducing Policies to the Office

THE GENERAL ADVANTAGES

Afforded by this company and not already noticed, may be briefly enumerated as follows —

Policies issued for any amount, from Rs 500 to Rs 50,000

Policies held by parties on their own lives indisputable on any ground whatever except fraud or non payment of the premiums, but subject to forfeiture during the period of twelve months from their date, in the event of the life assured dying by his own hands or duelling or by the hands of justice

Assignment of Policies recorded without charge, and from the date of such recording the assurance not subject to forfeiture on any ground whatever except fraud or non payment of the due premiums.

Age admitted on the Policies in all cases where satisfactory proof is given

Assurances may be renewed within six months of the date on which the premium became due on satisfactory proof of health and payment of moderate fine.

Policies on which three annual premiums have been paid purchased at a fair value

Two-thirds of the estimated value will be advanced on the security of Policies on which at least three years' premiums have been paid

Overlives or charged on the lives of military officers holding civil appointments for the term of such appointments.

Immediate reduction to English rates on the assured proceeding to Europe or any other part of the world which the Directors may consider equally healthy whether for a permanent or temporary residence.

Claims paid three months after proof of death, or the Directors will receive applications to discount immediately after such proof if preferred.

Policies may, at the time of being effected, be made payable in London at the rate of Two Shillings sterling per Rupee.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

In addition to the above the following is a summary of what are more particularly the

ADVANTAGES TO EUROPEAN RESIDENTS IN INDIA.

Notwithstanding the material modifications which have been made in the terms of other Offices since this Company commenced operations in India, the rates of premium will be found generally lower than those of any other Company and particularly favorable for military men.

There is no charge for Entry Money Policies, or Stamps.

Premiums may be paid in one sum or by yearly half-yearly quarterly or monthly payments

Fifteen days of grace allowed for payment of premiums and in the event of death taking place during the currency of these days and before payment of the premium the Policy will be held valid and effectual and the premium deducted from the sum assured

Where the proposal is for Rs 2,500 and upwards, and not for a shorter period than five years the Company pays the Medical Examiner's Fee.

Persons Assured with the Company through the Indian Branch have permission to proceed to and reside in any part of the world except the west coast of Africa without prejudice to the assurance so long as they continue to pay the original rate of premium applicable to India, stipulated in their Policies

The Company transacts generally every description of business involved in the contingencies of European Life in India.

MEDICAL REFEREES REMUNERATED WITH A GOLD MOHUR

in every instance whether the Risk be accepted or declined

Annuities, &c, granted on very favourable terms and every description of Life Assurance business transacted

THE LOW RATE OF PREMIUM CHARGED BY THIS COMPANY AS COMPARED WITH THAT OF OTHER FIRST CLASS OFFICES IS EQUIVALENT TO AN IMMEDIATE BONUS

Full particulars as to the Constitution, Terms and Conditions of the Company together with Forms and Instructions either for Assurance Annuity Endowment, or Guarantee will be forwarded free to any part of India on application being made to any of the Secretaries of the Indian Branch

All public securities purchased for the Society shall be especially endorsed to two or more of the Directors, and the interest only shall be made payable to the Secretaries and Treasurers.

Should the Directors think, however, that the Funds will not allow of immediate payments of these amounts then such sum or sums only shall be advanced as they may deem proper and the balance of the prescribed advance or advances shall be paid so soon as the Directors shall be of opinion that the Funds will safely admit of it.

25th —Arrears of subscription, or any other sum due to the Society by the holders of any share or shares on a lapsed life, shall be deducted from the amount of the advance.

26th —At the expiration of the Society on the 31st December 1863 it is proposed that a new Society, on a similar plan, but subject to such alterations as experience may suggest, shall be immediately instituted, into which Society all Members then holding shares on unexpired lives in the Seventh Laudable Society shall be at liberty to transfer those shares without any removed Certificate of Health, in consideration of a sum of money to be paid to such new Society out of the Funds of the Seventh Laudable Society, and without taking into account any proportion of the advances previously paid by the Society on account of the lapsed lives. To enable Members of the Seventh Laudable Society to transfer the shares held by them into the ensuing or Eighth Laudable Society, no regular form of application shall be necessary, but a Certificate of Admission into the new Society shall be immediately issued to them on the simple payment of the usual half-year's subscription in advance, subject, however, to the established penalty of two per cent. in the event of the payment being delayed beyond the term of one month from the commencement of the new Society, and to the entire forfeiture of the privilege of transfer (excepting on a new application to the Directors, accompanied by the regular Certificate of Health, &c.) if not made good within the second month from that period. The rates of subscription for members transferring their shares from the Seventh to the Eighth Laudable Society shall be according to the respective ages of the parties on whose lives the shares are held on the 1st January 1864.

27th.—It is proposed to render the institution of the Laudable Society permanent, by establishing a new Society in succession to each Society as it expires.

28th.—Upon the transfer to the Eighth Laudable Society of any share or shares in the Seventh Laudable Society, which may stand assigned, by endorsement or otherwise, for the benefit of any other person or persons than the person or persons originally interested therein, or upon any subsequent transfer of any share or shares so assigned from the Eighth or any succeeding Society to the Society next ensuing, such share or shares shall continue in all respects subject to the lien of the Assignee, and shall be declared to stand for the benefit of such Assignee in the Certificate of Admission to be issued from the new Society.

29th.—Within one month and fifteen days after its termination, the Accounts of the Seventh Laudable Society shall be made up, and the balance of Funds actually on hand, after deducting for the new Society 12 per cent. on the amount of subscription received during the term of the Society, be divided by the number of shares held on lives subscribed upon in this Society which may have lapsed between its commencement and its close, and the parties entitled to benefit by such lapses shall each receive his or their proportion of the said funds according to the number of shares respectively held by them on the several lapsed lives, the holders of half, quarter, or eighth shares divided according to those fractional proportions. The sum of Rupees 10,000 shall be considered as the maximum payable on any one lapsed share, and any surplus shall be carried to the credit of the new Society.

30th.—With respect to any lapses of lives in this Society, which may not be ascertained on or prior to the 15th of February 1864, such lapses shall be at the risk of the next ensuing or Eighth Laudable Society, and the advances of Dividends to which the parties claiming to benefit by such lapses may be entitled shall be paid out of the funds, and agreeably to the Regulations of the said ensuing Society, on the lapses being ascertained, but it is hereby expressly provided, that notice of such lapses accompanied by satisfactory proof of the same, must be given to the Secretaries of the Eighth Laudable Society within one year from the expiration of the Seventh Society on the 31st December 1863, and that in the event of the party or parties interested neglecting to prefer his or their claim on account of any such lapse within the period here prescribed, he or they shall entirely forfeit all right and title to any benefit whatever, by reason of such lapse from the funds of the Eighth or any succeeding Society.

31st.—In the event of the party insured proceeding on Field or War Service, an additional half yearly subscription of Two hundred and fifty Rupees per share shall be charged from the date of his departure, to continue until his return, the non payment of which, in advance, will subject the holder to the forfeiture of his share.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Any mis-statement in the Declaration of Health makes the Policy void as does suicide in cases when a person effects an Insurance on his own life (unless the Certificate be specially endorsed over for the benefit of a Creditor or Creditors, and duly registered) but not so in case of Creditors effecting an Insurance on the lives of their debtors

BOMBAY TRACT AND BOOK SOCIETY.

THE Depository of this Society is situated on the verge of the Esplanade. The building was erected in 1856 by special funds contributed for the purpose by the liberality of Christian friends in this Presidency. This Society has been in existence since 1827. Its objects are 1th to obtain and circulate the publications of the Religious Tract Society London and other suitable English publications 2^{ndly} and chiefly to prepare and circulate Christian tracts and books (composed on Evangelical principles excluding those minor points on which Christians may conscientiously differ) and adapted to the wants of the native mind in Western India and the adjacent countries.

Upwards of 250 books and tracts in the various languages of this Presidency setting forth the great truths that are essential to salvation, have been prepared and published. In twelve years 1850-61 the number of copies of vernacular publications issued from the Depository amounted to 683,547.

A price is put upon the vernacular tracts a mere trifle compared with their cost but sufficient to ensure in most instances their preservation. This system carried on for many years has been found to be far more satisfactory than the plan of gratuitous distribution.

The rent of the upper stories of the Depository building, is sufficient to defray the expenses of establishment and other incidental expenses. The money contributed to the Society is all applied in the production, printing and circulating of tracts among the natives.

Supplies of English tracts for the use of soldiers and others are available. The proceeds of the small vernacular tracts when sold by colporteurs, may be applied in payment of their salaries.

Contributors are at liberty to take tracts to the amount of one fourth of their contributions, gratis.

The publications of the Religious Tract Society, are sold at first cost. The Sunday at Home Leisure Hour British Messenger, British Workman, and other English religious periodicals, are supplied.

The stock of English publications on hand embraces books for the young, for children, for the youngest readers, for adults, the monthly volumes, educational works, picture books, children's tracts, history, biography, daily text and devotional books, standard commentaries on the Bible, sailors' servants and factory libraries, &c &c.

The excellent publications of the Christian Vernacular Education Society, both English and Marathi, are always on hand.

Books and tracts are to be had in the following languages Marathi, Guzerati Portuguese, Hindustani Hindee, Oordoo Bengali, Arabic, Tamil, Telugoo, Canarese, Malayalim, also in the languages of continental Europe.

Reports and Catalogues will be cheerfully furnished to all who make application at the Depository.

GAS APPARATUS for Private Use, Factories, Towns,

STEAM ENGINES, Boilers and Castings

MR BOWER of ST NEOT'S, HUNTINGDONSHIRE, is the manufacturer of Gas Apparatus of all dimensions. He has in stock the plant for all sizes from 20 up to 2,000 lights, and he will deliver an order within one month from receipt of it. Testimonials and references to a selected list of 100 out of a great number of Gas Works erected by him in England and various parts of Europe together with calculations of the cost of gas, specifications, price lists, and other particulars will be forwarded on application.

With coal at 50s. per ton, gas may be manufactured where 50 lights are required burning for eight, or 100 for four hours per day at 8s. per 1,000 cubic feet; the price of this apparatus is 135l. With 500 lights burning eight, or 1,000 burning for four hours per day at 8s. 6d. per 1,000 cubic feet the price of this apparatus is 840l. Delivery free in London in livery of packing and cases. These estimates of cost of gas allow for wear and tear—five per cent. for capital and three per cent. for renewing plant when worn out. The pipe, with fittings for factory use, may be taken to cost an average of 1l. per light f.o.b. in London.

Although coal is the best material for gas-making yet it may be made from cotton or other seed peat, bark wood, oil—in fact, anything that will burn with a flame.

Mr BOWER supplies cast iron pipe, lamp columns, and brackets, wrought and composition tube, meters, and gas fittings in general.

In ordering it will be well to give a plan to scale of the factory or house, showing the positions assigned for the gas works and of the lights. It is also necessary to state the longest time the lights will be burning per night.

Instructions for fixing and plans &c. forwarded with the bills of lading.

Plans, specifications, and estimates prepared for the lighting of towns and cities.

M BOWER manufactures Steam Engines, vertical and horizontal, fixed and portable and executes mechanical engineering work in general, equal to any house both as regards price and workmanship. Boilers—Cornish and tubular—of the best plate and proved to a high pressure. Tanks, girders, and other wrought iron work. Castings of all kinds from drawings, and at moderate prices.

Terms—Credit up to four months by the acceptance of a first-class house in England or 2½ per cent. discount for cash against bill of lading on presentation to a London banker.

PERCY M DOVE, Manager and Secretary.

"ROYAL" INSURANCE COMPANY.

It is indispensably necessary that every Company which undertakes to replace the Loss occasioned by FIRE or to provide for a specific sum, or by an Annuity, the means of substantiation to the Widow and the Orphan, should be able to show an Undoubted Ability to perform these engagements. As ample evidence of the Standing and Position of the "ROYAL" Insurance Company, it may be stated that its

SUBSCRIBED CAPITAL IS TWO MILLIONS STERLING

THE CAPITAL ACTUALLY PAID UP AND ACCUMULATED AMOUNTS TO UPWARDS OF EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS

It cannot be too strongly urged on the attention of the Assurer that SECURITY is the First Consideration in all Insurance Transactions, and that his object is not attained unless the event or contingency against which he wishes to guard is provided for,—from the moment he has paid his premium,—under all possible circumstances.

It is therefore manifest that the Capital of an Insurance Company should be sufficiently large to meet all possible demands, and that this should be distinctly stated, in order that the entire sufficiency to meet all claims may fully appear.

REPORT by the AUDITOR to the Annual Meeting on August 1861.

"We have, in reply to the demands of your Manager, inspected every Document connected with the Company. We have again passed under examination EVERY VOUCHER, EVERY DEED, and EVERY SECURITY. It is a matter of no light moment to go through all these in the case of a Property representing something like £850,000, and we found everything in the most perfect order, and entirely correct."

EXTRACTS FROM REPORT FOR YEAR 1860

THE GENERAL PROGRESS OF THE COMPANY will be found to equal if not to surpass, any expectation which could have been formed of it.

FIRE PREMIUMS for 1860 equal Total Fire Premiums for the Seven Years—1854 to 1860

LIFE PREMIUMS for 1860 EXCEEDED the Policy Life Premiums for the Eight Years ending 1860.

PROGRESS OF ANNUITIES in 1860 LARGELY EXCEEDED the similar receipts for the first THREE YEARS—1854 to 1856.

LIFE

INCREASE OF FIRE INSURANCE DUTY in the Year 1860 over 1859

As shown by a Return made to Parliament, and ordered by the House of Commons to be printed, 7th June, 1861.

The following Table exhibits the Increase of Duty paid to Government by the different Insurance Offices and proves, on the authority of Public Documents, that the Royal Insurance Company is increasing its Fire Business far more rapidly than any other Insurance Office in Great Britain.

1 ROYAL	£8939	18 West of England	£1113	35 National of Ireland	£447
2 Phoenix	4213	19 Cardigan	1147	36 Church of England	406

17 Alliance	1168	34 Atlas	580

The above statement exhibits more clearly and on more conclusive authority than any other that could be produced the high estimation in which the "Royal" is held by the Public.

The Increase of the "ROYAL" is more than double that of any other Company, and more than 30 per cent. of the Entire Increase of all the London Offices combined. The Increase of the "Royal" is also more than 30 per cent. of the Entire Increase of the other 28 County Offices combined.
